

A Cub Goes Exploring

Lucky for him that's a stuffed skunk!

NOT EVERYONE can have a polar bear cub around the house, so we thought you might like to see this one exploring a polar bear rug (no relation) and a stuffed toy. He's a cute little fellow, but if you're thinking of getting one, remember that when he grows up he'll be about seven feet tall and weigh more than 500 pounds. And it takes a lot of meat to feed a guy like that!

Now, how is a guy raised in the North Pole country supposed to act when he meets up with one of these giraffes from the jungles of darkest Africa?

Well, there goes the giraffe! Trouble is, a polar bear just doesn't know his own strength. We hate to mention it, but that's a bear rug you're on!

This is the one that's delicious for drinking!
