

Redlegs Regain Lead in Loop; Sunday Stormy Days in Majors

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Only a baseball glut could ask for more excitement than there was in the stormiest Sunday of the major league season. No matter what happens to be your dish of tea, it was all there on the menu Sunday.

For those who like home runs, Don Hoak of Cincinnati hit one in each game to help the Redlegs sweep a double-header from Brooklyn, 3-1 and 3-0, and recapture the National league lead. For those who like to see the "little fella" knock off the "big guy," there was the Orioles' two victories over the first-place White Sox, 7-5, 5-0.

And for those who prefer their baseball spiced with some futuffs, there was plenty at Detroit as the Yankees defeated the Tigers, 5-4, in a game that almost resulted in a riot.

Babe Herman Steals

There was even a "Babe Herman" type steal of second with the bases full in the Detroit-New York game and what's more, it helped the Yankees win.

Elsewhere on the big league scene, the Cardinals climbed to within 3½ games of first place by defeating the Giants twice, 2-1, and 10-7. Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh in the first game, 2-1, in 11 innings, but the Pirates won the nightcap, 5-2, and the Cubs topped the Phillies, 7-3, in the opener, while the second game was called in the 10th with the score 4-4.

Rogue Valley Golfers Win Team Tussle

Rogue Valley Country club defeated Reames Country club of Klamath Falls 45 to 33 yesterday in a men's team golf match on the Medford links.

The host divotmen won 14 of the 26 matches, nine by 3 to 0 scores. They tied three and Klamath golfers took nine tussles.

Deane Lambert, Medford, with 76 was low gross among the amateurs and Lloyd Drew, Klamath, was low net at 67. Jim Noel with 78 had Klamath low gross and E. K. Ricker and Dick Travis knotted for RVCC low net with 68s each. Bob Anderson also netted 68 for second Reames low. Darrell Miller had a 69 net in home club contention.

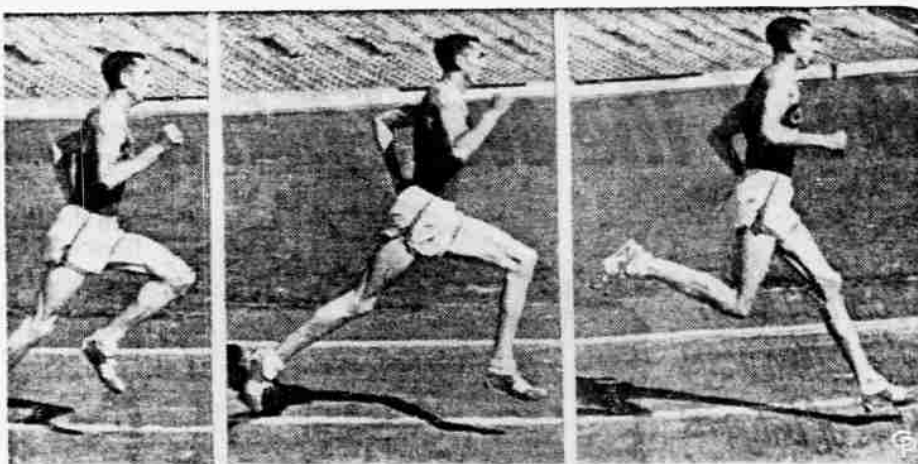

Al Williams, Rogue Valley professional, carded a 70, and Clark Good, Reames pro, an 80 in their match with Williams winning 3 to 0.

Drew was closest to the pin and Bob Strickland had long drive for Klamath Falls and Howard Scroggins took drive laurels for RVCC.

Palmer Cops Akron Golf

By UNITED PRESS

It took a sudden death play-off to decide the Akron, Ohio, golf tournament yesterday.

Arnold Palmer from Labrobe, Pennsylvania, finally won on the sixth extra hole against Doug Ford of Mahopac, New York. Palmer dropped a 20-yard chip shot for the win. Both Palmer and Ford finished the regular 72 holes with scores of 272.

Dow Finsterwald came home with a 275 and finished third. He shot par on all 18 holes for a 71. In fourth place was Bill Trombley with a 277. Five pros were tied for fifth with 278 — Dick Mayer, Freddie Haas, Marty Furgol, Freddy Bolt and Art Wall. In the ladies PGA tournament at Pittsburgh, WGA Smith led after three rounds with a 214. Miss Smith shot a 73 yesterday and is three strokes up on Louise Suggs and Marlene Bauer Hagre. Alice Bauer and Joyce Zinske trail with 219's.

Studs, Camp White, Grants Pass Win in Rogue Valley Circuit

ROGUE VALLEY LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	W	L	Pct.
Medford	2	0	1.000
Camp White	1	0	1.000
Talent	1	0	1.000
Cave Junction	1	0	1.000
Butte Falls	1	0	1.000
Glendale	0	2	.000
Grants Pass	0	2	.000

Medford Cheney Studs, following a pattern set a week ago, went on a homer-bid Sunday and wrote up their second verdict against no defeats in the Rogue Valley Baseball league.

The Cheney nine, again utilizing topnotch pitching by Duane Sides and sharp fielding with their slugging up-and-coming Cave Junction 10 to 3 in the Illinois Valley community.

Camp White's strong club broke into actual league play Saturday night with an 11 to 3 triumph over Glendale. Butte Falls surprised yesterday with a 9 to 5 decision over Grants Pass.

Talent played two non-league games, downing Glendale 9 to 4 yesterday after losing 11 to 8 Saturday night to the Klamath Falls Cubs.

Glendale got its other score in the first inning with Bill Walton, first man up for the Loggers, tallying after drawing a walk. Berg sacrificed and Walton crossed the platter on a third base overthrow on Munyon's fielder's choice clout.

The VAD got a marker in the second inning on singles by Wootton and Sword and a wild pitch. Three more counters came in the third frame on a single by Kimura, bases on balls to Dick Nix and Richie Price and Nix's hard-walloped three-bagger fly to left field.

Clyde Smith Shines

A final Camp White tally was realized in the eighth inning on a walk, error and Sanford's single.

Butte Falls came up with an Oregon Technical institute battery. Names of the two players were not available this morning. It was six walks issued by Jim Smith over two plus innings, however, which proved damaging to the Merchants. Butte Falls picked up three runs each in the second and third innings.

Clyde Smith, from Jacksonville, sparked the Talent offense in the non-leaguer yesterday at Glendale. He had a homer, triple and single in five official batters. John Drew tripled and singled in three turns. Five runs in the first inning were enough to win. Bill Welch topped a safety in the canto and Talent combined it with three bases on balls and two errors.

Seven Homers in Game

Studs lashed out five homers with John Kovenz slapping two and Eldon Francis, Frank Roelandt and Ron Owens each one. Ron Maurer cracked two round-trippers for the Outlaws. Along with a 15-hit offensive the Medford nine got seven hit flinging from Sides and backed his mound performance with errorless defense.

Manager Roelandt had two doubles, a single and his homer in four batting turns. Larry Perkins hit two for four and Kovenz, Owens and Frank Rector two for five. Charles Campbell had a triple and single in four ups for the Cave Junction crew.

Sides fanned three batters and Outlaw moundsman Wayne Saffer recorded nine whiffs. Each pitcher walked two batters.

Medford salted the decision away in the ninth frame with four runs on a base on balls to Perkins, homers by Kovenz and Owens and two-baggers by Rector and Roelandt. Jack Cooney singled and Kovenz homered for two runs in the first inning. Rector got a safety and Francis his circuit whack for a brace of counters in the fourth. Roelandt's four-bagger produced a lone run the sixth inning. The manager's double, Rector's groundout and an error on a rap by Francis accounted for a marker in the eighth inning.

Rain halted the fracas for 15 minutes in the fifth inning.

Six Runs in Sixth

Camp White took advantage of Glendale's fielding miscues and the erratic throwing of relief hurler John Harbour to do the bulk of its scoring in the sixth inning. Six runs crossed home in the frame. Richie Price got the only hit of the stanza. Harbour was charged with two bases on balls and two wild pitches in the chucker and there were four errors.

The thrower needed four strikeouts to retire the side. On the first whiff Phil Sword swung at a wildly pitched ball for his third strike and lumbered safely to first on the error. Two of the four runs in the inning were charged against starting tosser Ted Brown. Don Sanford and Al Kimura had been safe on misplays before Harbour came on from right field to take over on the hill.

The Veterans Administration demerit had five-hits, 13-strikeout pitching from Sanford and the heavy swatting on the part of Dick Wootton and Sanford in chalking up victory. Camp White defensive play was fairly tight with only one miscue directly responsible for one run and another error helping advance two other runners who scored.

Walton on Picnic Slated on Sunday

Jackson County chapter of the Izaak Walton league will have a family outing at Diamond lake on Sunday, June 16.

Members and their families will meet at the boat launching site on the south side of the lake. Each family is to bring its own food and the group is to meet at 2 p.m. The chapter will provide watermelon.

The picnic will take the place of the regular June meeting. There will be a number of contests for boys and girls and adults plus a white elephant "grab bag."

Farrell Signs Indian Contract

Portland — Lenny Farrell, the fine shortstop for the University of Portland for four years, was signed by the Cleveland Indians yesterday.

Farrell, who was reportedly sought after by 13 of the major league teams, signed with the Indians for an undisclosed amount of cash and will report to Mobile in the class AA southern association.

Farrell was signed by Carl Mays, an Oregonian and for 15 years a major leaguer.

Weakens in Eighth

Sanford headed one-hit ball over the first seven innings.

State Crowns Taken By Tigard, Seaside

Portland — Tigard, Seaside and Gaston captured Oregon high school baseball championships at Multnomah stadium here Saturday night.

Tigard defeated Franklin of Portland 3 to 2 in the A-1 title game. Seaside nicked Glide 1 to 0 for the A-2 diadem and Gaston became Class B king with a 3 to 2 verdict over Adria. The crowns are the first major ones in prep sports for any of the three schools.

All conflicts were pitchers' battles with the A-2 encounter the highlight attraction.

Stellar Gary Holmes, who is being watched by major league scouts, blanked Glide with a one-hitter. He recorded 22 strikeouts which is over the regulation number of outs for seven innings. Twenty of the whiffs resulted in putouts. Two batters swung and missed on third.

Final Match Reached in 2-Ball Meet

Dave Brown and Eddie Simmons are to meet Dom Provost Jr. and Bill Knipe this week for the men's two-ball partnership golf tournament championship of Rogue Valley Country club.

Brown and Simmons turned back Ray Sorenson and Lee Flink in one of the semi-finals. It took 20 holes. Provost and Knipe bounced Llyd Pope and F. H. Collins 4 and 3 to gain the titular match.

In the first flight finale it will be Ed Milne and Leland Clark against Dr. Robert DeLorme and Dr. Billy Blackstone. Milne and Clark edged Paul Mitchell and Ed Hall 1 up in their semi. DeLorme and Blackstone tripped Gene Spencer and Russ Heysell 2 up.

Huskie Doubt Susick Quitting

Seattle — University of Washington Athletic Director George Briggs says he doubts Pete Susick will resign from the Husky football coaching staff.

The Coos Bay, Ore., Times had reported Susick was dissatisfied with college coaching and disliked the recruiting programs aimed at high school athletes.

But Briggs said after a meeting with Susick and Head Coach Jim Owens, "he has not resigned from his position on our coaching staff and we do not anticipate a resignation."

Briggs says Susick's problems were strictly of a personal nature.

Briggs says Susick assured the university that stories being published about him are completely untrue and that he not only enjoys but always looked forward to coaching at the University of Washington, from which he graduated.

RV Quartet Places 8th

Rogue Valley Country club's four-man team was eighth in the Alderwood Invitational golf tournament Saturday and Sunday at Columbia-Eggewater links in Portland.

The quartet of Dom Provost Jr., Harry Millette, Leland Clark and Ed Hall had a 635 aggregate.

Astoria, led by Ralph Dichter's 142, was winner with 595. Riverside club of Portland was next with 605.

Provost headed the RVCC team with 74-74-148 and Millette had 77-79-156. Hall recorded 82-83-165 and Clark 82-84-166.

Carter Shines In Chases of Quarter Midgets

A record number of people witnessed the quarter midget auto races held Sunday at Jackson Hot springs.

Danna Carter in car four drove to an impressive victory over Teresa Allen in car five and Tim Travis in car 44 in the trophy dash.

Mike Myers driving to victory in two heat races qualified for the semi-main event. He then went on in this event leaving the nearest contender far behind.

Danna Cartr not only won the dash trophy donated by College Richfield in Ashland, but also took the main event trophy donated by Central market in Medford.

The Quarter Midget association announced that it has three cars for sale and anyone interested may contact Merle Carter in Ashland. Next weeks races, also being held at 4 p.m., may bring even more action and thrills with additional cars driving on the track's new surface.

More than one-half of the world's labor force is engaged in agriculture, probably not less than 530 million persons, surveys indicate.

Ray Robinson Turns to Lence

Boxing promoter Emil Lence has added another prize plum to his stable.

Middleweight champion Ray Robinson said he has decided to break with the International Boxing club and do business with Lence. Sugar Ray said he had been offered 47½ per cent by Lence to defend against welterweight King Carmen Basilio. The proposed bout is scheduled for September at the Polo Grounds in New York.

The IBC is asking Robinson to defend for only 40 per cent — and Sugar Ray has been holding out for 45 per cent. Promoter Lence is running the heavyweight title bout next month between Champion Floyd Patterson and Tommy Jackson. Robinson also denied that he has an exclusive contract with the IBC.
