

Mr. and Mrs. Cloe M. Lee
(Birchfield photo)

Couple Wed In Medford Home Rites

Miss Dorothy Jo Anne Christian, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Joe Christian, 1135 Lozier lane, Medford, became the bride of Cloe M. Lee, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lee of Klamath Falls in a ceremony held at the home of the bride's parents Friday, June 14. The Rev. Richard M. Jones of Eastwood Baptist church officiated at the double ring rites held at eight o'clock in the evening.

For her wedding the bride wore a white cotton lace frock with full skirt. She wore a white lace hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Doris Christian attended her sister. She wore a pink nylon frock with flowered head-dress and carried pink carnations. William A. Lee served as best man for his brother.

Red roses and ferns decorated the mantelpiece in the living room of the Christian home for the ceremony.

Following the wedding a reception was held.

The newlywed couple are making their home at 518 South Oakdale avenue, apartment 1. Medford, after a wedding trip to the Oregon coast.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Christian wore an orange and brown print silk dress with white accessories. Mrs. Lee chose a navy blue dress with matching accessories. They both wore white carnation corsages.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and was employed at Christian's Market. The bridegroom attended Lakeview schools and is employed as a carrier driver for Daugherty Lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Chez
(Smith-Hawaii photo)

Stanford Memorial Church Setting of Stith-Chez Rites

Miss Jonita Stith became the bride of Fred E. Chez in a ceremony held Tuesday, June 18, at four o'clock in the afternoon at the Stanford Memorial church, Stanford, Calif. The Rev. C. R. Minto officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stith, Muskogee, Okla. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Chez, 812 Palm street, Medford.

The bride wore a gown of white Belgium embroidery over white taffeta belted with wide white ribbon. A braided satin bandeau trimmed with clusters of orange blossoms held her four tiered illusion veil. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow roses, carnations, stephanotis, and a white orchid.

The bride's veil was first worn by Mrs. Joe Chez of Sacramento, Calif., sister-in-law of the bridegroom. The pearl pin the bride wore was loaned by Mrs. Joseph C. Chez, grandmother of the bridegroom of Medford, which had been worn on her wedding day 57 years ago.

Mr. Chez, father of the bridegroom, escorted the bride to the altar.

Mrs. John Embach of Tempe, Ariz., was matron of honor. She wore a yellow organza frock with blue accessories and carried yellow roses, white carnations, and bachelor buttons. She had matching flowers in her hair.

Joe M. Chez of Sacramento served as best man for his brother, Mike G. Zineck, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

For the wedding Mrs. Chez wore a pink cotton frock with white accessories and white orchid corsage.

Large baskets of white flowers and lighted candles decorated the church. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. John Embach in Menlo Park, Calif.

Candles, lilies-of-the-valley, white stock, and carnations, decorated the table which held the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. R. S. Carrothers, Oakland, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Joe M. Chez, Sacramento, was in charge of the guest book.

Later that day a wedding supper was served at The Old Plantation in Palo Alto, Calif.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Santa Cruz, Calif., and Muskogee, Okla. The bride chose for her traveling attire a blue linen dress with jewelry that was a gift of the bridegroom. The couple will visit the bride's parents in Oklahoma. They were unable to attend the ceremony due to illness.

The bride is a graduate of Northwestern university and studied at Oxford, England. She is now doing graduate work in music at Stanford university. She is a member of the Stanford orchestra and chorale. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school and received both his bachelor's and master's degree in education from Stanford university. He served in the United States Army in Germany as a photographer. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary education fraternity, and Theta Chi, social fraternity. The couple plan to make their home in San Jose, Calif., where Mr. Chez will teach at Andrew Hill

Picnic Luncheon
Central Point—The Central Point Royal Neighbors will meet for a picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Sanford Richardson, Route 2, Table Rock road, at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 2.

High school.
Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Mary Ashton, grandmother, Mrs. A. S. Macbeth, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Carroll, Mrs. R. S. Carrothers, Roy Shirk, all of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chez, Sacramento; Mrs. R. W. Carrothers, Concord, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Chez, Medford, all relatives of the bridegroom.

Single Ring Rites Held At Friends Church

Central Point—Miss Beverly Maxine Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bowman, Jacksonville, became the bride of Richard F. Hopkins of 312 Maple street, Central Point, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hopkins, in a ceremony held Saturday, June 22 at the Medford Friends church. Mr. Clynton Crisman officiated at the single ring ceremony held at eight o'clock in the evening.

White and pink flowers decorated the church for the wedding and Mrs. Crisman played the traditional wedding music. Forty relatives and friends attended the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pale grey suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Miss Marie Swearinger was maid of honor. She wore a blue suit with white carnation corsage.

Loren Pryor served as best man and David McGee seated the guests.

Following the wedding a reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. William McGee at their home at 312 Maple street, Central Point. Mrs. Raymond Broad cut and served the wedding cake baked by Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Otto Caster and Mrs. William Smith assisted in the serving.

The bride is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and is employed as a stenographer for the Chris Barker agency. She has been making her home at 15 Amy street. The bridegroom attended Central Point school and is an aviation structural mechanic second class in the United States Navy.

The couple are now at home in Central Point. The bridegroom will report for duty at the Naval Air Training Center, Memphis, Tenn., July 3. The bride plans to join her husband in the near future.

Local Beauticians Attend Showing

Mrs. Maxine Hammond and Mrs. Geri Byrd, Medford members of the Oregon Beauticians association styling committee, are attending a preview of fall and winter hair fashions today in Corvallis.

At the meeting, Arthur W. Teters, Eugene, state styles director, will present a release on latest hair fashions sent by the official hair fashion committee with headquarters at the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists association in New York.

The Medford branch of the beauticians' association held a monthly work shop Monday with 17 guests and members in attendance. Hair styling films of Al Tate, top hair stylist from California, were shown.

A report was given on the dinner held recently by the group at Henry's Broiler where 15 members viewed a hair style executed and presented by Mrs. Hammond. Miss Mary Prom was the model.

Meeting Cancelled
The Royal Neighbors have cancelled their business meeting of July 4 and will hold a regular business meeting July 18.

Master Point Play Tuesday by Club

Members of the Medford Duplicate Bridge club will meet for the monthly master point tournament Tuesday.

At the last meeting, June 25, north-south scores were: Mrs. Frank Baker and Ben Marten, 86; Dr. Elliott Harlow and Al Gilhouse, 80½; George Polski and George Rode, 71½. East-west scores were: Mrs. Elliott Harlow and Mrs. Marrs Gibbons, 70; Mrs. Dolph Phipps and Dr. George Dean, 69½; Mrs. B. L. Sanderson and Jack Mitchell, 69.

To Meet

Roxy Ann Home Economics club will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the grange hall.

Christian Business Women Plan Picnic Monday in Ashland

Christian Business and Professional Women will have a covered-dish picnic for their regular monthly meeting Monday, July 1. Members and friends are asked to meet in Ashland park at 6:30 p.m. at the band shell.

Women from Ashland will be hostesses for the affair and provide the beverages. Each person is asked to bring her own service.

Anyone needing transportation to the picnic may call the chairman, Mrs. Eloise Winkler, SP 2-9718.

Mrs. Albert Gandt, of Medford, will be in charge of the devotional for the evening.

Silver Grill Cafe

413 East Main Street

Will Be

CLOSED ALL NEXT WEEK

For a Vacation!

Will Re-Open Monday, July 8th

Tiny Tot Swimming Demonstration To Be Held Monday at Y

Monday, July 1 at 8 p.m. at the YMCA there will be a tiny tot swimming demonstration of the Monday-Thursday 9 and 9:45 tiny tot swim sections. The demonstration will consist of explaining to the parents the steps and methods which the instructors at the YMCA use to teach the youngsters how to swim. This will be an opportunity for all parents to watch.

The instructors for the demonstration will be Jan Stevens and Gordon Williams, YMCA physical director. All parents and interested persons are invited to attend.

Dinner Planned For August by Group

Eagle Point—The Eagle Point Home Economics club tentatively planned a dinner the first Sunday in August, at its last meeting June 26. Mrs. Ray Ragdale and Mrs. Tom Vestal were co-hostesses for the 16 members present.

The HEC and the ways and means committee are to meet at the next regular Grange meeting July 2 to discuss and plan a menu for the August dinner. The club also discussed a family night project. Entertainment was furnished by the Goering sisters.

Sojourners Elect Officers At Picnic Meet

Mrs. Floyd Robertson was elected president of the Medford Sojourner's club Thursday at a picnic in Hawthorne park. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Jim Winslow, first vice-president; Mrs. O. J. Crenshaw, second vice-president; Mrs. Marvin Yost, secretary; and Mrs. Eugene Ingram, treasurer.

After a potluck picnic lunch 40 members and guests played cards during the afternoon with Mrs. Gerald vonTing sweepstake winner.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Robert Culbertson, Mrs. William Williams and members of the board.

The next meeting of the club will be at the Pythian hall, Thursday, July 11, when the installation of officers will take place. All newcomers to Medford and vicinity are invited to attend. Bridge, pinocle and canasta are played.

Meet Monday

Olive Rebekah lodge will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the IOOF hall. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. A. S. Walden, chairmen, Mrs. George Ware, Mrs. W. L. Walden, and Miss Bernice Wilson.

don't be a slave to your wave ...

Have our stylists design a carefree casual just for you! More time for summer fun and just relaxing ...

We pamper your purse too!
HAIRCUTS in the shape of beauty ...
from 1.50

Complete casual PERMANENTS
from 7.50

call SP 2-6434

Mann's beauty salon

for Your 2 Weeks with Play

Parker Wood's Leon's offer you a wide selection of smart ... highly styled vacation clothes ... And at "Budget Prices" too ... Everything to enjoy the Summer Sun and Fun awaits you in their lately remodeled sportswear department ... shop in air conditioned comfort for your vacation needs.

"Swim Suits"

- Cole
- Lee
- Hawaiian

6.95
to 19.95

"Blouses"

Macshore ... Fritz ...
Arnel ... and others ...
"loads" of new sleeveless styles.

2.49 to 3.95

Skirts

Smart ... practical imported linens ... or gaily
colored beautiful drip dry
Cotton Prints.

4.95 to 8.95

"Guild Mocs"

The fabulous ... flexible
... Soft Comfort Moc in four excellent colors ...

3.95

Washable Play Shoes 2.99

"T-Blouses"

To wear with Shorts ...
Pedal pushers or Bermudas
... Big new shipments
just arrived in time for holiday wear ...

- Smartee
- Jane Colby
- Irwill

1.99 to 3.98

Shorts and Jamaicas

Knits of all kinds ... sailcloth
... gabardines ... linens ...
seersuckers ...

2.99 to 6.98

Parker Wood's

LEON'S

21 N. Central

