

Padgham-Houghton Wedding Held in Episcopal Church

A ceremony held Sunday, June 16, at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Medford, wedded Miss Marie Houghton, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Houghton, 512 Dakota avenue, to Richard Padgham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Padgham, 2707 Springbrook road. The Rev. George N. V. Bolster read the marriage service at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The reception which followed was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berthold Barnum, South Pacific highway.

The bride wore a gown of traditional white satin, styled princess fashion with Peter Pan collar long sleeves and buttons from neckline to hemline. The skirt was fashioned with a modified circle back and a slight train. She carried a white orchid on her prayer book.

Mr. Alf Guldahl, Seattle, was honor attendant for her sister, and another sister, Mrs. Elmer E. McGlade of Santa Rosa, Calif., was bridesmaid. Miss Ann Farigan, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore yellow taffeta frocks of lemon yellow, decorated with short sleeves and skirts with back flares. Their flowers were lavender orchids combined with shattered carnations.

All the orchids used for the wedding were grown by J. D. Bolton, the bridegroom's uncle who raises these flowers as a hobby.

Little Jennifer McDade, the bride's niece, was flower girl. She wore a white organdy frock with yellow sash.

Mr. Houghton gave his daughter in marriage, and Henry Padgham III, older brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were William Padgham, another brother, Alf Guldahl and Elmer McDade, brothers-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad played the wedding marches.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a blue dress with matching hat and orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige polished cotton dress with white orchid corsage.

Mrs. D. J. Bolton, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cakes using an heirloom knife loaned by Mrs. W. J. Warner.

The newlyweds will live at 15 Renault after returning from their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories.

The bride attended Medford high school and was graduated earlier this month from Southern Oregon college, Ashland. The bridegroom, who was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army when graduated from Oregon State college, will report for duty at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

Home Rites Wed Couple

Miss Deloris Jean Pardee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie F. Pardee, Gold Beach, became the bride of Dr. Robert Alton Guderian, Drain, Ore., in a ceremony Sunday, June 16, held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Guderian, 1304 West Tenth street, Medford.

The Rev. Lawrence E. Guderian of Tigard, superintendent of Portland district Methodist Episcopal church and cousin of the bridegroom, officiated at the single ring ceremony at 6:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white suit and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Mrs. Corene Davis, sister of the bride, came from Gold Beach to attend the bride. Capt. Louis I. Lindstrom of Fort Sill, Okla., served as best man.

Mrs. Carol LeGrand, sister of the bride of Drain, was soloist and Mrs. Inez Smith played the traditional wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Guderian home.

The bride was employed as the dental office assistant for Dr. Guderian in Drain. The bridegroom is a graduate of Southern Oregon college and the Oregon Dental school at Portland. He is now in dental practice at Drain where the couple will make their home.

Also attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fano Humphreys, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

The newlywed couple will spend their honeymoon at the family summer home at Odell Lake.

Miss Sidney Smith left last week for Honolulu, T.H., where she will attend summer session at the University of Hawaii and visit friends. Miss Smith, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith, 1033 Reddy avenue, taught the third grade last year at Sunset Valley school, Cedar Hills, near Portland. She will return to Medford August 4. (Knackstedt photo)

Miss Coralce May Dalton Is Bride of Richard White

Miss Coralce May Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton, Valley View drive, Medford, became the bride of Richard E. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. White, 3654 South Pacific highway, Medford, in a double ring ceremony held Saturday, June 15. The Rev. Raymond E. Balcomb officiated at the four o'clock afternoon ceremony held at the First Methodist church. Two hundred guests attended.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin fashioned with fitted bodice. The full skirt formed a train of lace and tulle. Her fingertip length veil was held by a crown of sequins and she carried a white orchid encircled by Stephanotis. Her gown and veil were designed by the bride's mother. The bride wore a lucky penny, borrowed from her brother, in her slipper.

Mrs. Charles Culy of Happy Camp, Calif., was matron of honor and Miss Mary Kay White and Miss Rosalind Anderson were bridesmaids. Mrs. Culy wore a frock of aquamarine crystalline while the bridesmaids wore in pale yellow. They carried bouquets of matching Ester Reed daisies.

Little Marcia Day, cousin of the bride from Albuquerque, N. Mex., was flower girl and Linn Dalton was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Earl and Henry Dalton, brothers of the bride.

Charles Dean served as best man and William Rombach and Dale Newton seated the guests. The church was decorated with roses and Ester Reed daisies. Mrs. Arthur Schafroth of Denner was soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Glen Rader home at 1428 Crown avenue.

Couple Married In Home Rites

Mrs. Goldie B. Brooks and George C. Wimer were married June 14 in a small ceremony held at the Parsonage of First Christian church here. The Rev. William C. Piper officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. McQuat, daughter and son-in-law of the bride, attended the couple.

The couple made a trip to Fresno, Calif., and Lake Tahoe, and will return here later this month to live at 3595 Jacksonville highway.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wimer have lived here many years and are widely known. Mr. Wimer is head car clerk for the Southern Pacific company.

Luncheon Given For Bride-Elect; Wedding Sunday

Mrs. Platt Andrews and Mrs. Everett Gillespie were hostesses for a luncheon Thursday which honored Miss Harriett Elizabeth Dowson, bride-elect of Lt. Fred Cutter Van Bebbler. Their wedding will be held Sunday, June 30, at First Presbyterian church, Medford.

Wedding bells, hearts, and summer flowers decorated the tables for the luncheon held at the Gillespie residence on East Main street.

Following the luncheon bride was played. Twelve guests attended.

Miss Dowson is a daughter of Mrs. Wasem Dowson, 47 South Berkeley Way. Lt. Van Bebbler is a son of Mrs. Ralph Van Bebbler of Lawrence, Kan.

Snook, Route 2, Central Point, to Vern Irvin Parent, He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Parent, Route 1, Central Point. The ceremony took place Saturday, June 8, in First Methodist church, Medford, with Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiating. Mr. Snook gave his daughter in marriage.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Tall baskets of garden flowers decorated the church and parlors for the event, with the reception flowers being of lilac and maize.

The bride's wedding gown was of lace and net over white tulle; the bodice was designed with mandarin collar, and her veil of white net and matching lace was made by her mother. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Ester Reed daisies with lilac ribbon.

Mrs. Bert Simmons, Eagle Point, was her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids and maids were Mrs. Paul McQuade, Central Point; Mrs. Gordon Layton, Medford; Miss Sherril von Buskirk, Central Point; and Miss Donna Eskew, Gold Hill.

Mrs. Simmons wore a yellow cotton frock fashioned with boat neck and very full skirt. Her shoes, gloves and wide hat matched her frock in color and she carried yellow daisies.

Mrs. Layton and Mrs. McQuade were dressed in lilac cotton frocks with matching accessories and carried bouquets of maize colored Ester Reed daisies.

Miss Shirley Lynch left Medford recently by air to spend the summer in Wiesbaden, Germany. Miss Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lynch, 139 Kenwood avenue, will return in late summer and enter Lewis and Clark college in the fall for her senior year.

The gowns worn by the Misses von Buskirk and Eskew were of maize color with matching accessories and their bouquets were lilac tinted daisies. All four frocks were designed identically to that worn by Mrs. Simmons.

Kathy Snook and Mary Simmons, nieces of the bride, were flower girls and Wayne and Richard Knotts, nephews of the bridegroom from Lostine, Ore., carried the rings. Lighting the candles were Miss Colleen Snook, Central Point and Mrs. Donald Allen, Medford. They wore lilac colored frocks to match the other attendants and carried altar candles in the lilac-maize colors.

Fred Hoge, Central Point, was the bridegroom's best man and ushering were Adrian van Horn Jr., and Cpl. Lyle Yocum, both of Central Point, and Gordon Layton and Gordon Tidwell, both Medford.

Mrs. Stanley Snook, sister-in-law of the bride, provided the wedding music.

For the reception Mrs. Richard Dunn, Central Point, poured and Mrs. Glodene Eaker, Camp White, cut the wedding cake. Two aunts of the bride, Mrs. John Snook and Mrs. Ralph Snook, took charge of the gifts and Mrs. Eugene Snook, Central Point, took charge of the guest book.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a floral print ensemble with yellow rose corsage, and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a Navy blue suit worn with pink rose corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Parent traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip, the bride wearing an ice blue Dior-inspired dress with white accessories and a corsage of white Ester Reed daisies. The newlyweds are now at home at 521 Merriman road.

The bride attended Crater High school and Southern Oregon college, Ashland. She is employed by Cheney Forest products as a stenographer. Mr. Parent, who attended Crater High school, Oregon State and Southern Oregon colleges, is employed by the Gulf Red Cedar company.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Knotts, Lostine, Ore.; Mrs. Val Kuhn and daughter, Patricia, aunt and cousin of the bridegroom from Munich, Germany; Pfc. Elgin Robinson, Camp Pendleton, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. William Strubbar and family, Hubbard, Ore.
