Miss Bonnie Leeper Bride Of Jimmy Richard McAbee

Talent — An event of June 18, at the First Methodist church in Medford, was the wedding of Miss Bonnie Beatrice Leeper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Leeper, 202 West Main street, Talent, and Jimmy Richard McAbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McAbee, 106 West Main street, Talent.

Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb read the double-ring ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon with about 175 guests attending. Prelude music was furnished by Mrs. Jerry Sherman and soloist was Mrs. Clarence Holdridge.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown with fitted bodice styled with a sweetheart neckline of Alencon lace. The bouffant skirt was of tulle over satin with a shorter overskirt of Alencon lace. Her fingertip length veil was of tulle caught in a lace cap trimmed with sequins and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses encircled by stephanotis.

Mrs. Lee Metz, Oakland, Calif., was her sister's honor attendant. Her ballerina length frock was of orchid lace over taffeta fashioned with a scalloped neckline with fitted bodice and flowing skirt. Her dress and those worn by the bridesmaids were made by the bride's mother.

Mrs. Schuyler Hoopes, another sister of the bride from Brawley, Calif., and Miss Barbara McAbee, sister of the bridegroom, wore gowns of aquamarine and yellow styled similar to that worn by Mrs. Metz. All wore headbands and carried bouquets of Ester Reed daisies dyed to match their dresses.

Miss Jerita Leeper, niece of the bride, and Miss Karen Dorman, cousin of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. Their white nylon dresses were patterned in pink, and they also wore headpieces of pink Ester Reed daisies. Little Denise Nelson served as flower girl.

Best man was Dale Walter, and seating guests were Gordon Thoreson and Ray Weinhold. The ringbearer was Charles Reynolds, nephew of the bride. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Leeper chose a powder blue nylon dress with white accessories.

Clark - Hawley Wed in Phoenix Ceremony

Phoenix — First Presbyterian church, Phoenix, was the setting Saturday, June 22, for the seven o'clock evening wedding of Miss Donna Lee Clark to Ernest Ross Hawley. The Rev. Ernest Volkman officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Margaret Jones, 1469 Pacific road, Medford, and George E. Clark, Barnett road, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Edna Hawley of Eureka, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white nylon over taffeta ballerina length frock with pink sweet-pea corsage. She carried matching sweetpeas and white carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Jo Ann McDowell, cousin of the bride from Canyonville, was maid of honor. She wore a pale green nylon frock with lavender sweetpea corsage. Baxter Forester, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Eureka, served as best man.

White Ester Reed daisies and pink roses decorated the church. Miss Radine Chishom played the traditional organ wedding music.

A reception was held following the wedding at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. O. Gibbs cut and served the wedding cake using an antique silver server donated by Mrs. Harry Wilson. Mrs. James McDowell, aunt of the bride, served coffee and Mrs. Lillian Lowery served the punch.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Jones wore a pale pink dress with white accessories. Mrs. Edna Hawley also wore a pink frock and they both had pink and white sweetpea corsages. Mrs. Clark, stepmother of the bride, wore a pale lavender dress with white accessories and lavender sweetpea corsage.

The newlywed couple left Sunday for Long Beach, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed at Bethlehem ship yards.

Greg Milnes Receives Award

Greg Milnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Milnes, 15 North Groveland avenue, was presented the Bill Schei award Wednesday during DeMolay installation ceremonies at the Medford Masonic temple.

The Schei award is given each year to an outstanding member of DeMolay in recognition of achievements in school, church, civic and club activities.

Glen Fabrick, DeMolay dad adviser, presented the award and explained its history.

Milnes was cited for school activities, in which he was a winner and finalist in speech tournaments, was selected for the All-Northwest choir and all-state band, was given lead parts in school plays and operettas and was elected an officer in several school clubs.

His church activities included being a member of St. Mark's Episcopal church and an acolyte for four years, and being worship leader for the Medford interdenominational youth service organization.

Milnes was the first Jackson county chairman of the March of Dimes "Teens against Polio" drive and has been narrator for civic programs on radio and television. He has held the DeMolay office of senior deacon during the past year.

He will enter Willamette university as a freshman in pre-law. He was awarded a scholarship to the university by Elk Lumber company earlier this year.

Colley - Bean Wedding Held in Medford Church

Prospect — Miss Mary Sue Colley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Colley, Prospect, became the bride of Charles Darwin Bean, a son of Mrs. Marion Bessler, 1913 Hazel street, Medford, and Charles Bean, Prospect, in a ceremony held Thursday, June 20, at the West Main Church of Christ, Medford.

The Rev. John York officiated at the double ring ceremony held at seven o'clock in the evening. Gladiolus and Ester Reed daisies decorated the church for the wedding and the church choir sang.

The bride wore a white satin gown styled on princess lines with the skirt ending in a train. Her veil, edged with lace, fell from a crown and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a bible. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Jack Rienks was honor attendant for her sister, Miss Donna Clark and Mrs. Ron Couser of Eagle Point were the other attendants. Mrs. Rienks wore a yellow ballerina length frock and carried a cascade bouquet of blue, Ester Reed daisies. The other attendants were in blue ballerina length frocks and carried yellow Ester Reed daisies. They had matching headbands.

Little Florence Tate of Central Point was flower girl. She wore a yellow dotted Swiss frock.

Robin Hedgpeth served as best man while Tom and William Colley, brothers of the bride, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held, attended by 150 guests.

The newlywed couple will make their home in Sacramento, Calif. For her traveling attire the bride wore an aquamarine sheath dress with matching duster and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Prospect High school and was employed by Mrs. Emery Nye. The bridegroom is a graduate of Prospect High school and is an airman in the United States Air Force.

Members of Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose plan a family potluck dinner for Wednesday. Ladies will bring a dish and the lodge will serve a meat course.

Tired of trying to concoct new salads? Serve a big bowl of crisp relishes instead. Carrot sticks, radishes, celery, green pepper strips, tiny whole tomatoes and shiny ripe olives make mighty good eating. Arrange in bowl of crushed ice, like a bouquet. They'll stay crisp in hottest weather.
