

The Family Council

Editor's note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a women's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual report. The Family Council does not give advice; it merely reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and communities.

Jim D.—Mother got me into this.

Mrs. T. D.—His friend is a bad influence.

Jim D.—Two years ago my mother introduced me to the daughter of a friend of hers and I went out with her quite a lot for about a year.

This girl, Betty, is 29, three years older than I am. She is very homely and she is taller than I am. I'm very embarrassed when I go out with her and I decided to call it quits.

That is easier said than done, however. Betty calls me constantly at home and at my office. She keeps inviting me over to her home for dinner and gives me gifts on every occasion. I don't reciprocate until it becomes absolutely necessary. She has practically asked me to marry her and I've had to more or less dodge the proposal.

I can't tell this girl to let me alone. I don't want to hurt her feelings. My mother got me into this and I think she ought to get me out by having a quiet talk with Betty.

Mrs. T. D.—Jim simply doesn't know what is good for him. This girl, while not the most beautiful in the world, is by no means homely. She is intelligent, has a charming personality and is a good homemaker.

She is by no means at a loss for men, but she happens to care for Jim. It's his luck and he is too much of a fool to know it.

When Jim first started seeing Betty, he liked her very much and saw none of the faults he now speaks of. Last year, however, he took up with a friend who has been a very bad influence on him. This young man immediately made fun of Betty and told Jim that he looks like an idiot going out with a girl older and taller than he is.

This is nonsense, because Betty looks younger than Jim.

Confederate Money Will Buy Dinner

Orkney Springs, Va.—You're lucky if you heeded that rebel song:

"Save your Confederate money, boys; 'The South will rise again'."

Each Sunday night the century-old Orkney Springs Hotel which still flies the Confederate flag will have a southern-style barbecue.

The price: $2 Yankee money or $1 Confederate money.

Committee Will Study State Power

Williamsburg, Va.—Gov. William G. Stratton of Illinois invited fellow-governors today to nominate members of a committee to confer with the Eisenhower administration on ways to increase the powers of the states.

Stratton, a Republican and newly elected chairman of the National Governors' Conference, was authorized by the conference Wednesday to name the committee to follow up a proposal by President Eisenhower in a speech here Monday. The 1957 meeting of the conference adjourned Wednesday.

The Eisenhower plan was expected to figure in discussions at a White House lunch in Washington today to which the 19 Republican governors at the conference were invited.

Eisenhower proposed that the governors and his administration set up a joint task force to study how to return some federal functions and tax sources to the states.

The proposal was greeted by considerable skepticism among the governors. Some, however, felt the effort might be worthwhile if it merely arrested the trend toward greater exercise of federal power.

Cha-Cha. This dance is the basic of one of the best numbers in the musical show hit titled "The Bells Are Ringing." My girl friend wants me to learn to do the cha-cha-cha. Of course, I will try. But that is strictly for love. I don't think I have the figure for it.

Mrs. Holland is a well-known lecturer for a cosmetic house in England. She also is the daughter-in-law of Oscar Wilde, her husband being film executive and author Vyvyan Holland. She was asked to advise the Queen on skin care and what cosmetics to wear for royal tours and state occasions.

Queen Described

The "make-up minister" describes the Queen as "a shy, sensitive woman with a wonderful inner radiance, truly one of the world's most beautiful women."

The Queen wears the same quota of make-up most women use—foundation, rouge, lipstick and powder plus eye shadow and mascara to emphasize her eyes so her face won't be out-dazzled by jewels.

Mrs. Holland is visiting Hollywood to see how the movie colony's local Slenderella salon works because she is opening one of the popular figure remodeling places in London.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Washington — A physicist, commenting on a promise by Dr. Edward Teller and his associates at the University of California radiation laboratory of an "absolutely clean" H-bomb:

"Now, it looks as though Teller has had another brainstorm."

Los Angeles—Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi, on the threat of International Communism in Asia:

"Let me say that as long as I am at the head of the Japanese government... we will never side with totalitarianism. We will always be on the side of the free world."

New York—Evangelist Billy Graham on God's memory:

"Every wrong thing you do, every lie you tell, every one of your immoral acts you pay for. God will dig it out. You can cover the tracks of your sins, but God can trace them better than a blood hound."

Washington—Brooklyn Dodger President Walter O'Malley, denying he had asked anyone to build a new stadium for his baseball team:

"I don't want to be a tenant in a political ball park."

Koenig, Japan—Haru (Candy) Suevama, on her impending marriage to Army Specialist 3C William S. Girard:

"I don't ask for luxuries. I don't need a car. A bicycle is enough. I'll work like a maid to make Bill happy."

London—Radio Moscow, criticizing President Eisenhower's speech to the Governor's Conference at Williamsburg, Va., Wednesday:

"He clearly implies that the United States is ready for anything, including war, in an attempt to liberate the countries of Eastern Europe. To say the least that is an unreasonable policy which can end very sadly for its instigators."

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

Film and television producers are constantly subjected to the criticism that they produce too many sordid dramas dealing with crime, drug addiction and alcoholism. Perhaps they do. However, let us not be too hard on them. Consider the productions of the so-called "legitimate stage."

Eugene O'Neill's play "Long Day's Journey Into Night" was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for being "the best American drama" of the year. This play deals with the family life of a drug addict and three alcoholics.

Horses and Women

Does your wife feature a long or short hair-do style? Don't answer me. It is none of my business. However, it is definitely yours and deserves your close attention. Short hair-do styles are much more expensive to maintain than long ones. It naturally follows that the popularizing of short hair-do styles greatly increases the incomes of hairdressers. And there hangs a tale. The Paris hairdressers were major factors in popularizing the short hair fashion. It meant so much to them financially that they threatened to expel from their association any hairdresser who attempted to popularize long hair-do style.

Asking

Queries from clients. Q. Under what sign was the thoroughbred Swaps born? Do you believe astrology can be successfully used in race handicapping? A. Swaps was born under Pisces.

His birthday is March 1. Personally I have no faith in astrology as a handicapping medium. However, the distinguished stargazer, Evangeline, was born under a sign that was compatible with that of the horse.

Q. What is the name of the herb that can be used to keep away flies and mosquitoes? A. Paris restaurant owners are said to successfully use the herb called basil in potted form for that purpose. A pot of basil is placed on each table.

Please Note

Have you a son who was prematurely born? Don't be worried about the child's future. Many great men were ushered into the world that way. One of these is Dr. Bela Shick, the internationally celebrated pediatrician. Dr. Shick is now 80 years old, feels fine and is very active in his profession.

Among the Married

In Tennessee a Senator proposed a bill permitting polygamy in that state. He said he felt such legislation was necessary because of the surplus of women in that state. Also that it was not right that so many women should be denied the joys of married life and motherhood. That he believed many women would rather have a half or a

Around Hollywood

By ALINE MOSBY

Hollywood—The makeup advisor to the Queen of England has this to say about most Hollywood beauties: They are too busy brash and blonde.

Naturally, the poised Australian-born Thelma Holland is partial to the type of woman as indicated by her attachment to Queen Elizabeth.

So Mrs. Holland believes the best coiffed and powdered Hollywood females are the elegant types such as Deborah Kerr, Kay Kendall, Audrey Hepburn, Loretta Young, Joan Fontaine and that expatriate in another palace, Grace Kelly.

Mrs. Holland raises her eyebrows at the mention of this town's famous blondes such as Jayne Mansfield, Kim Novak and Mamie Van Doren.

True Beauty Defined

"Oh, yes, we have one of those, too—Diana Dors," she said dryly.

"Beauty must be well defined—but equally refined. Beauty is something that doesn't offend you. To see too much bosom is offending."

"Most of the women I've seen out here wear too much make-up—and false eyelashes in the daytime," she added. "They also color their hair too much. So many blondes, and that orange shade looks unnatural."

News About Books

The Gold Hill community library is being redecorated this week. The city council of Gold Hill, with Mayor E. H. Cooper, has appropriated funds and initiated a project intended to provide readers of the community with a more attractive library room.

Painting and repairing are being done by Floyd Taylor and his son, and Ferd Jones is in charge of the project.

While the Jackson County Library furnishes books and supplies and contributes towards the librarian's salary in each of its community agencies, each town is responsible for housing, heating, and lighting the library. In many instances community groups undertake the furnishing of the library rooms or contribute in some way to their decoration. Any individuals or groups wishing to volunteer funds or services towards furnishings or draperies for the Gold Hill library are invited to consult Mrs. Jewel Routh, Gold Hill librarian.

May Obtain Books

During the week of renovation readers may obtain books during the usual library hours by going to the council room in the library building.

Under the direction of Mayor F. E. Christian the library room in the Talent Community center has been painted and decorated. A separate library room is now being constructed in a new wing of the building.

A library room is also planned in the new community hall being erected at Butte Falls.

Brewster To Appeal Contempt Conviction

San Diego—Frank Brewster, chairman of the Western Conference of Teamsters, said today "I won't be satisfied with even a $1 fine" in planning to appeal his conviction in a federal court on 31 counts of contempt.

Brewster learned Wednesday that he was convicted as he was presiding over the conference's 21st convention here. The chairman immediately huddled with international vice presidents in a secret meeting.

Later, International Vice President Einar Mohn said the conviction made no difference in Brewster's status in the union because of the announced plans to appeal the conviction.

The convention today was scheduled to hold the second of three general sessions during the week-long meeting. The first general session Monday resulted in the reappointment of Brewster as chairman.

CUSTOM CUTTING AND WRAPPING

You buy a refrigerator only two or three times in your lifetime.

Yet you don't hesitate to buy one without getting so much as a look at the intricate "works" that makes it run.

How do you dare make such an important purchase without having an expert check it over for you? What makes you so sure you're getting your money's worth when you say, "I'll take that one?"

The answer's obvious. You look for the brand name on the refrigerator—your "guarantee." You've learned to follow this first rule of safe and sound buying:

A good brand is your best guarantee

No matter what kind of product you want to buy, you know a good brand won't let you down. You know the maker stands back of it—guarantees it. And so, when you buy a good brand you know you're right.

Read this newspaper to find out which are the good brands (and the stores that sell them.) The more good brands you know, the surer you are about all your shopping.
