Is That So?

Accustomed as we are . . . yet, it's a strange world. Consider: before the white man settled in North America there were more different languages spoken by the native tribes of Indians than there are today by all the immigrants of countries our government recognizes.

There is no sound in space for the simple reason that there is no air for sound waves to travel on.

All mammals, including members of the cat family, cannot see in pitch darkness. But when there is a little light such as that from a starlight, they can see quite well.

The first horse we know of today once lived in what is now Wyoming. He is known as the Dawn horse and was eleven inches high. His fossil remains, discovered by Dr. Frederick Brewster in 1903, are now in Amherst college museum.

Ducks lay their eggs in the early morning. If you want to be sure to collect duck eggs keep your ducks confined until around 9:30 a.m.

Jade got its name because people once believed it cured a pain in one's side. The Spaniards called the stone piedra de ijada, meaning "stone of the side."

San Francisco's original name was Yerba Buena (good herb), Honolulu's, Fair Haven, Los Angeles' El Pueblo de Nuestra Señora la Reina de los Angeles de Porciunculo.

One-Tenth Under Ice
More than two-thirds of the surface of the earth is under water—and of the third remaining, about one-tenth is covered with ice.

The earth, truly, is a middle-sized planet; four are larger—Jupiter, Saturn, Neptune and Uranus; four are smaller—Mars, Venus, Mercury and Pluto.

To reach space, space travelers will need to go only half the distance between New York and Washington, D.C. Space is marked by an imaginary line only 120 miles above the earth.

Golf was once illegal in Scotland. Men were supposed to spend their spare time practicing archery, the principal weapon of war.

You can start a grass fire by simply leaving an empty glass bottle on the ground. The bottle's curved sides may concentrate the sun's rays upon one spot and the resulting heat can set the grass burning.

Listeners sitting fairly close to a TV screen can hear the speaker before many of the people in the speaker's audience can hear him.

Wooden Parts Change
The wooden parts of a house and its furniture keep changing size. This is because wood contracts with the cold, expands with the heat, swells when the

Dog Banished; Woman Goes, Too
Tampa, Fla.— A 35-year-old woman secretary planned today to leave town in order to remain with her German shepherd dog which has been banished from Hillsborough county for allegedly biting five children.

The dog, named Ranger, was granted a reprieve from execution by City Court Judge Bob Johnson, provided Mrs. Martha Allen removes the animal from the county. Mrs. Allen, who must stand trial for failing to keep the dog confined, said she will move to St. Petersburg, in Pinellas County — with Ranger.

ALWAYS EXCUSES
Greenport, N.Y.— An investigator on the staff of the Suffolk county district attorney's office was a little late getting to work Thursday. The investigator, Harold R. Freeman, explained that when he got up and reached for his trousers he discovered they were gone. So was his badge, gun and $75 in cash.

Oregon Airports Due Help in Seal Coating
Salem—The State Board of Aeronautics will assist various Oregon cities in seal coating airports runways it was announced today.

Board Chairman Ralph Scroggin, Lebanon, said under provisions of a program approved by the recent legislature the board will pay up to $3,000 for the cost of materials used in seal coating one runway at each airport.

NEHRU CHARGED WITH CORRUPT CAMPAIGNING
New Delhi — An independent candidate who stood against Premier Jawaharlal Nehru in India's general elections last February filed a petition Thursday charging the Premier with corrupt campaigning.

Sitaram Khemka, heavily defeated by Nehru, charged the Premier denied political parties or individuals other than those connected with his Congress Party the right to broadcast election addresses or use other means of communication.

ADVERTISING MAN DIES
Philadelphia — George H. Reichard, 75, retired Scripps-Howard advertising executive, died Thursday.

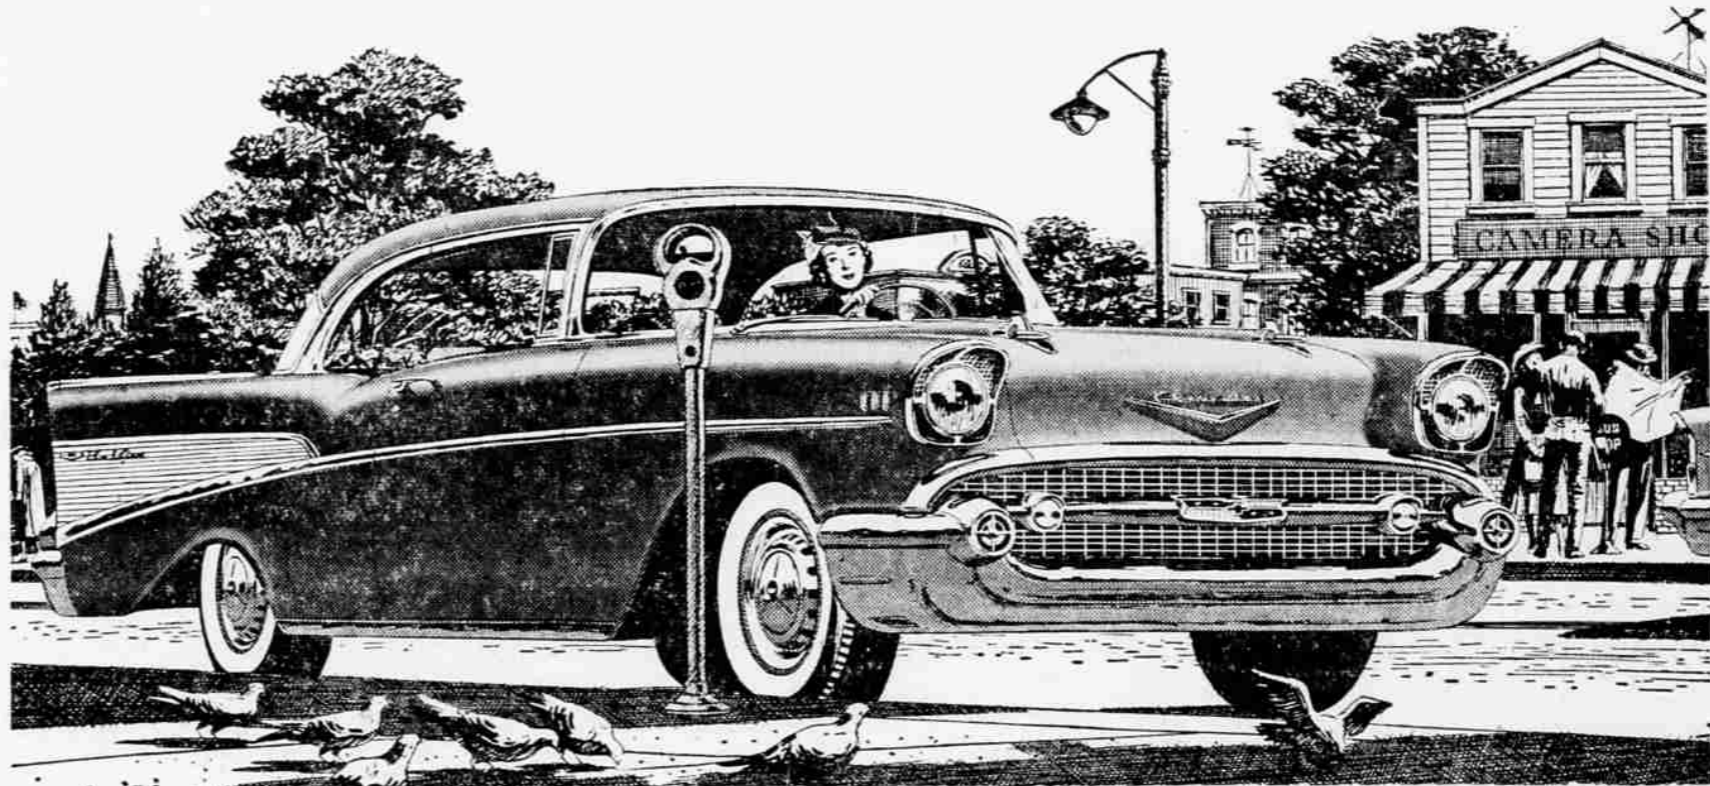

DOCTOR CAUGHT
Flat Rock, Ind.—Dr. J. A. Davis had the surprise of his life. He caught the measles. "I had them a day before I knew it," he said. He said he probably caught them from a recent case he treated.

Chevy's come up with the newest, sweetest, smoothest automatic drive of them all—Turboglide. It's the first and only triple-turbine transmission!

When you see a steep downhill stretch ahead, you set the selector at "GR" (Grade Retarder) and Turboglide helps slow you down.

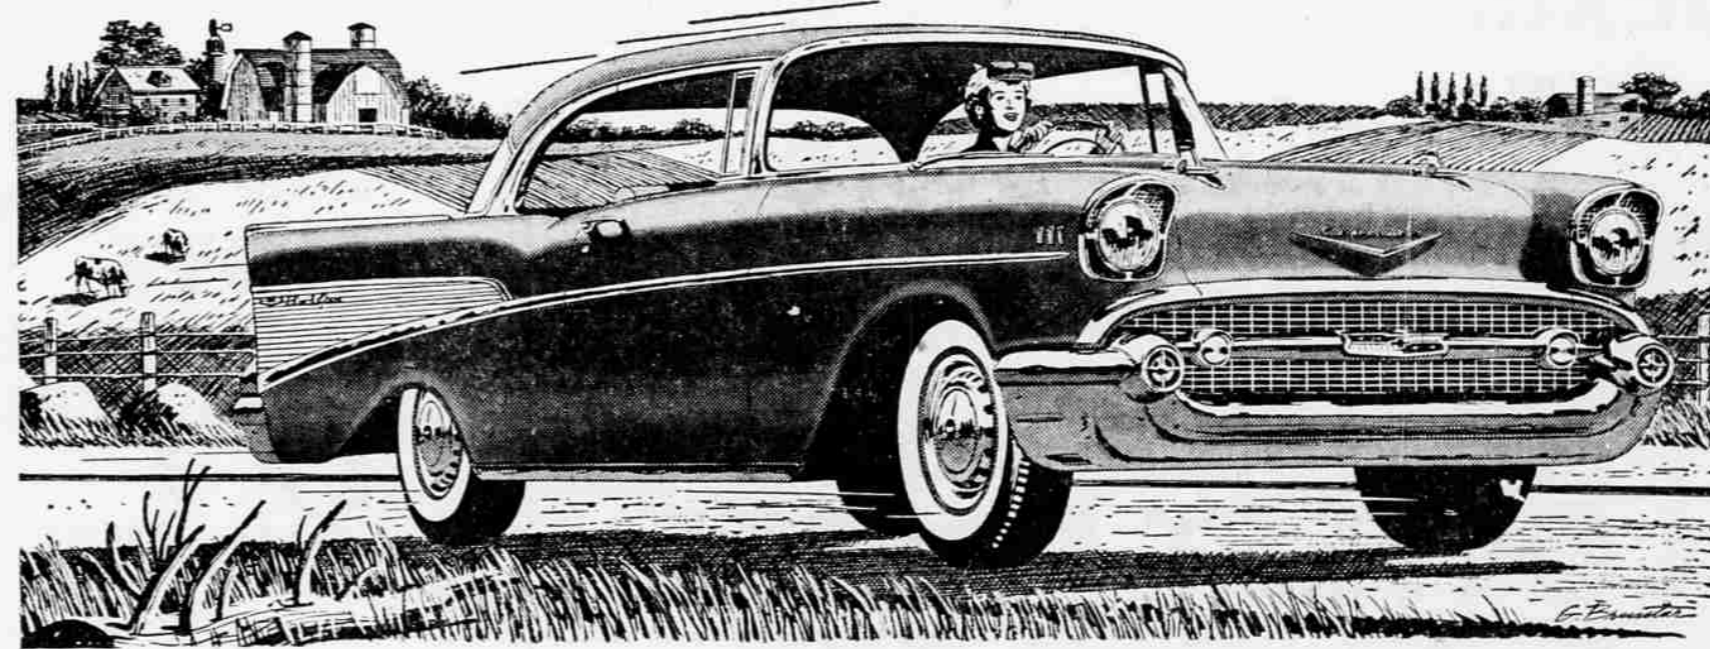

Drop by your Chevrolet dealer's and try Chevy's new, nothing-like-it automatic drive. It's optional at extra cost—and worth every cent of it.

Even before you try it in action, you can tell that Turboglide is something really new and different in automatic drives. You notice that there's only one forward-speed position on the control panel. There's no "Low" needed.
