Newlywed Pair Now in Spokane; Airman on Duty

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lee Symens are making their home at 1227 West Fifth street, Spokane, while Mr. Symens, an airman second class, is stationed at Fairchild Air Base with the United States Air Force.

The couple were married May 9 in a ceremony held in the Community Bible church in Eagle Point. The bride is the former Miss Lena Mae Tibbitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Tibbitts of Eagle Point.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dickenson of Shady Cove.

Miss Lois Farlow was maid of honor. Mrs. Glen Cave and Miss Linda Mallory also attended the bride. Little Altha Dickenson, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Curtis Nelson was ring bearer. Candelighters were Miss Barbara Tibbitts and Miss Maxine Abbott.

Richard Dickenson, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man while Dean Tibbitts, brother of the bride, and Dale Tibbitts, cousin of the bride, seated the guests. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The newlywed couple traveled to the Oregon and California coasts for their wedding trip.

Roxy Ann Court To Receive Visit

Officers of the grand court, Order of the Amaranth in Oregon will make an official visit to Roxy Ann court, at a special meeting Saturday, June 15 at 8 o'clock at Medford Masonic temple.

The grand royal matron, Mrs. Gideon Zimmerman, Gresham and J. J. Kennedy, grand royal patron and a member of Roxy Ann court, will be given special honors and many visitors from the various courts in Oregon will be welcomed. Addenda have been planned for the occasion and a musical program has been arranged.

A reception honoring the grand royal patron will follow and refreshments will be served in the dining room with Mrs. Wallace Brill and her committee in charge.

Roxy Ann court plans a breakfast Sunday, June 16 at 8:30 a.m. at the Medford Masonic temple to which all members of the order and their friends are invited. Mrs. Marshall Day, associate matron and Fred Purdin, associate patron, have charge of the breakfast. Members of Bethel No. 55, Job's Daughters, will assist in the dining room.

Reception Held At Miller Home

A reception for the eighth grade graduates of St. Mary's school was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller Jr. of 411 Oakwood drive May 31. The party, which was sponsored by the parents of the graduates, was held in the Millers' garden, with approximately 200 guests attending.

On the committee were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Naumes, Dr. and Mrs. Florian Shamsy, and Mr. and Mrs. James McGowan, and Mr. and Mrs. Elie Noguier.

The house and garden were decorated with pink roses, and the entertainment consisted of dancing and shuffleboard.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller's son, Stephen, was one of the graduates.

Mother Attends School Graduation

Mrs. Charles Thurston of 1641 Ridgeway avenue, Medford left for Berkeley, Calif., Thursday morning to attend the graduation exercises of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Gilleoly, the former Miss Patricia Hampson.

Mrs. Gilleoly, who received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of California Friday evening, majored in psychology. She plans to leave following graduation for Japan where she will make her home until her husband completes his tour of duty with the United States Army in Korea.

Two Veteran Groups To Meet on Tuesday

The meeting will be held in conjunction with the Military Order of the Coolies.

Eagle Point Couple Wedded In Assembly of God Church

Eagle Point—A ceremony held at the Assembly of God church in Shady Cove Sunday, June 2, wedded Miss Edith Novell Suttle to Bob Leon Robertson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Suttle, Route 1, Box 12, Eagle Point, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Robertson, Route 1, Box 642, Eagle Point.

The Rev. Charles McClintic officiated at the single ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Suttle gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. H. E. Marsh of Medford played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Charles Champlin, soloist.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta. She carried a gardenia cascade bouquet and her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap. The white silk handkerchief she carried was borrowed from an aunt of the bridegroom and has been in the family for four generations.

Miss Jeannette Robertson, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. She wore an ice blue net over taffeta, ballerina length gown and carried gardenias. The bridesmaids wore pastel gowns of net over taffeta and carried matching carnation nosegays. They were Miss Lynda Robertson, Sacramento, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Susan Falkenhagen, Miss Norma Noble, and Miss Gayle Norris, all of Eagle Point.

Candelbearers were Miss Lorraine Davis, Medford, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Paula Nelson, Eagle Point. They wore pink gowns and carried white candles in white nosegays. The flower girl was Leslie Marie Wakeman, Gold Hill, cousin of the bridegroom, and wore a yellow pastel gown.

Byron Davis, Medford, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were David Robertson, Sacramento, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom, Gary Deal, San Francisco, Larry Lewis, Medford, Lee Sanderson, Gold Hill, Roy Knoebel and Terry Dufour, both of Eagle Point.

White roses and azaleas filled the altar vases and other white garden flowers completed the church decorations.

Mrs. Suttle wore a coral grey dress with black accessories and a double cymbidium orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a periwinkle blue suit dress with white accessories and a double cymbidium orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Grange hall in Eagle Point and was attended by the 150 wedding guests and families of the couple.

Members of the bridegroom's family and other guests from Sacramento, Calif., were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Robertson, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Robertson, aunt and uncle, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linton.

Following the rehearsal Saturday evening, her bridemaids feted the bride with a late dinner at Kim's restaurant in Medford.

Mr. Robertson and his bride spent a short honeymoon in California. For traveling the bride wore an apple green nylon dress with white accessories and a gardenia corsage from her wedding bouquet.
