Neuberger Chides Senator Knowland

Washington —UP— Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) chided Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland today for viewing Norway as a "pawn" to be neutralized in exchange for Soviet troop withdrawal from Hungary.
He told the Senate that Knowland had made an "unfortunate suggestion" in offering the proposal. He said he had heard from constituents of Norwegian ancestry, who "naturally . . . are indignant."
"Surely it is a serious thing for our standing among nations when a responsible leader of the administration's party in the Senate implies that a valiant nation like Norway is a pawn, to be moved about at will by the United States," Neuberger said. "Dare we imply that only we possess sovereignty and others mere servitude?"
"It is my hope the minority leader will acknowledge that his suggestion was in error, lest it do incalculable damage to our prestige abroad."

Big Wheat Crop Seen Despite Soil Bank Use
Washington —UP— A combination of good growing weather and the productive know-how of American farmers appeared today to have wrecked the government's soil bank program for wheat this year.
Another big wheat crop is estimated despite the fact that 12,785,000 acres of wheatland were put into the soil bank. The Department of Agriculture pledged to pay farmers a maximum of $230,848,755 in subsidies on this land.
