Church Rites In Ashland Wed Couple

Ashland—The Ashland Congregational church was the setting Sunday, June 16, for the three o'clock afternoon wedding of Miss Anne Quincy Fullerton and Walter Duane Hall. The Rev. Fred Plocher officiated and Robert B. Fullerton gave his sister in marriage.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Adelaide S. Fullerton, 725 Iowa street, Ashland. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Hall, Dallas, Texas. The bride is a teacher in the Eugene Public schools. Mr. Hall is teaching in the Roseburg school system.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina length white lace and satin gown styled on princess lines. Her elbow length veil was held by a lace and pearl trimmed cap and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis encircling a lavender orchid.

Miss Jean Gay Fullerton of San Francisco was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina length lavender nylon chiffon gown and carried a cascade bouquet of small lavender orchids and stephanotis.

William Wilkens of Grants Pass served as best man and Floyd Kerby, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Dallas, Texas, and Russell Blair, brother-in-law of the bride, seated the guests.

Little Janice Fullerton and Russell Blair Jr. were candle-lighters.

White gladiolus decorated the church. Miss Lois Windsor was soloist and Miss Margaret Ramsey played the traditional organ wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Lavender and white candles decorated the table which held the wedding cake.

The newlywed couple left for the East coast and will leave from New York for a tour of Europe. They will make their home in Eugene after September 1. For her traveling attire the bride wore a grey flannel suit with black and white accessories.

The bride attended southern Oregon college. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Chapter AA Plans Special Meeting

Chapter AA of the PEO sisterhood will meet for luncheon Wednesday, June 26, at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. H. B. Murphy, Ross lane. Mrs. V. J. Robinson and Mrs. C. H. Andrews will assist the hostess.

At this special meeting Mrs. O. J. Frohnmayer, chapter president, and Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg will report on the Oregon PEO convention which they attended June 19 and 20 in Salem.

Anna Joy Atchley Becomes Bride of Ernest J Wisely

Central Point—Mrs. Anna Joy Atchley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Clayton, Butte Falls Star route, Eagle Point, became the bride of Ernest John Wisely in a double ring ceremony held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wisely, 97 Bigham lane, Central Point. The wedding was held Friday, June 14, at eight o'clock in the evening with the Rev. D. E. Millard officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a light blue taffeta frock with white accessories and white orchid corsage.

Miss Lois Cunningham attended the bride. She wore a light blue taffeta dress with white accessories and pink carnation corsage.

Donald Eugene Wisely served as best man for his brother. Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Wisely, mother of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake, and Mrs. Clayton poured the punch. Mrs. Wisely was also in charge of the guest book.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Clayton chose a navy blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Wisely wore a light blue dress with white accessories. They both had pink rose corsages.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and served two years with the United States Army. He is attending Southern Oregon college and is employed by Fir Ply company at White City. The bride is a graduate of Eagle Point High school.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the newlyweds will make their home at 122 Almond street, Medford.
