Installation Held In Jacksonville

Jacksonville — Installation of officers was held at the last meeting of Jacksonville Garden club, with Mrs. H. O. Smith of Cave Junction conducting the ceremony. Installed were Miss Claire Hanley, president; Mrs. Lee Stone, second vice-president; Mrs. Wilma Krebs, secretary; Mrs. Birch, librarian and Mrs. James Noble, treasurer.

New officers were presented corsages made by Mrs. Lee Wright. Mrs. Harold Reid, first vice-president, will be installed later.

Mrs. Jennie Herslof, Applegate, Mrs. Stanton Rowell, Grants Pass; Mrs. Effie Smith, Cave Junction and Mrs. Oona Paul, Medford, were guests.

Mrs. Lee Stone was elected delegate to the convention of Oregon Federation of Garden clubs to be held in Coos Bay later this month.

Mrs. Wilma Krebs was elected second delegate, with Mrs. R. T. Nichol, retiring president, as alternate.

Mrs. Nichols thanked her committees for their work the past year.

Those having birthdays the last four months were honored and each received a jar of orange blossom honey.

Mrs. Minnie Offenbacher, Mrs. Lee Stone and Mrs. Dee Hendrickson took charge of the tea table. Mrs. Lee Wright and Mrs. Nichols poured.

Women's, Girls' Softball Team To Be Organized

Medford YMCA is organizing a women's and girls' softball team for summer play. First practice will be held Thursday, June 13, at 6 p.m. at the McLaughlin Junior High school field, and all women and girls interested in playing softball are invited to attend.

If enough interest is shown, more than one team will be organized. Practices will be held every Thursday, beginning at 6 o'clock. Those turning out for practice are asked to take a softball glove.

Further information may be obtained by calling the YMCA, SP 2-6255.

Travelers Home

Eagle Point—Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Clark, Crater Lake highway, have returned from a month's trip to Hawaii. The travelers visited Mr. Clark's sister, Miss Minnie Clark, who makes her home with Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Sarvis at Naalehu, on the island of Hawaii. They also spent some time in Honolulu.

The couple made the trip by air.

Cake Supreme

For an easily prepared party dessert, make a cake with an instant white cake mix. Bake in a 13x19x2-inch pan. Cut into squares. Top each square with a scoop of mint or pistachio ice cream and add a spoonful of chocolate sauce.

Low Echo Staff Now Complete; Four Camping Periods Planned

The staff has been completed for this summer's program at Low Echo. Girl Scout established camp, the Rogue Valley Area camp committee reports.

Miss Irene Knox of College Park, Md., is returning to Low Echo for her third year as director. Miss Virginia McIntire of Long Beach, Calif., will be assistant director. Miss Viola Sampert, R. N., will serve as camp nurse this year, a position she also held three years ago, prior to this she worked at Rogue Valley hospital.

Mrs. Ivah Jane Murray is returning as nature and conservation specialist; crafts director will be Miss Jean Lewis of Columbus, Ohio. Waterfront collector will be Miss Delores Schleicher, this will be her second year at Low Echo; and she will be assisted by Miss Sheila Spence of Medford. Jackie Callan of Medford will be in charge of boating.

Unit leaders will be Miss Joy Adams of Medford, Miss Hazel Grimwood of Tucson, Ariz., Miss Janet Thurmond of Central Point, Miss Patricia Macklin of Columbus, Ohio, Miss Rhoda Rodeghier of Ripon, Wis., and Miss Priscilla Zeis of Boulder, Colo. Assistant Counselors will be Miss Carol Sellstrom of Yreka, Calif., Miss Jayne Killingsworth, Miss Beverly Good, Miss Yvonne Fields and Miss Colleen Warnock, all of Medford, Miss Sue Thorpe, Ashland, Miss Jane Werther, Coos Bay, Miss Margot Phillips, Coquille, Miss Linda Hall, Portland.

Misses Janet Anderson and Sara Turner, Central Point; Miss Henrietta Tate, Burns, and Miss Marilyn Olson of Medford.

Mrs. Myrtle Ferns of Phoenix is returning as cook and will be assisted by Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Medford, and Miss Iretta McClure, Estacada, Ore. Bill Jones of Medford will be camp caretaker again this year.

For the first time, this year there will be a Pioneer unit at camp. This unit will accommodate 14 girls between the ages of 13 and 17; it will be staffed by two leaders, each having her Water Safety Instructorship.

Registrations for all four sessions are open; all girls between the ages of 9 and 17 are eligible to go to camp. The first session will start July 7 and close July 14, inclusive, a full 7 day session. The other three sessions are full ten-day sessions and will be July 15-25; July 26 August 5; August 6-16. All campers go to camp and return to Medford by Greyhound bus, leaving from the Greyhound bus garage, fourth and Apple st. Those desiring to go to camp should register as soon as possible to be sure of securing a reservation.

For the first time this year the girls of western Siskiyou county will not have to pay the extra two dollar fee, for out of area scouts; western Siskiyou district is now part of the Rogue Valley Area.

An open house will be held at Camp Low Echo from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday, June 30, for all parents, families and friends. Those going should take a picnic lunch; coffee and punch will be served by the camp committee. There will be no visitors at camp during camping sessions.

All camp staff, campers, program aides, and counselors in-training must have a physical examination ten days before arrival at camp.

Traveler Talks For Fellowship

Mrs. A. C. Pierce, Medford, spoke for the last meeting of Women's fellowship, First Christian church. Mrs. Pierce told of her recent tour of foreign countries, and of the work being accomplished by missionaries.

She brought greetings from the Delbert Troxell family, the Medford church's living link missionaries in Japan. The Troxells are serving under the auspices of the United Christian Missionary societies.

Mrs. Pierce was introduced by Mrs. Ralph Cook, program chairman.

Mrs. William Piper conducted an installation and dedication service for elective officers, circle leaders, study and service directors for the coming year.

Mrs. Floyd Putman was elected worship director. Women were asked to attend a service day program scheduled for June 19.

Boxes of clothing will be packed for the White Swan Indian mission, and housekeeping work will be completed in the church kitchen.

Dedication of quarterly missionary offerings and the yearly "love gift" offerings was conducted by Mrs. W. A. Deiny, Mrs. Warren C. Fairbanks, Mrs. Claude Cooper and Mrs. Elmer Gott.

Music for the day was provided by Mrs. W. C. Peston, Nancy Marshall, Lois Rhyon, Mrs. A. F. Hoths and Mrs. Piper.

Mrs. Wayne Troxell presided and luncheon was served by Mrs. Walter Kindred's group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carl Pearson.
