Coleman-McGuire Wedding Held at Presbyterian Church

First Presbyterian church was the setting Friday, June 21, for the eight o'clock evening wedding of Miss Carolyn Mora Coleman and Richard Leon McGuire. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Coleman, 1115 East Eleventh street, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McGuire of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the double ring rites attended by 150 friends and relatives. Yellow gladioli and greenery decorated the church. Mrs. Charles Champlin was soloist and Miss Priscilla West played the traditional organ wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white organdy frock styled with shirred bodice and long sleeves. Small ruffles fell the length of the full skirt and her fingertip length veil was held by a band of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis encircling a white orchid. Her single strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom. The wedding dress was first worn by the sister of the bride, Mrs. Neil Arant.

Mrs. Arant was matron of honor for her sister and wore a pale yellow silk organdy frock styled on princess lines. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow Ester Reed daisies and her headband was of matching flowers.

Miss Nancy Thomas of Reno, Nevada, cousin of the bride, and Miss Joyce McGuire of Colorado Springs, sister of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. They wore dresses identical to the honor attendant with headbands of Ester Reed daisies and wristlets of daisies.

Dean McGuire served as best man for his brother while Jim Grey, Neil Arant, Grants Pass, John Chatalas, Seattle, Wash., and Spencer Marsh Jr. of Portland, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Coleman wore a slate blue lace dress over pink taffeta. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. McGuire chose a pink shantung sheath dress and her corsage was of white carnations.
