Why Women Don't Marry

Dr. Alvarez

A woman tells me that she is one of four sisters, between 40 and 50 years of age; none of them ever had a beau. I told her that I have records of families like hers; I remember one in which seven brothers and sisters in one generation, and five in the next did not marry. Evidently a tendency to celibacy can run in certain families.

The lady says what is so true, and this is that many of the women who do not marry are too shy ever to go out with a man. Or, if they were to go out with one they liked, and he were to get affectionate, they would get embarrassed and frightened, and would rebuff him. My correspondent says she always wanted to marry and have a husband but, as she says, "I guess I didn't try hard enough to find the fellow. When out at a party, I stayed with the girls."

She has the idea that most of the excuses that women give for not marrying are not as good as hers. She says she has watched women who have had a number of husbands—one after the other—and she has studied their technique. She doubts if they are any prettier, smarter, kinder, or better-adjusted than are her spinster friends, but soon after one husband goes, they get another. They go to dances and summer hotels and parties and cruises. They go where marriageable men are to be found—not a bad idea! They enjoy being with men, and can banter with them and be at ease with them. They know how to handle a man. As the lady says, there are a lot of men also who are too shy to take a girl out, or to talk to her, or even to propose to her.

Schizophrenia in Family

Many people may ask, But why this excessive shyness? I have asked a few hundred of these shy people what their relatives were like, and practically always they have told me that one or more were mildly schizophrenic. Characteristic of schizophrenics is their shyness, their reserve, and their touch-me-notness. People who are like schizophrenics we doctors call schizoid. One can often recognize a schizoid in a moment by his odd, shy handshake, with eyes averted.

Cigarette Prices Raised by Firms

New York — Four of the country's largest cigarette manufacturers Monday boosted prices on regular and king sized brands the equivalent of one cent per pack at retail.

The increases, announced by American Tobacco company, Liggett and Myers Tobacco company, Philip Morris, Inc., and P. Lorillard company, do not affect filtertips.

On the wholesale level the increase is 35 cents per thousand cigarettes. The advance reflects higher costs all along the line from raw tobacco to selling and advertising.

Representatives of valley grocery stores yesterday said the price increase will go into effect in the Medford area.

Popular brands of cigarettes will be raised 10 cents per carton, or about one cent a package, they said.

Egypt Said Planning Submarine Warfare

By UNITED PRESS

Israeli officials have accused Egypt of planning submarine warfare against Israeli ships bound for the Gulf of Aqaba.

A Jerusalem dispatch said the Russians had donated three submarines to the Egyptian Navy and predicted they would operate against Israeli and "other" shipping in the Red Sea as approaches to the Gulf of Aqaba.

Egypt's relations with the Arab world also worsened. An Amman dispatch said the Jordan government Sunday ordered its embassy in Cairo closed today.

London — The western allies told Russia Monday they consider the latest Soviet disarmament proposals "an important move toward agreement" on a partial disarmament treaty.

Portland — Police today searched for a bandit who slugged a waitress at a restaurant near here and took approximately $162.
