Beavers Tip Mountie Nine in 13 Innings

By DON THACKERY
United Press Sports Writer

There were plenty of heroes in the Pacific Coast League Thursday night, but there were also those who might be checked out in small white beards and long curved horns.

The action included San Diego's 8-3 win over Sacramento in 16 innings; Portland's 4-2 margin over Vancouver in 13 and a pair of shutouts. Hollywood blanked San Francisco 2-0 and Los Angeles got a 1-0 win from Seattle.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant was a hero for San Diego and Bob Lennon was both a hero and a goat. Grant scattered six hits over 15 innings and fanned 14 while not giving up an earned run. Lennon, however, gave up three runs for him in the very first inning but then came back to drive in four during the course of the game.

Solon Errors Hurt

San Diego won it big with five runs in the 16th—all of them unearned because of boo-boos in the Sacramento infield.

Earl Averill drove in the tying run for the Padres in the sixth with his sixth home run of the season.

Charlie Beamon erred in his own cause for Vancouver in the 13th and let Ed Mickleson pick up the hero's mantle with a single that scored the two runs the Beavers needed. Ray Bauer got the victory in relief. Vancouver got only six hits over the long distance while the Beavers had 10.

Bill Causion was a hero for Hollywood along with pitcher Don Rowe. Causion singled home the first Star run in the first and then homered for the other one in the third.

Seals Mark Time

Rowe scattered eight Seal hits and took the win while Jack Spring was charged with the loss. However, San Francisco remained a half game ahead of the league on Vancouver's loss.

Jim Fridley singled to center with one out and George Anderson on second to account for the only run in a tight battle in Seattle.

Ralph Mauriello, who fanned eight, won the duel with Marion Fricano. Each pitcher gave up only six hits and the game was a scoreless deadlock until the top of the ninth when Fridley came through with the hit that meant the win.

Wiffi Smith Sets Pace in Ladies' PGA

By JOHN CARROLL

Pittsburgh —(AP)— Professional newcomer Wiffie Smith, a freckle-faced lass with a "near magic" putter who shattered men's par to set a course record, took a one-stroke lead today into the second round of the Ladies' PGA championship.

The 1956 British and French amateur titlist from St. Clair, Mich., showed her heels to 25 of the nation's top women golfers Thursday by blasting a 2-under-par 68 over the creek and wood-land-marked Churchill Valley Country club course.

Miss Smith, who turned pro just last February after 10 years on the links, fired a 4-under-par 32 on the front nine and shrugged off a pair of bogeys after making the turn.

Four Birdies

Dropping six and eight-foot putts with unconcern to score four birdies on the first nine, her first round card was good enough to establish a low for the 5,767-yard layout and keep her a stroke ahead of the 69s posted by defending LGPA champion Marline Bauer Hagge, Ruth Jessen and Louise Suggs.

Mrs. Hagge, playing out of Dallas, Tex., was even with the 20-year-old pace-setter at the end of nine holes, held steady most of the backstretch and needed only a par 4 on the 18th for what would have been a tying 68 first-round score. But her second shot landed in a sand trap and she took two putts to hole out after chipping to within 10 feet of the pin.

The first-day showing of Miss Jessen, Seattle, Wash., was a minor surprise. She was the first to tee off and led all early finishers with her 68 until Miss Smith "came home hot."

Camp White Scuffles Glendale on Saturday

Rogue Valley league semi-pro baseball nines enter the second week end of counting action either up to their anticipated strength or virtually so.

Camp White and Glendale lead off the loop activity Saturday night with a ruckus at Ricker field at the Veterans Administration domiciliary. Game time will be 8 p.m. Medford Cheney Studs go to Cave Junction and Grants Pass to Butte Falls, both on Sunday.

Manager Keith Johnson of the VA-sponsored Camp White club has indicated that his crew should be intact for the meeting with last year's RVL titlists. Joining the club will be John Eggink, who has been teaching at Oakridge.

Don Sanford, who hurled a one-hitter on Memorial day against the Studs in non-loop competition, is the likely starting Camp White thrower as the VAD crew begins it circuit slate. Phil Sword is expected to be on hand to take over the catching.

Other line-up possibilities Dick Wooton, first base; Richie Price, second base; Bill Seymour, shortstop; Al Kimura, third base; Ned Landers, right field; Dick Nix, center field and a choice among John Niles, Bob Serak, Bob Smith and Charles Rettman for left field. The Whiters met Grants Pass in a non-counter Wednesday without the services of Seymour, Sword and Nix who were absent for various reasons.

Leighton Brown may be the Glendale tosser.

Jerry Droscher, pitcher and outfielder, Ed Reinking, outfielder, are expected to be with the Studs this week end since college sessions end. Both Droscher, ex-Roseburg high, and Reinking, ex-Medford, have been playing for the Oregon State college Rooks this season.

Dick Smith, another pitcher-outfielder, isn't scheduled to be with the Studs for another week end. He will be in action for Glide this Saturday in a play-off with Seaside for the state A-2 high school baseball title.

Jerry Bartow, ex-Washington State college chucker, who was with Coos Bay-North Bend in the Southern Oregon league last year is due to join the Medford club in another week.

Following are the league statistics after the first week end of play:

Baseball World Plans Polio Day For June 14

New York — Baseball's drive against the scourge of polio will be concentrated on June 14—Flag Day—which has been proclaimed National Baseball Polio day. Seven groups have aligned themselves behind the effort to fight the crippling enemy for the benefit of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

This is the first all-out effort on the part of all baseball to keep the boys running and playing—and the girls too. Thousands of victims of infantile paralysis still require financial assistance for their medical care. The need for their rehabilitation, as well as continuing research in the fields of prevention and treatment, remains acute.

Baseball organizations which have pledged their whole-hearted support to Polio day are: The National Association of Professional Baseball clubs (official title of the minor leagues), the American Legion Junior Baseball league, the Babe Ruth league, the P-O-N-Y league, National Baseball congress, American Baseball congress, Kiwanis International and many major league clubs.

Three Knot In Tourney

Akron, Ohio —(AP)— Tommy Bolt, his famed temper in check, entered the second round of the $22,000 Rubber City Open golf tournament today in a three-way tie for first place.

Bolt turned in a four-under-par 67 Thursday to share the first day honors with Gay Brewer Jr., of Cincinnati and Charles Sifford of Philadelphia, both relatively unknown on the pro circuit.

A group of 27 started play today within three strokes of the leaders. Six were one stroke off the pace, five trailed by two and 16 had one-under-par 70s to stay in strong contention.

Cut To 90 Today

The field of 130 professionals and amateurs will be cut to the low 90 after today's round and a second cut Saturday will pare the entries to the low 60 pros and 10 low amateurs for Sunday's final 18 holes.

Veterans of the pro circuit high up on the first day list included Dow Finsterwald, Marty Furgol, Dick Mayer, all with 68s; Art Wall and Al Beselink, both with 69s, and Lloyd Mangrum and George Bayer were grouped in the 70 shooters.

COPS NAB COLLEAGUE

New York —(AP)— Two policemen cruising in an unmarked police car spotted a motorist making an illegal U-turn and speeding away in the opposite direction. After a chase they halted the violator. It was another unmarked police car.
