Rice-Sherwood Ceremony Read in Seattle Church

The University Presbyterian church in Seattle was the setting Saturday, June 22, for the wedding of Miss Mary Edith Rice and Duane Rankin Sherwood. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rice of Bellevue, Wash. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Sherwood, 1020 Jasper avenue, Medford.

Dr. L. David Cowie officiated at the eight o'clock evening candlelight ceremony. Pink carnations, white gladioli and stock, and pink candles decorated the church for the wedding.

The bride wore a floor length gown of ivory nylon tulle over taffeta fashioned with Italian guipure outlining the portrait neckline and the waist. Her double tulle veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried a lace handkerchief loaned by her mother. The veil had formerly been worn by Mrs. Richard Gray. She carried a colonial bouquet of gladioli, lilies-of-the-valley, white roses, and Stephanotis.

Mrs. John Fiedler was honor attendant for her sister. Other attendants were Mrs. Richard Gray and Miss Sue Baker. They wore identical frocks in pale blue tulle trimmed with lace and carried colonial bouquets of pink and white roses and carnations with matching headpieces.

Little Mary Susan Fiedler, niece and god-child of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink nylon dotted Swiss frock and carried pink rosebuds. Candelighters were Miss Marilyn Meyers and Mrs. Lloyd Larson.

Terry Sherwood served as best man for his brother, John Fiedler. Robert Hays, Jack Hemingway, and Philip Sweet seated the guests.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church reception room. Assisting were Mrs. W. W. Scott, aunt of the bride, Mrs. M. A. Whitman, Mrs. R. G. Gardner, Mrs. R. E. Bollinger, Mrs. S. D. Bradner, Mrs. L. A. Sanderman, Mrs. V. M. Meyers, Mrs. Philip Largent, Miss Mary Bollinger, Miss Marcia Emerson, Miss Helen McKown, Miss Pat Fortin, Miss Sonja Kjaer, and Miss Sandra Lord.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rice wore a nut brown silk sheath dress with rose accessories. Mrs. Sherwood chose a beige lace dress with pink accessories.

The couple will make their home at 1141 Northeast Klickitat, Portland, following a wedding trip to the coast. For her traveling attire the bride chose a blue and white checked suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Whitworth college, Spokane, and is now teaching in the Prescott schools near Portland. While in college she was president of her dormitory and a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. The bridegroom is a pharmacy graduate of Idaho State college. He was treasurer of Rho Chi, pharmacy honorary fraternity.

Local Woman At Wedding Of Grandson

Mrs. Eugene G. Goff, 30 Cottage avenue, Medford, and her grandson, Ronald Bradford, also of Medford, returned Tuesday from San Francisco where they attended the wedding of Miss Kay Pomposo and Terry Goff, both of San Francisco. The bridegroom is a grandson of Mrs. Goff.

The wedding was held Sunday, June 23, at two o'clock in the afternoon at St. Peter and Paul's Catholic church in San Francisco. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pomposo and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goff.

For the wedding the bride wore a white lace and nylon tulle gown with fingertip length veil and carried a bouquet of white and purple orchids.

The bride's attendants wore frocks of lavender and yellow.

For the wedding Mrs. Goff wore a light blue suit with white accessories and lavender orchid corsage. The bride's mother chose a pink lace sheath while the mother of the bridegroom wore a beige and orange print dress with matching duster and beige hat. They wore orchid corsages.

Following the wedding a reception was held.

The newlywed couple left for a wedding trip to Carmel and Disneyland and will make their home in San Francisco where the bridegroom is employed at Soule Steel company.

Pepper-Hayes Rites Read In Nevada

Central Point — Miss Jackie Pepper of Central Point became the bride of Harry Hayes, Glendale, Ore., in a ceremony held Friday, June 21, at Gardendale, Nevada. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ivan Penland of Central Point, and Larry Pepper of Central Point. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hayes, Shedd.

For her wedding Miss Pepper wore a pale blue nylon dress fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her accessories were white.

Following the wedding the newlywed couple spent their honeymoon at Yosemite National park and visited other points in California and Nevada. They are making their home in Glendale.

Prior to the wedding a miscellaneous shower was given the bride-elect by her sister, Mrs. Howard Hooker of Medford. Seventeen guests attended.
