

Reunion Dinner Held at Watsons

Members of Surprise Sunday School class of First Methodist church held their annual reunion Saturday evening, June 8. A turkey dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Watson, Ruhl Way. The class, which has been gathering annually for nearly 30 years, had 14 members present, including the teacher, Mrs. H. A. Canaday from Roseburg.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glenger, Chilquin, Ore.; Mrs. Olive Puhman, Sutherlin, Ore.; and Mrs. Glenn Hale, of Eagle Point, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hukill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George Watson, all Medford.

Letters were read from Mr. and Mrs. Austin Raymond of El Cajon, California and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Raymond of Patricks Creek, Calif. who were unable to attend.

Various members brought pictures of previous gatherings which proved very interesting.

To close the evening, a trip was made at the invitation of the Hales to see their new home in Eagle Point.

Sunday the group attended the 11 o'clock services at First Methodist church.

Newlyweds Arrive in Medford; Rites Held in Wyoming Church

Mr. and Mrs. William Everett Kennedy are spending the summer in Medford following their wedding Saturday, June 1, in Laramie, Wyo. The bride is the former Miss Beverly Ann Michaud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Michaud of Laramie. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kennedy, 113 Valley View drive, Medford.

The wedding was held at St. Laurence O'Toole's Catholic church with the Rev. John McDevitt officiating at the double ring ceremony held at ten o'clock in the morning.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length gown of imported French Rosepointe lace and pleated tulle over taffeta. Her fingertip length veil was held by a small lace hat and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Gloria Aegerter of Englewood, Colo., was maid of honor and Miss Glenda Michaud and Miss Linda Woody were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length gowns of iridescent taffeta with short veils and carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations. Miss Michaud wore rose with pink cummerbund while the bridesmaids were dressed in mint green with Nile green cummerbunds. Little Linda Dunlavy was flower girl and wore a light blue frock.

The wedding gown as well as the dresses worn by the attendants were designed and made by Mrs. Michaud, mother of the bride.

Jim Hicks served as best man while Ron Mahan, William Herndon, Kenneth Brownfield and Fred Parker ushered. Ring bearer was little John Mannon.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Michaud chose a beige lace dress with matching accessories and yellow orchid corsage. Mrs. Kennedy wore a rose lace dress with white accessories and white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Connor hotel. Miss Dona Williams and Mrs. Ray Piper cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Miss Mary Pond and Miss Pat Garrison poured the punch while Miss Kay Kepler was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Laramie High school and attended the University of Wyoming. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and is a student at the University of Wyoming.

Minnesota Family Visits in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hiltunen and three children from Toivola, Minn., were visitors last week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence, 1422 Euclid avenue, Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiltunen lived at the Lawrence home in 1943 and 1944 while Mr. Hiltunen was training at Camp White. This is their first trip west since that time.

They traveled here by way of Bismark, N.D., Yellowstone National park, Butte, Mont., and Seattle. They are returning to Minnesota by the way of California, where they will visit the Lawrence's daughters and sons-in-law. Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Wallace Ludwig in San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Rose, Chico.

MRS. FRED LAWRENCE TO BE CORPS HOSTESS

A potluck dinner will be held Tuesday, June 18, by the Central Point Woman's Relief Corps at the home of Mrs. Fred Lawrence, 1422 Euclid avenue, Medford, at 12 noon. A business meeting will be held following the dinner.

Spokane Man Here To Visit Relatives

Ray Ackerlund of Spokane, Wash., is in Medford visiting his father, G. S. Ackerlund, and sister, Mrs. Ruth B. Simmons of 5759 Crater Lake avenue; both are hospitalized at Sacred Heart hospital.

Mrs. N. C. Benjamin of Rodeo, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Corum, 300 Willamette avenue, Medford, is a guest of her parents. Mrs. Benjamin is a granddaughter of Mr. Ackerlund and Mrs. Simmons' niece.

Luncheon Planned For Past Matrons

Reames Social club will honor past matrons at a pay luncheon at 12 o'clock Wednesday, June 19, at Masonic hall.

Birthdays will also be celebrated, and gifts will be presented to those having birthdays in April, May and June.

Following a brief business meeting, the afternoon will be spent at cards. Mrs. Howard J. Phillips is chairman of the luncheon committee.

Sam B. Harrison, Chairman of the Griffin Creek School Board this past year (and a prominent Medford attorney), is running for reelection this year. He has been on the school board for 3 years. His interests are many and varied for the welfare of the community. As the constitutional chairman of Troop 41, he is very active in Boy Scouts. He is active in the Elks, Lodge and Presbyterian Church. As for consolidation, he is "definitely in favor after careful study."
