Mrs. Arthur Klatt New President of Eagles Auxiliary

Officers were installed by Medford Eagles at the auxiliary in joint ceremonies held June 8 at Eagles hall. Installing officers were Jack Weber and Mrs. Al Ford. Eddie Oldson and Mrs. Weber served as conductor and conductress.

Mrs. Arthur Klatt was installed president of the auxiliary. Taking office with her were Mrs. Ray Heath, vice-president; Mrs. Clarence England, chaplain; Mrs. Stuart Forbes, conductor; Mrs. Jack Weber, secretary; Mrs. James Teets, treasurer; Mrs. Lena Gerow, inside guard; Mrs. O. R. McClanahan, outside guard; Mrs. William Keever, Mrs. Anna Wyncoop and Mrs. J. L. Doney, trustees; Mr. Henry Ruch, mother; Mrs. Elsie Lewis, musician.

Earharts Attend School Ceremonies

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Earhart have returned from Portland where they attended the graduation of their son Dean from University of Oregon Dental school. Dr. Deane Earhart plans to practice in Portland.

The Earharts were accompanied north by Mrs. T. C. Pridmore, Birmingham, Ala. Mrs. Earhart and Mrs. Pridmore were roommates at the University of Alabama and she will be a guest of Mrs. Earhart for several weeks.

While in Portland the group attended the rose show and the parade.

Group Completes Convention Plans

Final plans for the department convention were made at the last meeting of Elts Deuel Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, held in the courthouse auditorium. The convention will be held June 24-25 in Portland and Mrs. F. A. Daugherty, Medford president, will preside.

Mrs. Daugherty will leave Saturday, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Shirrell Doty Medford, department secretary. Also attending from Medford will be Mrs. James Cech, department musician, Mrs. Elmer Gott and Mrs. Carrie Milnes.

At the next meeting of the tent on July 9, convention reports will be given.

At the last meeting reports were given by Mrs. George Ware on VAVS activities, and Mrs. Clarence Hershiser, hospital chairman.

A birthday party preceded the session. S. R. Doty and sons, David and Thomas, were guests for the party and David entertained with cornet numbers.

Roxy Ann Club Will Enter Show

Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club will enter a display in the fifth annual southern Oregon gem and mineral show. The show will be held June 22-23 at the Josephine county fairgrounds, Grants Pass, and a large number of "rock hounds" are expected to attend from Medford.

To Meet

Southern Oregon chapter, National Association of Retired Civil Employees, will meet Friday, June 21, in the YMCA building, Ashland, near the Shakespearean theater.

Johnny Schultz To Call for Dance

J. D. Lubbers, past president of the Rogue Valley Square Dance Callers association, reminded dancers in southern Oregon today that Johnny Schultz of Phoenix, Ariz., will be guest caller at a special dance in the Jacksonville Community hall Thursday night, June 20.

The dance will start at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Lubbers said the dance is being sponsored by the callers association.

Mr. Schultz, who is on a calling tour of western states, is a nationally-known caller, and has recorded for Oldtimer records for several years. Among his recordings which are popular with southern Oregon dancers are "Poor Boy" and "Looking Back," both of which he wrote.

Recently he wrote and recorded "Hand Me Down My Walking Cane," and two records of his "This Old House" and "Open Up Your Heart," were popular in this area a year ago.

Chapter to Hold Dinner Meeting

Jacksonville—A potluck dinner will precede the usual meeting of Adair chapter, Order of Eastern Star, to be held Thursday, June 20, at Jacksonville Masonic hall. Dinner is set for 6 p.m. and the stated session at 8 p.m.

Reports of the annual grand chapter will be given. Those who attended were Mrs. Gertrude Winningham, worthy matron; J. E. Crawford, patron; Mrs. Orval Shores, junior past matron and Mrs. Crawford.

Franz Gruber was the composer and Joseph Mohr the lyricist of "Silent Night, Holy Night."
