Missiles Believed Of Redstone Type

Cape Canaveral, Fla. — The sound and speed of two missiles fired from the Air Force's launching site here led observers today to believe they were of the Redstone type.

The earth shook and smoke trails marked the sky Wednesday as the rockets headed out over the Atlantic, about seven hours apart. The missiles themselves were out of sight before residents of the area heard their roar.

The Air Force at nearby Patrick Air Force Base declined to identify the missiles.

It is known, however, that both the Redstone and Jupiter are available for testing at the center, and from descriptions given by those who heard the noise and saw the smoke, officials at Redstone have indicated they probably were not Jupiters.

Grange Notes

Phoenix Grange
 Phoenix Grange met for a potluck supper at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 25. On the serving committee were Mr. and Mrs. Willis House, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis, Mrs. Marian Riegle and Harry Reams.

Following the supper a program arranged by HEC chairman Carol Schroeder was presented each man was given a boutonniere by Flora, Mrs. S. A. Cox in honor of Father's Day.

Robert Hunter gave two cornet selections accompanied on the piano by his sister Miss Joyce Hunter. Miss Hunter then played two piano selections. Mrs. Schroeder gave a reading and a poem appropriate for Father's Day. Then she asked the men present to each tell something of their father. Some memory of them which they could recall and cherished. Some very interesting memories were revived.

Mrs. Bernice Jenosky had a large display of interesting and unusual articles, such as paintings, carvings and some antiques which had been handed down from one generation to another.

Following the program Grange was called to order by Master Dee Hendrickson.

Mrs. Velda Mang, master of Central Point Grange was escorted to the Masters station. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Conger were also visitors from Central Point Grange and each spoke briefly.

A letter of thanks to the Grange, from Evelyn Neidermyer who is attending 4-H summer school at Corvallis, was read by Secretary Lesbia Lattie.

Our musician, Mrs. George Hartley, was reported ill. Mrs. Vaughn Luackenbush substituted for her.

Master Hendrickson gave his report on Oregon State Grange convention which he and Mrs. Hendrickson attended June 10 to June 14.

There was considerable discussion on the proposed referendum, which State Grange endorsed, concerning House Bill 163, known as the School Consolidation law.

Final plans were made concerning the Phoenix Festival to be held Saturday, June 29. Several members of the Grange are also members of the Community club. The festival is an annual event.

Phoenix Grange will serve hot and cold lunches at the Community Hall all during the event.

Graham Declares Crusade Garden's Top Attraction

New York — Billy Graham said Wednesday night that his crusade to save New York had outlasted and outdrawn any other attraction in the 30-year history of Madison Square Garden.

The evangelist said that the Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus had run 40 days in the Garden, but his crusade had already lasted 43 days, and still has until July 29 to go.

More than 739,000 persons have flocked to hear Graham's fiery sermons in the huge sports arena. Except for a week-long slump attributed to a heat wave, the Garden has been filled to near capacity and beyond most nights.

Record May Be Short

John Goldner, a Garden official, told the United Press, however, that the New York Crusade record may be a little short of the circus's, for the circus usually presents two performances a day, or 80 in all.

Goldner explained that the Garden seats 15,000 when the circus is there, 18,500 for the New York Crusade. Some circus performances have drawn as few as 3,000 customers, he said, but the majority have sold out.

He said he would have to make an exhaustive check of his records to determine whether the circus had outdrawn Graham, or vice versa.

"It's probably just about a toss-up," Goldner said.

Boys Missing on Mt. Shasta Found

Mount Shasta, Calif. — Two Salinas, Calif., brothers were lost all night on the slopes of Mt. Shasta but walked out at 7:30 a.m. today exhausted and hungry but otherwise in good condition.

A forest ranger commented that Ronald Thompson, 10, and Kenneth Thompson, 15, "were smart boys. They walked downhill in the general direction of the town of Mt. Shasta. Fortunately the temperatures were unusually warm."

The boys and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Thompson, were vacationing in the area. Wednesday afternoon they set out to walk from Sand Flat to Sierra lodge at timberline. The boys, walking ahead, were last seen at 4 p.m. and an alarm was issued for volunteers. More than 50 men searched throughout the night and two planes joined the hunt at daybreak.

The boys reached Everett highway and met a construction flagman on his way to work.

'Williamson Gang' May Be in Area

The "Williamson Gang" of itinerant peddlers may be coming toward Medford from the northern part of the state, according to Don McNeil, manager of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the group have victimized persons in communities throughout the nation in rackets which include sale of fake "imported" woolsens, spray-painting of houses and barns, and installation of lightning rods, according to Better Business bureau reports.

An article about the group, entitled "The Terrible Williamsons" by John Kobler, recently appeared in Saturday Evening Post, and is due to run in a condensed form in the Reader's Digest.

McNeil suggested that local residents protect themselves against fake peddlers by avoiding vendors who give unusual personal reasons for bargains, have a low price because goods are illicit, offer "secret hurry-up deals," and sell mainly by sympathy appeal.

Lewis and Clark Highway Urged

Williamsburg, Va. — Governors of six states Wednesday urged an early hearing on a resolution which would authorize designation and construction of the Lewis-Clark highway.

An appeal for a hearing on the proposal at the earliest convenient time was made in a telegram to Sen. James Murray, chairman of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. The wire was signed by the governors of Oregon, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Idaho and Washington.

The resolution urging the designation and construction of the highway was introduced in Congress by Sen. Warren Magnuson (D-Wash.).

The highway would link the Pacific Northwest with the Midwest and is being built along the route taken by explorers Lewis and Clark in 1805.

The governors pointed out that the early construction of additional highway capacity through the northwestern states is of urgent importance to the national defense.

Two City Policemen Attend Conference

Lt. Rollie Pean and Sgt. Raymond Seely of the Medford police department became new members of the Oregon Association for Police Identification Saturday. Both officers attended a business meeting of the association in Springfield.

They reported that the 1958 meeting of the association will be held in May of next year in Medford, in conjunction with the Western States Crime conference.

Sgt. Seely was appointed to the committee which will plan next year's meeting. Some 15 law enforcement agencies were represented at the Springfield meeting. The association is composed of police personnel involved in fingerprinting, crime scene investigation, and other identification work.

Enrollment in Y Swimming Classes Still Increasing

Enrollments in YMCA swim classes have been unusually large this summer and are still increasing, YMCA officials have reported.

Many classes are being taught for all ages and emphasis is being placed on classes for youngsters under 15 years of age. Boys and girls 6 to 8 years of age are now half way through their first tiny tot swim classes.

The first tiny tot-parent demonstration was held Monday night, with 25 guests and 13 tiny tots taking part. The various instructional classes include tadpole, flounder, minnow, fish, flying fish and shark. Swimming ability of the child determines his class placement. Tadpoles are those who are just beginning to learn to swim, and shark is the most advanced except for junior and senior life saving.

Instructors for this year's classes are Jan Stevens, assistant; Dan Day, volunteer; Lanell Wilkes, volunteer; Salley Kupillas, volunteer; Ed Coyle, life guard; and Gordon Williams, physical director.

Present enrollments for swim classes are tiny tot, 85; tiny tot-parent demonstration, 40; boys tadpole, 21; girls tadpole, 40; boys flounder, 20; girls flounder,

17; boys minnow, 10; girls minnow, 22; boys advanced, 16; girls advanced, 10; men's beginning swim, 9; women's beginning swim, 18; women's advanced swim, 10; women's member swim, 25; diving class, 16; boys play swim (ages 9-12), 80; boys play swim (ages 13-15), 10; girls play swim (ages 9-12), 35; men noon swim, 10; family night, 75; all members, 150; boys and girls (ages 9-12), 25.

REALLY GOOD! Like home made

Will the door be open?

Let's hope so!

When your bright young son is 18, let's hope he's welcomed by the college of his choice. Let's hope his four years there are truly golden years, that he graduates cum laude, and makes his mark on the world he's now prepared to enter. Let's hope life treats him to the very best.

Sure, let's hope. But let's also face facts. The pressure of college applications is mounting fast. It's expected to double by 1967. Our colleges and universities are doing their best, but they are hampered by lack of funds. Not only expanded facilities are needed, but more and better-paid professors and instructors to maintain high scholastic standards.

Unless something is done about it, your intelligent young son may not get into any college. For the sake of your children and the future of our country, help the colleges and universities of your choice—now!

If you want to know what the college crisis means to you, write for a free booklet to: HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, New York.
