

Drivers' Self-examination

YES NO

☐ ☐ 1. Could you pass a written examination today on the contents of the State Driver Manual summarizing the driving laws of your state? (You can obtain a copy by writing to the Motor Vehicle Department at your state capital.)

☐ ☐ 2. Can you parallel-park a car on the first try in a normal curb-parking space?

☐ ☐ 3. When driving at night, do you recover more slowly than you used to from headlight glare or do you have increasing difficulty in distinguishing objects?

☐ ☐ 4. Are you honked at frequently when starting up from a stop sign or a light? (Slow-reacting drivers often cause other drivers to take unnecessary risks.)

☐ ☐ 5. Do you have difficulty maintaining the pace of other drivers in traffic and find yourself passed frequently?

☐ ☐ 6. Are you having minor accidents—fender dents and garage-door scrapes—more frequently than before?

☐ ☐ 7. Are stop signs, route markers, and other traffic indicators becoming harder for you to locate on strange streets and roads?

Whatever your age, you should be able to answer "yes" to the first two questions and "no" to the rest. If you can't, practice until you can—or voluntarily attach conditions to your driving to protect yourself and others.

One of the great satisfactions of advancing age is advancing wisdom. Be wise about where, when, and how you drive!

when you constitute a hazard behind the wheel.
