

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutchins, 870 Garfield street, are pictured at their home during the reception June 2 which observed their golden wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins were married in Falls City, Ore., and lived in the Willamette valley for many years before coming to southern Oregon.

Couple Honored With Open House On Anniversary

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutchins of 870 Garfield street, Medford, attended an open house June 2 at the Hutchins home in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The Hutchins were married June 1, 1907, in Falls City, Ore., and lived many years in the Willamette valley. They have made their home in Phoenix and Medford since 1945, having moved here from Trinidad, Calif.

A lace cloth over gold covered the table which held the tiered cake. Yellow roses and candles decorated the table. Golden paper disks were signed by the guests which will later be placed in a scrapbook in memory of the day.

Mrs. Clifford Hutchins and Mr. Thomas Hutchins served the guests, assisted by Mrs. Charles R. Bennett, sister of Mrs. J. C. Hutchins.

The reception was given by the Clifford and Thomas Hutchins, sons and daughters-in-law of the honored couple.

The Hutchins have two other sons, Gerald Hutchins of Renton, Wash., and Harry Hutchins of Madera, Calif.
