There's nothing like the cool convenience of Tampax—the "weightless" sanitary protection!

Because Tampax® is used internally, you aren't even aware you're wearing it. There are no pads, pins, belts; nothing can "show" beneath filmy dresses, sleek shorts, or even a swim suit.

Of course your problems with other types of protection arise only a few days each month, but why go to bulky skirts when you want cool comfort? Why face odor problems, disposal problems when Tampax does away with both? Why be chafed and irritated when Tampax is readily available wherever drug products are sold?

Make this the summer you change to Tampax! This is the month to start! Ask your friends about it—or ask your doctor, if you feel the slightest doubts. Don't put off using a kind of protection that everyone agrees is more comfortable, less embarrassing. You'll find an absorbency to suit your needs; choose from Regular, Super or Junior. Scooter Styles Set the Pace

THIS YEAR we choose fun and comfort, with handsome styling hiding sturdiness. We have stand-by fabrics with a switch—cotton knits, leather britches, and a revival of that old favorite—white duck trousers. Long or short, one or two piece—just dress 'em up with jaunty shirts and scoot right out to the picnic grounds.

Capeskin leather cap: Mad Caps

Shoes: Sandler

Cowhide leather snack bag: A. Galewski

Lambretta scooter: Innocenti Corp.

All prices are approximate.

The correct price for the Ban-Lon Donwood cardigan, featured in Family Weekly April 21, is about $9.00.

1. Knitmaker Jump-all: comfortable front-buttoned one-piece cotton knit with roll sleeves and braided belt ($5).

2. The polished-cotton Adelaar shirt ($6.50) goes well with Samuel Roberts' lined-in-satin capeskin shorts ($35).

3. Gay white duck roll pants worn with cotton print-pique middy came from Miss Pat of California ($5.98 each).
