

EAGLE POINT Budget Hearing Date Set

By MRS. THOMASINE SMITH
Eagle Point — A public hearing on the proposed general fund budget for the city of Eagle Point for the fiscal year 1957-58 will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 26, in the city library.

The Eagle Point fire department was called to the William L. Couch residence, 112 North A street, Thursday, June 20, to extinguish a grass fire which was burning around the house and underneath the porch. The fire was confined to a small area and no damage was done to the buildings.

Chief of Police Harold Ottesen reports that serious injury could have resulted to pranksters who let the "air" out of the tires of the city grader while it was parked for repairs on city property on Little Butte creek. The tires are filled with a liquid that would be damaging to the eyes or skin if not washed off immediately. This city property is posted with "no trespassing" signs.

The Eagle Point Jaycees met Wednesday, June 19, at the Teen-age club. Glenn Nelson called the meeting to order in the absence of President Bert Simmons. Dick Lamb, representative for the Boy Scouts, spoke to the group on needs and requirements of sponsorship of Boy Scouts of America in Eagle Point. Lamb pointed out that this is the largest area in southern Oregon without an organization of this kind for young boys. According to the 1950 census, 138 boys of cub scout age, 97 boys of scout age and approximately 100 boys of explorer age live in this area. Mike Kaiser Jr. gave a short summary of past efforts to develop scouting in this area.

It was announced that material for the high school track project had arrived and all members would meet Thursday evening to start work. The next meeting will be Wednesday night.

Alfred Olsen of Spokane, Wash., was an overnight guest of his brother, Jake Olsen, Friday night. Olsen was returning from a business trip in Oroville, Calif.

Desert Pegasus (meaning mythical flying horse), a 4-H riding club at Eagle Point, left Saturday for the Montague Junior Rodeo held Sunday at Montague, Calif.

The Rogue Valley Dairy Maids softball team left for Chico, Calif., Saturday morning for a night game to be played Saturday. The team will meet a Red Bluff girls team for an afternoon game on their return trip home.

Miss Ruth Rittenhouse from Berkeley, Calif., is spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Harold Ottesen, and family, on her way to her home in Buffalo, N.Y. Miss Rittenhouse has been working the past nine months with the American Friends Service Committee in Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Metz of Chicago were top-over visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hopper Friday, June 21.

Mrs. Rose Ritz of Bandon, Ore., mother of Mrs. Stewart Hopper, died Friday, June 21. Mrs. Ritz lived in Eagle Point for two years and was 87 years of age at the time of her death. The Hoppers left for Coos Bay Saturday, where the services will be held Tuesday June 25. Barbara Hopper is staying with the Don Gerens.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hayes of Bingham road in the Antelope district celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their home June 15. Decorations were made by their daughter, Mrs. William Fern. Coffee poured from a tea service brought from France by Mrs. Wattenburg highlighted the occasion. About 30 friends and members of the family attended.

Steven Geren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Geren, broke a bone in his foot while attending 4-H summer school in Corvallis this past week. His foot will be in a cast for six weeks.

A surprise housewarming was held Wednesday June 12 for Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson at their home on Stevens road. The Andersons recently purchased the home from Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Holmes. Over 30 couples attended the affair.

The Humboldt Gem and Mineral Society from Eureka, Calif., are on a rock hunting field trip to the BarLew Ranch. The group will be there Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Brooks, of Eagle Point, and Peter Deyoung of Medford, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Spain Sunday, June 16, by the Rev. Mr. Simmons. The couple were attended by Mrs. Scott Boyer and Dick Spain. The bride wore an alicie blue dress with white accessories and white corsage. Following the wedding the Deyoungs left for a trip north.

Mrs. Philip Thurston, a former Eagle Point teacher now living at Halsey, Ore., and son Kenneth, of Eugene, were over night guests at the home of Mrs. Roy Stanley this past week. Mrs. Thurston and son visited friends and relatives in Prospect and Medford while in the valley.

Mrs. Louise Berg, injured in a car accident in Medford Sunday morning, is confined in the Sacred Heart hospital. Mrs. Berg is suffering from internal injuries.

R. P. Gunn of West Covina, Calif., was a weekend guest of the George Gunn family of Rt. 1 Box 89, Eagle Point. While here, Gunn, with relatives and friends, helped George Gunn celebrate his birthday June 17. The group also celebrated Philip Hannaford's birthday June 16 with a picnic dinner at the Catfish derby. Present for the events were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gunn, Larry, Bernard Jr., Timmy and Merie, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hedges, Teddy, Debbie and Dale and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hannaford and Doris.

Mrs. Dorothy Behnke and children are leaving Eagle Point to make their home in Portland. The Rev. Behnke was recently killed in a plane crash.

JoDell Hasey, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartager, is spending the summer in Eagle Point. JoDell's home is in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeAutremont of Eugene, Ore., have been visitors of the Stan Smiths this past week. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Win Roberson, of Redmond, Ore., joined the group at dinner. DeAutremont, Smith and Roberson attended college together. Another college acquaintance, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newton, of Ashland, were visitors during the evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Munshaw and family left Monday June 17, for a two week vacation at the Rev. Munshaw's former home in Missouri to visit his family and friends.

John Minter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Minter, was helping build a barn at his home Saturday, June 15, when a timber fell, causing him to receive fractured cheek bone. John was hospitalized five days and is now convalescing at his home.

The last regular meeting of the Amici Horizon club was held at the home of Martha Ansted recently. It was reported that the style show and luncheon held not long ago was a success. It was the first project undertaken by this charter group. A large attendance was the result of an energetic pre-ticket sale on the part of the members. Because it was such a success, the club hopes to make this an annual affair. Members serving as models were Linda Luman, Ovela Waldon, Patsy Thompson, Gail Carter, Marlin Suksdorf, Edna Gray, Martha Ansted, Joan Huston, Lana McGraw, Sharon Roberts of Medford, and Rosemary Tokar, who also were the commentators for the show.

Modeling little girls clothes were Christy and Cheryl Gerety and Wendy McGraw. Two other girls, Sharon Roberts of Trail, and Molly Gregg, were dressed as Calypso girls take tickets and and seat the guests. The decorations carried out the calypso and tropical theme. The "Crestones" provided entertainment during intermission with calypso singing.
