Bonner-Hansen Wedding Held At First Church of the Nazarene

Two former Medford residents were married Friday, June 14, in the First Church of the Nazarene, Medford. Miss Darlene Bonner, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Bonner, Klamath Falls, became the bride of Robert Hansen, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hansen, Eureka, Calif., in a double ring ceremony held at eight o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Raymond Hurn officiated.

Baskets of stock and pink carnations decorated the church. Mrs. Roy Johnson, aunt of the bridegroom from Battleground, Wash., played the traditional organ wedding music and accompanied Robert Hughes of Seattle, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white tulle and tulle lace gown with full skirt terminating in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil was held by a pearl and rhinestone tiara and her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a single white orchid encircled by pink carnations.

Miss Marie Johnson was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Ray, Tacoma, Wash., cousin of the bride, and Miss Charlene Bohl, Miss Johnson were a mint green ballerina length frock while the bridesmaids were in pink frocks. They all carried white carnations.

Little Karen von Stein, Central Point, was flower girl, and Clyde Sobie, Eagle Point, was ring bearer. Candelights were Jackson Phillips and William Barnes, cousin of the bridegroom, Phoenix, Ariz.

Robert Hughes, Seattle, served as best man. Richard Hansen, Eureka, Calif., brother of the bridegroom, Darrell Johnson, Battleground, Wash., cousin of the bridegroom, Warren Cole, Wayne Larson, and Walter Peterson, seated the guests.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the church annex attended by 150 guests. Mrs. Al Larson, assisted by Mrs. Joe Johnson, cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Carol Harris, Mrs. Guy Garriott, Tacoma, Wash., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Clyde Barnes, Phoenix, Ariz., aunt of the bridegroom, poured the coffee and punch. Miss Ruth Phillips was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bonner wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Hansen chose a dress of rose lace with white accessories. They both wore white orchid corsages.

The newlywed couple are making their home in Eureka, Calif., after a wedding trip to Canada. For her traveling attire the bride wore a pink frock with navy blue duster and white accessories.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school and are students at Northwest Nazarene college, Nampa, Idaho.

Garden Club Hears History of Kettle At Monthly Meet

Gold Hill — Mrs. Effie Birdseye was guest speaker at the last meeting of the Gold Hill Garden club, when the group held its annual potluck picnic at the home of Mrs. E. E. Gregory on Pacific highway 99 North, June 21.

Following the business session, Mrs. Birdseye presented the history of a hand turned brass kettle that she had brought with her to show at this time. She told how the kettle was brought to Portland from the east in the year 1852 by her grandmother, then to Gold Hill in 1854. A few of its uses during the past 100 years has been for making pickles, cooking preserves and milk pail. The kettle, which is bright and new looking, is kept in the living room along side the old Chickering piano in the historic Birdseye home, north of Gold Hill.

Mrs. Gregory was host to nine members and eight visitors. This was the last meeting until September.
