Miss Barbara Hendrickson And David Kelsoe Married

Phoenix — First Presbyterian church, Phoenix, was the setting Saturday, June 8, for the seven o'clock evening wedding of Miss Barbara Helen Hendrickson and David Warren Kelsoe. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vern Hendrickson, Route 1, Box 461, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Kelsoe, Route 3, Box 172, Medford.

The Rev. Ernest R. Volkman officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lace gown fashioned with tiered lace and net skirt. The bodice was lined with satin and styled with heart neckline. Her fingertip length veil was held by a Juliet cap and she carried a white orchid encircled by white carnations.

Miss Alice Rae Hendrickson was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a blue lace street length frock styled on princess lines with matching hat, shoes, and gloves. She carried white iris tied with blue ribbons. Miss Louise Hendrickson, aunt of the bride, and Miss Donna Glasscock were bridesmaids. They wore street length frocks of pink tulle with matching white lace hats, shoes, and gloves. They carried white iris tied with pink ribbons.

Little Paulette Hendrickson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink nylon dress with pink straw hat and carried iris tied with pink ribbons.

Robert Joseph Webster served as best man while Fred Oldham and Roger Kelsoe, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests. Candlelighters were Cor-

Ashland—Miss Minnie Yovona Stimson, a daughter of Mrs. Lloyd I. Stimson, 106 Walker avenue, Ashland, and the late Mr. Stimson, became the bride of Herbert Ray Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Chapman, 1041 West Eleventh street, Medford, in a ceremony held Sunday, June 9, at the Trinity Episcopal Church in Ashland.

The Rev. John Thompson officiated at the double ring service held at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

For her wedding the bride wore a white ballerina length frock styled on princess lines. Her shoulder length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried an orchid on a white ribbon. Her cameo necklace was a family heirloom belonging to an aunt of the bridegroom and she carried a handkerchief that had belonged to her great-great-grandmother. She was given in marriage by J. L. Jones, her brother-in-law.

Mrs. Jones was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a ballerina length apricot colored frock and carried a nosegay bouquet of gladiolus tied with turquoise ribbon. Miss Lois May and Miss Marlys Elhart of Medford wore frocks similar to Mrs. Jones' in turquoise blue and carried nosegay bouquets of gladiolus tied with apricot colored ribbon. Little Linda Roberts of El Monte, Calif., niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Richard Chapman, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Robert Schulz and Jim MacInnis, both of Medford, were ushers.

Baskets of peach colored gladiolus flanked the altar and white stock and candles decorated the altar. Mrs. L. Windsor was soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Parish house of the church.

The newlywed couple will make their home at 106 Walker avenue, Ashland, after they return June 23 from a wedding trip in southern California. For her traveling attire the bride chose a coral sheath dress with matching duster and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school and is a student at Southern Oregon college and is employed by Daugherty Lumber company, White City.

Out-of-town guests who attended the ceremony included Mrs. Grace Gray, Mrs. Henry Smith and daughter, all of Chiloquin, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kinkie, Willows, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kinkie, Applegate; Mr. and Mrs. Al Laws, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Bayne, Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chartraw, Klamath Falls; R. R. Chartraw, Mt. Shasta, Calif.; and Mrs. Sylvian Verdusco, Santa Rosa, Calif.

Following the reception the couple left on a wedding trip to Yellowstone National park. The bride chose for her traveling attire a navy silk suit with white accessories and white orchid corsages. They will make their home at 307 North Ivy street, Medford, after June 29.

The bride attended Phoenix public schools and Southern Oregon college and is employed as a secretary for Oregon State Department of Agriculture. The bridegroom also attended Phoenix schools and is employed at Richfield while attending Southern Oregon college.

The Ricketts are also scheduled to speak for the Grants Pass UN chapter and for the Portland City club.

The Ricketts perhaps know more about the present regime in China than any other American couple, it is said, and have written a book which the American press has called "astounding." The two young people, graduates of the University of Pennsylvania, went to China on Fulbright fellowships and both studied and taught at Peking university. They saw the Chiang Kai-shek regime fall during the revolution, witnessed the tremendous upheaval, were arrested by the People's government and both spent considerable time in jail.

It is said that their recounting of their experiences gives an interesting insight on the manner in which the new government treats political prisoners and their group method of educating prisoners to new social beliefs.

The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Oregon Lions And Auxiliary Convention Opens This Week

The annual state convention of Oregon Lions and auxiliary will open in Medford Thursday, June 20, with registration in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel.

State officers of the auxiliary will be present for the convention which will meet through Saturday. Mrs. Lee Mellish and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, members of the Medford Lions auxiliary, are cochairmen for the auxiliary events.

Thursday activities will include a cocktail party at Rogue Valley Country club and an evening barbecue at the Medford High school stadium. Slogan and theme for the convention is "Heaven in '57" which will be used throughout the meetings.

Friday schedule starts with a fun breakfast at the high school cafeteria with the Crater auxiliary in charge. "Heavenly hats and headwear for delegates" will be the theme of the noon luncheon given by the Medford auxiliary and during the evening the governor's banquet at Hedrick Junior High school will honor Mr. and Mrs. John Stickley of Charlotte, N.C. Mr. Stickley is international president of the Lions and the banquet will be a joint meeting of the Lions and auxiliary conventions.

Talent auxiliary will be in charge of the coffee hour Saturday morning. The Lions and the auxiliary will view a variety show that evening and attend a dance at Hedrick Junior High school later in the evening. Business meetings will be held at various times during the convention.

Honorable mention went to A. T. Lathrop of Central Point, Mrs. Charley announces.

The Cow Belles presented Mr. Rowan a roast beef for his Father's day dinner. The Rowans live at 828 Minnesota avenue.

Mr. Charley states that the organization will also present a beef roast to the father of the first child born in Jackson county today, Father's day.

Miss Sharley Cox Honored by Board

Miss Sharley Cox, who has been awarded the first scholarship offered by the Medford Realty board, was honored at a luncheon meeting of the board Friday. William Frohnmayer, president of the board, presented Miss Cox the $250 scholarship.

The scholarship is for $250 and Miss Cox, member of the 1957 graduating class of Medford High school, will use it to study commerce at Southern Oregon college, Ashland. She has also been awarded a partial tuition scholarship by the college.

Miss Cox is a three-year member of Torch Honor society and was active in Girls' league at high school.

Mr. Frohnmayer states that the scholarship will be awarded annually.

Annual Picnic

Central Point—Past matrons of Nevada chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will entertain officers of the chapter at the annual picnic luncheon Wednesday, June 19, at 12:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Truman Brenner, Scenic avenue. Those attending are to take table service.

Beat the Heat!

It's so simple — so completely delightful. Just splash on Prince Matchabelli's Summer Shower Cologne, and feel as though you're by a waterfall. It's utterly refreshing and just like having your own private cooling system. Come into Hudson's Pharmacy and let me Ethel Lockard show you how to feel fresh and frosty all summer long. A 4 oz. bottle is just $1, or you can get twice as much for $1.65. And if you work, it's nice to have a bottle at home and one in the office. Then you're sure to be cool and fragrant always.

Cheese can be frozen satisfactorily. If the freezing is rapid and the individual packages are small. Slow freezing causes changes in color and texture.

Beauty note . . . never draw a downward line when using eyebrow pencil. It makes you look older. Use short, light strokes upward.

If fruit juice or wine is spilled on the tablecloth, quickly cover the spot with salt. Then pour boiling water through the stain.
