June Brings Weddings

Of added interest this June is the wedding of the Johnson twins, Joan and Jean, on Saturday, June 15, at St. Mark's Episcopal church here. Miss Jean (at left) became the bride of David L. Snook, son of the Ralph Snooks, Central Point, and her sister was married to Norman R. Mallon, son of Mrs. Sam Mallon, Central Point, and the late Mr. Mallon. The pretty brunette twins are daughters of Mrs. Gerald Stewart, 326 Oak Grove road, and Albert E. Johnson, 115 McAndrews road, Medford. The twins wore identical wedding gowns of white lace and net over satin. (Brainerd photo)

Pictured just after her wedding Sunday, June 16, at St. Mark's Episcopal church is Mrs. Richard Padgham, the former Marcia Houghton. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Houghton, 512 Dakota avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Padgham, 2707 Springbrook road. The marriage ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bethold Barnum, South Pacific highway. (Landis-Shangle photo)

Little Jennifer McDade charmed all the guests at the Padgham-Houghton wedding last Sunday. Here Jennifer gives E. N. McKinstry one of her most winning smiles as he bows formally over her hand. Serving as flower girl for her aunt, Jennifer wore a white organdy frock. In the background her mother, Mrs. Elmer F. McDade, the former Jenny Lou Houghton who now lives in Santa Rosa, Calif., and her sister, Mrs. Alf Guldahl (Harriet Houghton) who came from Seattle, Wash., for the wedding, greet Mrs. M. N. Hagan during the reception.

Ready to leave on their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Padgham pose for one last picture. The bride, who wore the traditional white satin for her wedding last Sunday afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal church, changed to a beige suit with brown accessories for traveling. The newlyweds, will live at 15 Renault street for the summer and in October the bridegroom, who was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army when graduated from Oregon State college, Corvallis, will report for duty at Fort Eustis, Va. The bride is a graduate of Southern Oregon college, Ashland. (Landis-Shangle photo)
