

They'll Do It Every Time By Jimmy Hatlo

HORN BROOK Youths To Conduct Service

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN Hornbrook — A group of high school young people from the Methodist church in Ashland will be in Hornbrook next Sunday, June 16 at 11 a.m. to conduct the morning worship service in the absence of the Rev. Lewis Manning. Everyone in the community is welcome to attend with a special invitation being extended to the young people.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Manning left after services on Sunday, June 9, for Stockton, Calif., to attend the annual conference of the Methodist church of California. They expect to return about June 18.

Mrs. Henley Clawson, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Albert Wedin, of Yreka, has also gone to Stockton to attend the conference.

Miss Linda Rawhauser is a candidate in the Dunsmuir Railroad Days queen contest. The annual Railroad days show will be held at Dunsmuir next week end, June 14, 15 and 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Blankenship and children Gerry, Terry and Diane of Sherman, Texas, have been visiting this week at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blankenship and three children.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear were Mrs. Lucy Gestan and her sister, Mrs. Melina Christensen of Auburn, Wash., who were en route to Santa Cruz, Calif., to visit another sister. The two sisters from Auburn have been friends of Mrs. Bear's for a number of years.

Mrs. Emma Parshall, 87, suffered a stroke at the home of her son Thursday evening and was removed by ambulance to the Siskiyou County General hospital in Yreka Friday morning.

Copco — The Pinocchio club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Alta Crandall. High prize was won by Mrs. Jean Chappel and second high went to Mrs. Crystal De Shazer.

Others playing were Mrs. Mary Stinson, Mrs. Nancy Shepard, Mrs. Waltena Friday and Mrs. Genny Trullinger.

The Copco people are welcoming back Mr. and Mrs. Ken Coleman who have been living in Central Point, Ore., for several months, where he has been working.

The Fall Creek school year ended Tuesday, June 4, with a picnic at the schoolhouse for the school children only. The Sunday before school was out, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Trullinger entertained the teacher, Mrs. Dallas Park and her husband at dinner.

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Stinson were his sister and her husband Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Lockett of San Leandro, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nelson and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. James Asher and family were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shepard.

Stanley Chappel celebrated his fifth birthday June 4 with a party to which several friends of his age were invited. Another party, on June 6, was held in honor of the first birthday of Miss Lida Sue Crandall.

Grange Notes

Griffin Creek Grange will meet in regular session Thursday, June 13. The Home Economics club will be in charge of the lecture hour.

Upper Applegate Grange More than 30 members of the Upper Applegate Grange were present last Friday evening to participate in the first meeting held in their new grange hall. They were serenaded throughout the evening by a lively orchestra of crickets situated in various parts of the meeting room, which, according to Oriental lore, portends good fortune.

Worthy Master Merno Bachmann presided during the session which commenced with the presentation of an attractive new rug, the gift of Omar, Irene, and Verna Culy, and a beautiful flower basket for use before the altar, given by Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini of Medford.

A resolution was introduced empowering the executive committee to sell the Grange property adjacent to the McKee bridge forest camp and picnic grounds, for the best price obtainable, since it is no longer needed for grange use. The resolution will be submitted to a vote of the membership at the next regular meeting, June 28.

The worthy master announced that donations are being received to defray the cost of 75 used chairs recently purchased in Portland, half of which arrived in time for Friday's meeting. Price of the chairs totals $214 plus freight charges. Of this sum more than $50 in contributions had already been received the worthy master stated.

Chaplain Kathleen Scovell reported that, for the first time in many weeks, no illness or distress on the part of any grange member had been brought to the attention of the relief committee.

The agriculture committee report included announcement of the June meeting of the Applegate Valley Garden club to be held at Ruch school Wednesday, June 19 at 1:30 p.m. The scheduled program includes discussions of Rose culture, insecticides and their uses, and what to do in the garden during summer months. This will be the last meeting of the club until September. Visitors are welcome.

Home Economics committee chairman Edna Sawyer reported purchase of six large turkeys at an advantageous price. These are to be held in storage for fall dinners. Meeting time of the Home Economics club has been changed from the third Wednesday to the second Monday of the month and plans were announced for an all day work meeting at the grange hall June 19 to make curtains and wash windows.

The kitchen work apron entered in the sewing contest by sister Grace Pearson places first in Jackson county it was stated.

Grangers planning to enter the coming contest were reminded to use only white satin sugar and to place all entries in stands. The men never even looked up, Neff said.

BISHOP DIES Altoona, Pa. — The Most Rev. Richard T. Guilfoyle, 65, bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Altoona, died Monday night after a heart attack.

Roseburg Telephone Building Destroyed

Roseburg — Fire Tuesday destroyed a warehouse used by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company here. The fire did an estimated $80,000 worth of damage.

The fire destroyed a snowcat and two personnel carrier trucks owned by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

The fire started about 2:15 p.m. and firemen had it under control about an hour later. All the equipment and firemen in Roseburg were called out to fight the blaze.

The fire also destroyed two quonset huts owned by the Carsten furniture company and threatened a glass company that was next door.

Cause of the fire was not determined.

CENTRAL POINT Athletic Program Planned

By DORIS HUGHES Central Point — A program of pee-wee and intermediate baseball and recreational swimming has been planned for Central Point youngsters according to summer athletic director Richard Traylor.

The program will be open to all boys in the Central Point area between the ages of eight through 14. The first meeting will be at the Central Point baseball diamond at West Pine street and Taylor road at 9 a.m. Monday, June 17.

Mrs. Glenn Brenner and children, from Bend, visited a few days last week at the Lloyd Livingston home on Taylor road.

Mrs. Ella Phillips and son, James Mills, are visiting relatives and friends in Central Point and Medford. They live at the Prairie Bible Institute in Three Hills, Alberta, Canada. They stopped over in Spokane, Wash., and visited the Rev. Rolf Hansen. Mr. Hansen was formerly the minister of the Community Bible church in Central Point. Mrs. Phillip plans to go from here to Arcadia, Calif., to visit her other son and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Combs, of Ashland, and Mrs. Mollie Phillips, of Seattle, visited with Mrs. Millie Johnson Friday evening. Mrs. Johnson accompanied them to Grants Pass, where they visited Mrs. Clara Cardin who had just returned from the hospital.

Charles and Bryson LaCasse went to Crescent City last Sunday to do some deep sea fishing. They caught four salmon and three ling cod.

The Crater High school request program will be broadcast over the Ashland station KWIN Wednesday from 8 to 9 p.m. Jocky Cameron and Linda Warren will be moderators.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pleyer and daughter Dorothy, also spent the weekend at Brookings.

DOG GETS DIPLOMA

Muddy, Ill. — Chips received his diploma from the Muddy Elementary School Friday. "He's been coming to school for six years and he didn't cause a bit of trouble," school principal Ben Brinkley said. Chips, a shepherd dog, is the pet of two other graduates, Jack and Morgan Keedy.

They attended the festival and watched the boat racing on the Chetco river.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ghelardi and son, C. Leo Ghelardi, and daughters, Sandra and Cheryl, drove to Brookings Sunday to attend the Azalea festival.

Mrs. Walter Miller and children plan to move soon to Monte Vista, Calif., to join Miller and their oldest daughter. Miller is employed there.

Mrs. R. G. Cameron and daughters, Marilyn and Jocky, and Mrs. Myrtle Wright were among the many attending the Azalea festival Sunday.

Visiting at the Charles Hughes home in Central Point Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Simmons and Edwin and Terry and the A. C. Hooker family.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Chastain, of Grants Pass, spent Saturday and Sunday in Central Point on business and visiting. The Chastains are former residents of Central Point.

Use Tribune Want Ads The Community's Biggest Marketplace

Family Fares Save Money on the CITY OF PORTLAND to CHICAGO and EAST. Big Family Pays Off! Pacific's Family Fare plan. Good when boarding ANY U. P. train on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or THURSDAY. Return any day and there's a generous baggage allowance. Ask us for details.

We're Having a BIG CLOSE-OUT Sale! Yes, we're closing out our BASEMENT DEPARTMENTS on PLUMBING—MAJOR APPLIANCES — TOYS and LAWN EQUIPMENT OPEN TONIGHT! to the Bare Walls — All of these items MUST GO! Outside White House PAINT — Gal. $4.98 Full Gloss & Semi-Gloss ENAMELS — Gal. $4.89 Zenith Double Oven Deluxe 40" Electric Range Automatic Timer $249.95 Up to 50% OFF GAS HEATERS and OIL HEATERS Many Sizes and Styles to Choose from! 50' Garden Hose Reg. $11.95 Now $8.88 Tony Manno's Highest Quality ACME Hardware Co. SPECIALISTS IN HOMEWARES! Free Parking ... Free Delivery