Saturday — Boston — Peter Mueller vs. Gustav Scholz; Salisbury, South Africa — Jimmy Martinez vs. Mike Holt; Hollywood, Calif. — Laura Salas vs. Noel Humphreys.

Jack Dunn Top Slugger

Portland — Jack Dunn of Salem with a .387 mark led Northwest league hitters in the games through June 18, league statistics show.

Herm Lewis, Yakima slugger, also figured prominently in the latest figures. His 75 hits were tops for the loop, he led in doubles with 17, in runs batted in with 73, and in total bases with 128.

Ellis Burton of Tri-City was the home run leader with 13. Vince Horeel of Yakima had scored the most runs, 61, and Zeke King of Eugene led in triples with 8. Burton was the stolen base leader with 11 but had also struck out 39 times to lead in that department.

Chuck Lybeck of Wenatchee with a 9-2 mark and a percentage of 8.18 topped the hurlers. However, Ollie Brantley of Eugene was the league's winningest pitcher with 11 victories.

Brantley and Andy George of Salem each had fanned a high of 75 hitters and Brantley was the circuit's busiest pitcher having pitched 107 innings.

Houtteman Sent To Vancouver

Baltimore, Md. — Art Hard Luck Houtteman was sent to the minors today by the Baltimore Orioles.

The 29-year-old righthander was optioned to Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League on 24-hour recall after failing to win with the Orioles following his acquisition from the Cleveland Indians last month.

An 11-year veteran of the majors, Houtteman gave his consent to being sent to the minors. He had pitched a total of only eight and a third innings this season with both the Indians and Orioles. Since coming to Baltimore, he appeared in three games without being involved in a decision.

Rogue Valley Scores High

Rogue Valley Country Club entries in the Oregon Amateur Golf championship qualified well above the leaders yesterday.

Scores were Harry Millette 79; Del Berg 83; Deane Lambert 85; Sue DeVoe 83.

Oswego, Ore. — Match play opened today in the 29th annual Oregon Amateur Golf Championships with the spotlight on Bob Atkinson Jr. and Ad Huycke who shared medalist honors in qualifying play Monday.

Atkinson, from Portland, and Huckle of the host course, shot one-over-par 69's on the Oswego Country Club layout.

Their closest rival for medalist honors was Lou Stafford of Portland with a 70. Mike Irrilli of Oswego and Steve Milich of Portland shot 71's while Dick Yost, the 1950 champion, Ken Leonard and Bob Bronson, all of Portland, had 73's.

Carole Jo Kabler, the Sutherlin girl who won the women's crown in 1955, had a two-under par 73 to pace women qualifiers at the Tualatin Country Club. She broke the women's competitive course record by two strokes. Carole Jo also was five strokes ahead of Mrs. R. L. Borst and Mrs. Glenn Spivey of Portland.

Gracie DeMoss, defending champion from Corvallis did not play Monday but took her automatic seeded position.
