

Artist Takes Part In Ceremonies

Mrs. Geraldine Birch, well known western artist from Pasadena, Calif., and mother of Perry Duncan, Medford, is in New Mexico this week to take part in dedication of a new United States Air Force field to be named in honor of the late Lt. Gen. John K. Cannon of the USAF.

Mrs. Birch recently completed two portraits of General Cannon. One had been commissioned by the Fletcher Aircraft company of California and the other was to be hung in the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. Shortly after Mrs. Birch began work on the project, the general died, later the portraits were completed with the artist using photographs as guides.

Mrs. Birch is to be honored during the celebration, and one of the portraits will be displayed at the base.

The artist, who is also engaged in painting a series of murals for the Fletcher corporation, will be in Medford in August to visit her son and daughter-in-law, who live at 23 Glen Oak court.
