

ILLINOIS VALLEY Fire Destroys Amer Garage

By HELEN BOTTEL
Cave Junction — Fire totally destroyed a garage on the Frank Amer property at Deer Creek last week.
The blaze started when a grass fire, set by Amer under state forestry department permit, went out of control.
Although the garage and most of the equipment stored in it was burned, Amer's two houses on each side of the structure were saved by the Illinois Valley Rural Fire department.

The new community picnic grounds on the old Stage road near Cave Junction will get its summer face-lifting Tuesday when members of the Lions club will meet there for a clean-up detail.
Picnic tables and toilet facilities were constructed for the park last year by the County Road department. The ground was donated for public use by Josephine county. Future plans include the digging of a well near the picnic area.
