Rich walnut with a natural oiled finish is the perfect medium for smart dining-room furniture.

Made for each other

BY RUTH W. LEE, HOME-FURNISHINGS CONSULTANT

CATERING to the demands of young home-makers, a group of home-furnishings manufacturers has combined its best design talents to produce a coordinated collection in the low-price range. It includes everything from upholstered groups to accessory pieces to floor coverings, and that covers a lot of decorating territory. Such an extensive assortment also allows for countless individual arrangements. Compatible furnishings like these help to create smart interiors on budget terms.

Sectionals covered with a textured fabric add up to an important grouping. Illuminating area are wall-bracket lamps.

Practical plan for a family room: Fill it with iron pieces cushioned in white plastic. Note complementary rug design.

Bookshelves and hanging cupboards compose an asymmetric wall pattern over walnut chests that can be stacked if need be.

To conserve storage space, three-drawer chests act as lamp tables beside a simply designed bed with a cane headboard.
