Studs Tussle Talent Here on Wednesday

Players with high school baseball experience at Ashland and Talent High schools on the team which the Medford Cheney Studs oppose Wednesday night in Rogue Valley league contention. Medford is host to Talent at 8 p.m. at the fairgrounds.

Gene Parent, ex-Ashland high, who hurled for Shasta Junior college this spring, is the probable starting pitcher for the visiting club. Jim McAbee, ex-Talent, now playing for Southern Oregon college, likely will be on the receiving end of the battery.

Ems, Braves Dump Two PCL Clubs

Eugene and Tri-City Monday night showed their big brothers of the Pacific Coast League—second-place Portland and third-place Hollywood—that Northwest League ball can take some mean hops.

In home exhibition games, the Emeralds dumped Portland, 4-2, while their stablemates were cleaning up on Hollywood, 10-9. Eugene grabbed a one-run lead in the third inning on a triple by Chuck Stacy and a single by Mel Krause and was never headed. The Emeralds scored again in the sixth when Pete Mikacich and Don Frailey were driven in by Dan Holden and John Keller. Mikacich hung up the final tally in the eighth.

It was a different story at Tri-City, where the Braves had to claw back from a seven-run deficit in the seventh inning. They picked up four tallies there, another in the eighth and three more in the last frame while rookie Fred Rick was white-washing the Stars the last two innings. It was the youngster's first appearance for Tri-City.

The Braves bundled it up in the bottom of the ninth with two out as Danny Carr doubled to drive in two runs.

Hollywood Manager Clyde King limited Tri-city to two hits in the first five frames. But when outfielder Joe Duhem came on to pitch in the sixth, the Braves nicked him for two runs and the flood gates were opened.

Meyer, Carder Midget Winners

Mike Meyer won the main event Sunday in quarter-mile auto races at Jackson Hot springs. He won the trophy dash and had the fastest qualifying time.

Dana Carder won the second and final heat races and the semi-main. Tim Travis took the first heat. The six-weeks sportsman trophy went to Eddie McCoy.

Trophy donors included Paulson's market, Central Point, main and semi-main; Jackson Hot springs, trophy dash, and Skinner's garage, sportsman trophy.

DELANEY WINS MILE
Dublin, Ireland — Ron Delaney, the Olympic 1,500-meter champion, won the featured mile run in an international track meet in a slow 4:09.1 Monday night before a cheering hometown crowd. England's Brian Hewson and Gordon Pirie chased home Delaney, who returned home recently from the United States, where he is a student at Villanova.

Gas was first discovered in Arkansas at Fort Smith in 1887.

FALLING AWAY from a close pitch is Chicago's Aparicio in hot action at New York. Yank catcher Yogi Berra returns ball to pitcher Kucks. Yanks won, 4-2. (International)

Sensational Young Los Angeles Girl Entered in Ski Meet Here

A nine-year-old Los Angeles girl, regarded as the best in the nation in her class in trick competition, is among those who'll be entered in the first annual Oregon Water Ski championships next Saturday and Sunday at Gardiner lake east of Medford.

She is Martha Williams and is described as a "terrific" skier, who amazes with her slalom and jumping ability as well as her trick riding.

The meet at the half-mile in diameter private man-made lake will be sponsored by the Crater

Crater Lake, M & W Win

Crater Lake Motors and M & W Chain Saw emerged as victors in Monday evening games of the Jackson county softball association.

Crater Lake beat the Dairy Maids 12 to 10 and M&W topped the 20-30 club nine to two. Jim House pushed out a bases loaded home run in the first inning to give M&W an early lead in the second game. Charley Garner tripled for the club later.

Court Upholds Ban On Obscene Material

Washington — The Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of the federal law that bars sending obscene material through the mail.

Justice William J. Brennan Jr., speaking for the court majority, said "obscenity is not expression protected by the First Amendment" guaranteeing freedom of the press.

At the same time, the court upheld the validity of a California statute enacted in 1870 which makes it a crime to write, advertise, or distribute indecent literature.

In a separate set of opinions, the court also upheld, 5 to 4, a New York law which allows a court to bar distribution of obscene printed matter.

The court division on the obscenity law was 6 to 3 in the federal case. It was 7 to 3 in the federal case. It was 7 to 2 in the California case.

Marine Corps Denies Use of Pressure

Camp Pendleton, Calif. — The Marine Corps has denied it was using imprisonment and other forms of pressure to change the attitude of a Marine private seeking conscientious objector status.

The Marine, Pvt. Peter H. Green, recently was convicted of refusing an order to draw a rifle for combat training. He was sentenced to four months at hard labor despite his claim that he is a conscientious objector.

Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green, of Evanston, Ill., in a letter to the commanding officer at Camp Pendleton, charged that the Marine Corps was putting pressure on their son who is serving his sentence here.

Cost of Living Hits All-Time High in May

Washington — The government today reported the cost of living climbed to an all-time high last May for the ninth straight month.

The Labor Department said the May consumer price index was 118.6 per cent of the 1947 average. The index was three-tenths of one per cent above April and 3.6 per cent higher than May, 1936.

Mounty Club 6-5 Victors At Seattle

By UNITED PRESS
The Vancouver Mounties had to beat off another toughie Monday night to keep on the trail of the "most wanted" gang in the Pacific Coast League.

The second-place Canadians, now on the heels of the league leading San Francisco Seals, found the path filled with Seattle Rainiers as the rest of the league sat back to watch.

Jim Marshall, who wields a big club, led the Mounties through the rugged intruders by a 6-5 score. As a result of the engagement, Vancouver moved to within two games of the Seals — and the Rainiers dropped from fourth to fifth place, just four and a half games off the lead.

George Bamberger, who notched his ninth win, held a 3-0 lead going into the top of the fifth. However, the Rainiers chipped away to tie the contest in the top of the seventh.

But then Marshall stepped in with his club. He smashed out a homer in the bottom of the seventh of Marion Pricano, Seattle's third hurler, and that's all the Mounties needed.

Today the Mounties move to Portland and Seattle hosts Hollywood. San Francisco plays at Los Angeles, and Sacramento visits San Diego.

THE LINEUP:
Seattle — 000 011 300-5 11 0
Vancouver — 131 000 100-6 8 0
Hayden, Podholski (3), Pricano (7) and Ortega; Bamberger and White. Only game scheduled.

Dyck Leads Coast League

San Francisco — Jim Dyck of Seattle, a veteran of 16 years of organized ball, led the Pacific Coast League batters today with an average of .338, according to the latest figures.

Statistician Bill Weiss placed Dyck ahead of San Diego's Rudy Regalado, who is belting .372, as the Rainier infielder has more than the minimum 200 times at bat to qualify. Rudy had been up 188 times as through Sunday's double header.

Steve Bilko of Los Angeles set the pace in home runs with 18, two more than Seattle's Joe Taylor who is his closest pursuer. However, Taylor was ahead in runs batted in, having driven across 54 tallies.

Bill Causin of Hollywood led in hits with 91.

RVCC Pro Posts 73

Al Williams, Rogue Valley Country Club pro, posted a first round 73, four strokes off the pace, at the Washington Open golf tournament yesterday.

Seattle — Tom Marlowe of Portland tied amateur George Holland of Seattle for low honors Monday with a 69 at the opening of the Washington Open Golf tournament here.

Eighteen holes were scheduled today with the final 36 on Wednesday.

Following Marlowe and Holland with 70's were Benny Mason of Salem and Don Taylor and Ernie Tullis of Seattle. At 71 were Ed Oldfield of Roseburg, Larry Lamberger of Portland, Bill Welch of Tri-City, Jim Russell of Walla Walla, and Franz Dolp, Doug MacDonald and Ray Koch, Seattle.

Our sad-faced friend is Bill McGoo.
Who thought he'd bought a car brand-new;
And while he got a "special deal"
His disappointment he can't conceal!
While others drive in Swept-Wing style
Poor Bill just mutters curses vile:
"They got new styling, features, too—
"I bought a 'deal'—boo-hoo, boo-hoo!"

Moral: Yesterday's looks and features are no bargain at any price!

No car is a bargain if it's obsolete in styling and engineering features. And the Swept-Wing Dodge actually obsoletes other cars in its field with its low, low look of tomorrow and revolutionary advances like Torsion-Aire Ride, Push-Button TorqueFlite and Total-Contact Brakes. So don't get "bargain-talked" into yesterday's styling and features. The same money buys the car that's years ahead. See your Dodge dealer. Join the swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge.
