Double Ceremony Weds Couples

White gladiolus and pink snapdragons decorated St. Mark's Episcopal church for the Saturday, June 15 double wedding of Miss Joan Rae Johnson and David L. Snook and Miss Jean Rae Johnson and Norman R. Mallon. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated at the double-ring ceremonies held at one o'clock in the afternoon. The brides were escorted to the altar by their father.

The brides are the twin daughters of Mrs. Gerald Stewart, 326 Oak Grove road, and Albert E. Johnson, 115 McAndrews road. Parents of the bridegrooms are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Snook, Route 2, Box 34, Central Point, and Mrs. Sam Mallon, Route 1, Box 460, Central Point, and the late Mr. Mallon.

The brides wore identical white nylon lace and net dresses over white satin, and fingertip length veils. They carried nosegay bouquets of pink Amling roses encircling a white orchid. Their single strands of pearls were gifts from the bridegrooms.

Maid of honor for Miss Joan was Miss Colleen Snook, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Dodge, cousin of the bride, and Miss Annise Hobbs.

Mrs. Lavan Martinson was matron of honor for Miss Joan. Other attendants were Mrs. Jon Stuckey, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Denise Dodge, cousin of the bride.

All of the attendants wore frocks of nylon lace and net in pastel shades. The honor attendants were in blue while the others were in pink and yellow. They carried cascade bouquets of Ester Reed daisies to match their dresses.

Roy Shepperd served as best man for Mr. Snook while Jim Layton, Stanley Snook, Clayton Brown, Bert Simmons and Edgar Head seated the guests. Bill Grossman served as best man for Mr. Mallon and ushering were Keith Kimmons and Stanley Brooks.

Mrs. Stanley Snook was soloist while Mrs. Ernest Conrad played the traditional organ wedding music.

Miss Gay Kent Donald Bossart Wedded Recently

The wedding of Miss Marion Gay Kent and Donald Eugene Bossart took place Sunday, June 9, at First Methodist church in Medford. Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiated. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Kent, Deadwood, S.D., and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Dana Bossart, Latrobe, Pa.

The newlyweds, who will live in Boston, Mass., chose to be married in Medford because of relatives living here and in northern California.

For the double-ring ceremony the bride wore a street-length gown of white nylon dotted Swiss over white tulle with a short veil. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon. Mr. Kent gave his daughter in marriage.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Jerry Sherman, Medford, cousin of the bride. She wore a yellow tulle frock and carried white Esther Reed daisies.

The Rev. William O. Walker, cousin of the bride, was best man. The Rev. Mr. Walker formerly lived in Medford but will soon make his home in Dillard, Ore. Steven Kent, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Miss Sue Donna Doolen played the wedding music and Miss Rosemary Doolen sang.

The reception was given by women of the church in Wesley hall. Mrs. A. O. Walker, Mrs. J. R. Kent, Mrs. W. B. Hickman and Mrs. T. A. Tibbets, all aunts of the bride lived in Medford, poured and served. Miss Carolyn Kent and Miss Gay Kent, cousins of the bride, took charge of the guest book. About 50 guests attended.

The bride is a graduate of Willamette university, Salem, and is employed in the business office of American Telephone and Telegraph company in Boston. The bridegroom is a graduate of Harvard university and is enrolled at Boston School of Theology for graduate work. He expects to be ordained as a minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Bossart spent a honeymoon at Lake of the Woods and on the Oregon coast and then left by air for Boston.

Reames chapter, Medford, will attend their school Thursday, June 27, at 8 p.m. at the Masonic hall. Mrs. C. E. Kunz is chairman of the committee in charge of refreshments to be served following the instruction period. The dinner that was scheduled in the chapter yearbook for this meeting has been cancelled, chapter officials said.

Oregon Auxiliary Elects Officers From Rogue Valley

Mrs. J. Scott Heatherington, 12 Black Oak drive of Medford, is the new president-elect of the auxiliary of the Oregon Osteopathic association.

By coincidence, Dr. Heatherington is the association's new president.

Mrs. A. A. Griffin of Jacksonville was elected first vice-president during the northwest convention in Portland, which adjourned Thursday.

Ceremony Is Held In Grants Pass

Cave Junction — Miss Eileen Ethel Maxam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Maxam of Grants Pass, became the bride of Walter (Mickey) McLean youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McLean of Kerby at a ceremony held Wednesday, June 5, at 8 p.m. at the First Christian church in Grants Pass. The Rev. Robert Neal officiated.

White stock and pink peonies decorated the sanctuary. Margaret Lard sang, accompanied by Mrs. Gerald Hemphill.

The bride wore a French imported lace gown with fitted bodice and full skirt over white satin. Her veil was trimmed with lace and tiny roses, and her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom. The heirloom Bible she carried belonged to her mother. Topping the Bible were pink roses and stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Cherie Gray, wore an aquamarine colored ballerina gown with headband and nosegay of daisies. Miss Kathy McLean, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Jeanne Young, Miss Nancy Martin and Miss Judy Dean were the bridesmaids. Their frocks were identical in design and were aquamarine, pink, peacock blue and shell pink. Each had headaddresses and nosegays of pastel daisies.

Little Jody Cannon was flower girl. She wore a light blue dress and pink roses as a headband. Jimmy Perry was the ring-bearer.

Melvin Dutcher attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Joseph Coleman, Olan McFarland, Gary Haddell and Clayton Maxam.

An afternoon dress in pink with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations was chosen by the mother of the bride. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise dress with white accessories and corsage.

At the reception in the church parlors, pink rosebuds and peonies decorated the bride's table. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Walter Cannon, aunt of the bride. Mrs. James L. Sayer, grandmother of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, while Mrs. Joseph Coleman was in charge of the gift table and Mrs. Paul Maxam, the guest book.

After a short honeymoon along the Oregon coast and at Siltcoos Lake, the young couple returned to their home on the Oregon Caves highway near Cave Junction. The bridegroom was graduated from the Illinois Valley High school in 1951 and attended Southern Oregon college. He is now associated with his father in the real estate and insurance business in Cave Junction.

The bride was a member of the 1957 Grants Pass high school graduating class.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception included Mrs. Elizabeth Wideman of Aberdeen, Wash., grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. James Sayer of Oregon City, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maxam of Oswego, and children.

Attending from the Illinois Valley were Mr. and Mrs. William J. McLean, parents of the Miss Heike Schneider (center) has arrived from Germany to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. George Flanagan and attend school in Oregon. Miss Schneider first met the Flanagan family in 1955 when they toured Europe and visited several of the 50 families to which they had sent CARE packages in 1949. Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan had corresponded with the Schneiders, and Miss Schneider's mother served as interpreter for them. Miss Schneider is a student of art, and excelled in this at school in Osnabruck. Pictured with the visitor from Europe are (at left) Mrs. Henry Warrelmann, Medford, who came from Meppen Emstand in 1950 to make her home in America, and Mrs. Flanagan.

A Tribute To Our Chamber Of Commerce

The sincere men who aggressively promote the industrial advantages and potential profit possibilities of our city, comprise our most important, single group of citizens. They are hard working members of our Chamber of Commerce. On their shoulders fall the responsibility of attracting new factories and industries to our community, in order that more payrolls, families and homes will augment our already prosperous area. Indeed, we might say the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is the very lifeblood of our daily lives, for their activities penetrate each business, large and small, bringing to all, the kind of help that benefits, directly or indirectly, every man, woman and child in our proud community.
