Medford Cheney Studs continued on as undefeated leaders and Cave Junction rode in second place after four week end engagements in the Rogue Valley Baseball League.

Exhibiting again their power with the bludgeon, the Studs clubbed Camp White at Camp White Saturday night. Score was 12 to 3. Cave Junction rallied at the finish on its home diamond also Saturday to trip Glendale 10 to 8. Glendale posted its first league decision Sunday by nipping Talent 5 to 4 while Cave Junction traveled to Butte Falls and smothered the high country team 18 to 2, getting nine runs in the first inning.

Next league action is on Wednesday evening when the Studs host Talent at the fairgrounds ball park.

Four In First

As the scoring finally worked out, the four unearned markers the Studs picked up in the first inning were all they needed to win. But they added a pair in the fourth frame, a singleton in the eighth and availed for five in the ninth in running up their evening total. Jerry Bartow, making his hill debut for Medford, ran into serious trouble only in the fourth inning when the Whittiers collected all their runs. He threw an eight-hitter and struck out batters 16 times.

Jack Conroy with four raps, including a homer, Frank Roelandt with two triples, Jerry Droscher with a double and three bagger and Ron Owings with three singles provided the heavy hitting for the Cheneys. Dick Nix and Dick Wootton were the only Camp Whittiers to get more than one hit off Bartow. They each got three and Ned Landers and Bill Seymour swatted the other safeties.

Roelandt Triples

In the opening chukker, Camp White tosser Don Sanford whiffed Ed Reinking, the first batter he faced. Larry Perkins batted out. Then Conroy cracked a single, John Kovenz struck out but was safe at first on a dropped third strike when Catcher Wootton heaved to second in an effort to nail Conroy. Owings singled to tally Conroy and Roelandt unloaded for his first three-baser to send in two runners. Roelandt came home after Charles Rettman dropped Frank Rector's fly ball in the field.

Droscher drew a base on balls and Ned Landers took over on the pitcher's rubber to go the rest of the way. Bartow singled to centerfield and Rector, attempting to go all the way home from second base was out at the plate on a fine throw from the outfield by Nix.

The Studs two in the fourth frame were on a single by Perkins and Conroy's in the park homer to deep right field.

Landers, Nix Double

For the Veterans Administration domiciliary nine in the fourth, Landers and Nix led off with back to back doubles. Wootton singled to bring in Landers. Seymour walked and Nix scored and Seymour went to second on a passed ball. Rettman also drew a base on balls. Wootton was thrown out at home on Bob Smith's rap to Shortstop Owings but Seymour was waved home on a balk called on Bartow.

Rector bunt singled and Droscher tripled for the counter in the eighth. In the final panel

Two of Twelve Leaving League

Wenatchee — 12 — Destinations of the 12 Wenatchee baseball players released Friday were revealed Saturday. All will remain in the Northwest League but Ted Tappel who is moving to Nuevo Laredo in the A-A Mexican League, and Dick Watson and George Huffman who were released.

Going to Salem are Larry Segovia, Chuck Lybeck, Tom Gibson, Cal Bauer and Jim Jones.

Yakima will get Herb Anderson, Dennis Peterson and George Michal. Art Tinsley is headed for Lewiston.

Urness Retires Rest of Season

The Dalles — Eddie Urness of The Dalles, who was an $80,000 baseball bonus baby when he was 18 in 1932, has announced his retirement from baseball for the rest of the season.

Urness arrived here from Albany, N.Y., and said he was dissatisfied with things in the Class A Eastern league. His retirement was granted by the Boston Red Sox farm system director, John Murphy. Urness said it still needs to be approved by Minor League President George Troutman to become official.

Urness has been troubled by an ailing arm early in the season and got a late start.

Rogue Valley Entries Drop Tiffs in Pre-OGA Tourney Contention; Qualify Today

Oswego — Qualifying rounds for the annual Oregon Amateur Golf championships were held today with match play to start Tuesday and wind up Saturday with both men's and women's finals booked for Oswego Country club.

Don Krieger had Dick Yost shoot 10-birdie best-ball score of 59 Sunday to lead Portlanders to a 12-3 victory over Ralph Dichter's upstate team. Krieger and Yost defeated Dichter and Owen Panzer of Bend, who had a 67. Yost had seven birdies.

Some 138 men and 75 women were entered for the amateur tourney. Women qualified at Tualatin Country club.

Other Results

Other best-ball results Sunday saw Ad Huycke of Oswego and Bob Atkinson of Portland defeat Dustry Woods of Riverwood Country club and Jack Brande of Salem 2 to 1; Bob Schorback of Portland and Glen Schorback of Oswego down Harry Millette of Eugene and Lloyd Miltette of Medford, 2 and 1.

Roelandt three-bagger, Cooney and Droscher each doubled and Owings, Bartow and Reinking singled. There were sacrifice flyouts by Kovenz and Rector an error and a passed ball.

The Studs recorded two double plays, one retiring the side with men on third and first bases after singles. Camp White had one double kill.

Ray Munyon Hero

Ray Munyon's blower single drove in the winning run to end a slightly see-saw contest at Glendale. Talent had a 4 to 3 edge as Glendale came to bat in the bottom of the ninth stanza. Bud Reynolds led off the inning with a homerun to tie up the game. Duane Miller drew a walk and Bob Stolz and Wayne Berg safetied to load the bases and Munyon drove Miller home to bust up the combat.

Glendale got a lone run in the fourth inning on Tony Prestiani's hit, a passed ball, an error and a squeeze bunt by Reynolds. The Talent nine tied it in the fifth on Pete Cotton's walk and stolen base and Jack Eberhart's single. Bob Stolz homered. Berg singled and Munyon doubled in the eighth as the Loggers went in front 3 to 1. Talent fought back with three in the top of the ninth on walks to Parent and McAbee, hits by Cotton and Eberhart and an error.

Miller struck out Talent batters 12 times in his seven-hitter. Mark Fitch fanned seven Loggers.

Twinks Trip Beavers In Sunday Twinbill

By SCOTT BAILLIE
United Press Sports Writer

The Hollywood Stars, who can turn from hot to cold faster than your shower does when the landlady is downstairs, closed in on San Francisco and Vancouver today as the Pacific Coast league race neared the half-way pole.

Manager Clyde King's third place charges shook their latest losing streak of five straight Sunday by sweeping a double header from Portland, 4-3 and 6-2.

The twin win moved the Stars to within a game of second place Vancouver which dropped a pair to Seattle while San Francisco broke even with San Diego. The Suds fuzzed into fourth place by honoring the Mounties, 4-1 and 7-0. San Francisco, lost the opener to the Padres, 8-1, then rallied for three runs in its last time up to pull out the nightcap, 6-5, on Ken Aspromonte's single.

Rudy Regalado of the Padres homered and belted two doubles while hitting in his 22nd and 23rd straight PCL contest.

In other action, the Los Angeles Angels made it four in a row over Sacramento by winning both ends of their twin bill. Jim Fridley's home run in the ninth inning gave the Seeps the opener, 5-4, and he belted another as did Steve Bilko while they were romping home in the nightcap, 6-1.

Baumer Hits Homers

The Stars, who twice this year have been trapped in five game losing streaks, one four and several three-game droughts, took the opener for a brace of home runs by big Jim Baumer. His blast, the first coming with a man aboard, wiped out a 3-1 Portland lead and spelled defeat for tireless Bill Werle, who went the distance as usual. It was the first PCL triumph for Pepper, who paced him all the way.

Then a four run spurge, in the sixth frame of the nightcap, featured by Emil Panko's pinch-hit homer after Leo Rodriguez had doubled, lifted Clarence Churn to victory. John Carmichael took his fifth loss.

Regalado's two-run homer in the third frame of the opener gave Dick Brodowski all the runs he needed for his fourth straight win but the Pads tacked on six more tallies anyway. Jack Spring got the loss, the fourth for the slim left-hander.

Adcock Fractures Ankle in Slide

Milwaukee — The pennant-contending Milwaukee Braves will be without the bat of first baseman Joe Adcock for the next 6 to 8 weeks because of a fractured ankle.

The big first baseman, beset by a bad knee for the past month, fractured a small bone in his right ankle and tore some ligaments when he slid into second base during the second inning of Sunday's second game with Philadelphia.

Hoad, Gibson Wimbledon Net Choices

London — Strong, silent Lew Hoad of Australia and lanky Althea Gibson of New York were strong title favorites as the All-England lawn tennis championships opened today at Wimbledon.

Hoad was a firm 6-5 choice to become the first player to win the men's singles crown twice in succession since Don Budge of the United States turned the trick in 1937-38.

Miss Gibson, top-seeded in the women's singles, remained a 1-2 favorite to walk off with that division's title and thus become Wimbledon's first Negro champion.

Frenchman Favorite in Title Bout

Paris — Frenchman Cherif Hamia of Algeria is favored at 7-5 to beat Hogan (Kid) Bassef of Nigeria tonight in their 15-round fight for the vacant world featherweight championship.

Although both are from Africa, top contender Hamia is fighting for France, and Bassef for the British Empire, of which he is champion.

More than 15,000 are expected at the indoor Palais des Sports to witness this final contest for the 126-pound title, which was left vacant by the March retirement of American Sandy Saddler because of an eye injury.

DI BIASE FAVORED

New York — Welterweight Tony DiBiase of Astoria, N.Y., is favored at 13-5 to beat Gale Kerwin of Valley Stream, N.Y., tonight in their televised 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

GILLNET CATCH POOR

Astoria — Packers today reported that gillnetters on the lower Columbia river had a poor catch during the first week of a new season. Most packs said the average delivery was less than 200 pounds per boat.

Congressional Committee Resumes Baseball Hearing

By TOM NELSON
Washington — Big league baseball players went to bat in a new field today—before a congressional investigating committee.

A House judiciary subcommittee headed by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) opened its second week of hearings on professional sports with testimony by J. Norman Lewis, attorney for the Major League Baseball Players association.

Then the seven-man body planned to hear some of the sport's brightest stars — Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies, Eddie Yost of the Washington Senators and Jerry Coleman of the New York Yankees.

Both Leagues Represented

The subcommittee is trying to decide whether baseball should be regulated under anti-trust laws and if so how rigidly. The sport now is immune from these statutes.

Roberts was invited to testify as a player representative of the National league, Yost for Ameri-

Pete Wheelhouse Cops Gun Crown

Portland — Pete Wheelhouse of Arlington won a three-way shootout Sunday at the Portland Gun club to capture the state singles trapshoot title.

Wheelhouse won over George Blum of Tillamook and Harry Hanson of Eugene. Each of the trio blasted 198 out of 200 at 16 yards. Wheelhouse hit 25 straight to win the shootout.

Forrest Solomon of Winchester took the all-around title with a total score of 379 to 378 for Frank Simpson of Cornelius.
