

Bring Your Home
UP-TO-DATE

BY RUTH W. LEE, HOME-FURNISHINGS CONSULTANT

Slimness is the style

Ideal for a combination study-guest room, this nicely proportioned plastic-covered sofa converts to a bed.

THE beefy look in furniture is definitely passé. Today's smaller rooms and limited wall spaces require trimmed-down sofas and lounge chairs. Even sofa-beds have slim, tailored lines. Along with this, there's a trend toward mixing the upholstery coverings of a grouping rather than matching them in the old-fashioned way. And with a choice of vinyl-coated plastics, textured tweeds, and striped and solid-colored fabrics in both pile and flat weaves, the home-maker can achieve some truly remarkable effects.

Another handsome sofa-bed shows off the light graceful lines so much in favor today.

Contrasting fabrics on upholstered pieces bring about a decorative change of pace.
