

Dickson, Musial Pace Cards Into National League Lead; Yankees Move Up on Chisox

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Murry Dickson and Stan Musial, the only members of the last St. Louis Cardinals pennant winner still with the team, have turned back the clock 11 years to play a vital part in a 750-drive that's carried the current Cardinals into a half-game lead in the National League scramble.

Dickson turned in his fourth victory of the month as the Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-4, Thursday night while Musial stretched his hitting streak to 20 games. The Cardinals have roared along at a 15-5 pace this month with Musial hitting at a 400-clip and driving in 19 runs in the 20 games.

The Cardinals had the aid of the New York Giants, who knocked the Milwaukee Braves out of first place with a 4-3 decision in 12 innings. The Cincinnati Redlegs vaulted from fifth to third place when they whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-1, and the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Chicago Cubs, 7-2, in the other N.L. games.

Yanks Extend Streak

The New York Yankees ran their longest winning streak of the campaign to seven games with a 3-1 win over the Detroit Tigers and moved to within 1 1/2 games of the American league lead when the Baltimore Orioles beat the first-place Chicago White Sox, 4-1. The Boston Red Sox downed the Cleveland Indians, 9-7, and the Washington Senators defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 6-4, in other A.L. activity. The Yankees and White Sox open a four-game battle for the lead at Yankee Stadium tonight.

The 41-year-old Dickson limited the Pirate to two runs and seven hits before retiring with a stiff arm after eight innings. Musial, who doubled in the first inning to keep his streak intact, drove in one run with a sacrifice fly in the sixth. Dickson beat run double and Pete Runnels two-run single were the big blows of a five-run seventh-inning rally that enabled the Senators to snap a four-game losing streak. Pedro Ramos gained his fifth win while Mickey McDermott suffered his third defeat.

Drag Racers To Contend Sunday at COTA Strip

Stock car classes will lead off drag races Sunday at the Southern Oregon Timing association strip on Avenue G at Camp White.

Races will start at 12:45 p.m. Time trials open at 10 a.m. and close at 12 o'clock noon for contestants coming from within a 150-mile radius.

SOTA is anticipating another turnout similar to that of two week ends ago when there were 93 entries in 18 classes.

National Hot Rod association rules will apply with exception to cars not specifically covered by the NHRA. These vehicles will be inspected and classified at the discretion of the SOTA technical committee.

Trophies again are planned for class winners, for top time and for top eliminator whether the vehicle is an auto or motorcycle. Waivers releasing the SOTA from liability are required of all contestants. Prospective entrants under 21 must have waivers made out by parents or guardians. Since SOTA cannot supply waiver blanks to all contestants, a handwritten release is acceptable.

There will be a small charge for admission to the drags. A share of the money goes for insurance to protect spectators and for concessions facilities. The funds left over from expenses are being placed in an account for building a newer and safer drag strip with bleacher accommodations.

Syracuse, N. Y. — Middleweight contender Joe Giambra seeks his 10th straight victory tonight in a 10-rounder with aggressive Rory Calhoun at War Memorial auditorium.

Slick Joey of Buffalo, N. Y., now fighting out of San Francisco, is a slight favorite at 6-5 over the young slugger from White Plains, N. Y., because of his speed and skill. Each is a good puncher.

Their bout will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

Giambra, 25, is rated fourth among 160-pound contenders. Joey's 50-4-1 record includes 26 knockouts.

Calhoun, 22, is ranked sixth.
