Egyptian Court Sentences Britons

Cairo — An Egyptian court Saturday sentenced two Britons to 5 and 10 years in prison and acquitted two others arrested during the Suez invasion on charges of spying for Britain. The court sentenced James Swinburn to five years in prison. The magistrate said he escaped the death penalty only because of his "services in revealing the identity of his accomplices." The magistrate ordered James Zarb, a Maltese businessman, imprisoned for 10 years. He acquitted Charles Pittuck, John Stanley and former Yugoslav army Colonel Milovan Gricovitch. Egypt alleged all took part in a spy ring.

Medford Firemen Have Busy Day Saturday

Trash barrel burning that "got away" gave the Medford fire department a busy day yesterday as trucks answered six calls to put out grass fires. The day's runs included: a fire at 21 North Berkeley Way at 9:09 a.m.; a fire at 2122 Crater Lake highway at 9:16 a.m.; a fire at Crestbrook and Ellendale rds. at 12 noon; a fire at 126 Sunset ave. at 3:13 p.m.; a fire at 1353 East McAndrews rd. at 4:06 p.m. and a fire at 21 North Berkeley Way at 4:38 p.m. The United States averages 175,000 forest fires a year, the National Geographic Magazine says. People start about 90 per cent of them, mostly through carelessness.

House May Be Ready To Give Ike Victory

Washington — Despite a rampaging economy drive, the house Saturday seemed ready to give President Eisenhower a major victory on a key program—foreign aid. The chief executive has asked for $3,864,410,000. Most of the money, $2,900,000,000, is earmarked for military hardware and defense support. The House Foreign Affairs committee plans to complete its investigation of the administration request this week, then start approving the various items, one by one. The committee started taking testimony from military and civilian leaders a month ago Saturday. The Senate recently completed action on an authorization bill by voting for an overall program to cost $3,617,333,000. That was a cut of less than seven per cent. Congressional leaders doubt the house will approve a deeper cut.

New York Police Seek New Bomber

New York — Police were confronted Saturday with the possibility they are being pestered by a new "mad bomber." A device similar to the scores pieced together by the original "mad bomber" who now is in a mental institution was found in a subway station. Service on one subway line was halted for 15 minutes while police bomb squad experts gingerly plucked the device from behind a stairwell and took it away for examination. It was the second crude "bomb" to be found on the same subway platform in 10 days. It consisted of a five-inch length of galvanized pipe with a red fuse. The pipe was filled with black powder.

Written in black crayon on the device was the query: "Is this still crude?" The message apparently referred to police reports that the "bomb" found 10 days ago was crude. George Metesky known for 16 years as the "mad bomber of Manhattan" was arrested earlier this year. He told police he had planted scores of bombs some of which exploded to call attention to a grievance he had against the Consolidated Edison company.

Christina, accompanied by her mother, did not say a word to newsmen who saw her off at Idlewild International airport. But she replied to their questions with vigorous nods of the head when they asked if she still loved her boy friend and if she still wanted to marry him. The girl ran off with Huw Williams, 18. They were taken into custody in Pennsylvania on Thursday on their return from Canada. Huw went home to his mother in Falls Church, Va., and lost his Senate job.

Late-Model Jets Are Planned for Korea

Tokyo — The U.S. Air Force will fly a swarm of late-model jet fighter planes from Japan to South Korea early next week to begin the modernization of the United Nations forces arms on the divided peninsula, it was reported Saturday. Informed sources said the reinforcements probably will include all-weather F-100s and at least a wing of F-86Fs—the latest model of the fighter that clobbered Russia's MIGs during the Korean war.

The latest tanks, field guns and bazookas also will be shipped soon to South Korea, along with new rifles to replace the wornout weapons now being used by U.S. forces in the U.N. command there, these sources said. The move is the result of the U.N. command's decision to scrap the Korean armistice ban on sending new weapons into Korea. It could not be determined immediately whether atomic rockets or artillery would be included in the allied buildup.

Miss Wennerstrom Returns to Sweden
New York — Christina Wennerstrom, 16-year-old Swedish diplomat's daughter, left for Stockholm Saturday weeping, clutching a teddy bear and vowing her love for the Senate page boy with whom she went on a two-week "honeymoon" without benefit of clergy. Christina, accompanied by her mother, did not say a word to newsmen who saw her off at Idlewild International airport. But she replied to their questions with vigorous nods of the head when they asked if she still loved her boy friend and if she still wanted to marry him. The girl ran off with Huw Williams, 18. They were taken into custody in Pennsylvania on Thursday on their return from Canada. Huw went home to his mother in Falls Church, Va., and lost his Senate job.
