

GOLD HILL VFW Groups Hold Meetings

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—The Gold Hill VFW post and auxiliary held regular meetings June 14 in the IOOF building.

Mrs. Thomas Short, president, presided at the business session of the auxiliary. At this time Mrs. Adelbert (Mike) Taylor, secretary-treasurer, was instructed to send donations to the flower fund for the VA Domiciliary at Camp White and to the national VFW auxiliary cancer fund.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin will attend the VFW encampment at Pendleton June 25 through June 28. He is commander of the local post.

Two members of the auxiliary were presented gifts in recognition of their service in the local group. They were Mrs. Chauncey Page, who has been chaplain for the past four years. She has also been active in the hospital work of the group. Mrs. Andrew Larkins for her many years served in the office of secretary-treasurer of the auxiliary.

Meetings of the VFW post and auxiliary are held the second and fourth Friday evenings at 8 p.m. in the IOOF building on Fourth ave.

Those eligible for membership in the post are those veterans, who have served overseas. Wives, daughters, mothers and sisters of these veterans are eligible for membership in the auxiliary.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Washington—Christina Wennerstrom, the 16-year-old daughter of a Swedish diplomat who ran off to Canada with her Senate page boy sweetheart:

"We did not want to lose each other. I told him all the trouble he would get into, but he said, 'Oh, it doesn't matter.'"

Fargo, N. D.—The Rev. Karl Schraeder, a Lutheran minister, on the destruction of a Roman Catholic convent by a tornado:

"It was a weird scene. Several nuns came out of the wrecked building carrying injured and holding them until the arrival of ambulances."

Vienna—U. S. Air Attache Welwyn F. Dallam, on his expulsion by the Communist Hungarian puppet government for photographing military objects:

"I cannot say much on the Hungarian charges presently. In any case, they are ridiculous."

Manorville, N. Y.—Dr. Joseph Kris, on a $1,500 bill for administering to 7-year-old Benny Hooper, who was rescued after nearly 24 hours at the bottom of a well shaft:

"My time is worth about $30 an hour. It's like the old cartoon: A doctor is an angel when he's performing his services, but a devil when he sends the bill."

Washington—President Eisenhower, cautioning young Republicans against pessimism in their future political battles:

"No pessimistic general ever won a battle. There is enough pessimism in fights without the leader showing it."
