Lew Hoad Reportedly Will Turn Pro; Cardinals Take Over First Place in NL

Sum Biggest Ever Offered An Amateur

New York—(AP)—Lew Hoad, Australia's husky blond bomber of the tennis courts, will turn professional next week for the biggest guarantee ever offered an amateur in any sport, it was learned authoritatively Saturday night.

Twenty-two-year-old Hoad, the world's foremost amateur who won the Wimbledon singles championship Friday for the second straight time, will receive a guarantee ranging between $120,000 and $130,000 from promoter Jack Kramer. When reached by telephone last night at Forest Hills, N.Y., Kramer refused to discuss the Hoad situation.

However, Ted Schroeder — Kramer's friend and associate— did admit receiving a trans-Atlantic phone call Saturday from Hoad.

Schroeder said, "Lew asked me where Jack was and if he was still interested in him — hadn't heard from him since last April. I said, 'Lew, you're in luck. Jack's in town—just flew in from South America, and he's very much interested in you. You get right on a plane and come over here.'"

Whether Hoad would take the plane, Schroeder wasn't sure.

But an authoritative source was positive the Aussie ace would be in New York early next week to turn professional, despite Hoad's insistence at Wimbledon that he expected to remain an amateur "at least the rest of the year."

Our source recalled also that after the Kramer-Hoad negotiations at Los Angeles in April, Kramer was quoted as having admitted offering Lew a guarantee of $125,000.

A guarantee of more than $120,000 will be the largest ever given an amateur in any sport to turn professional. It will exceed the $119,000 reportedly guaranteed on June 1 to 18-year-old Robert Dale Taylor of Metropolis, Ill., to sign with the Milwaukee Braves as a catcher. That is the baseball record.

Cary's Practice Not Sufficient

St. Andrews, Scotland — (AP) — Bobby Locke of South Africa, who won, and Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, who finished 14th, agreed Saturday on one thing about the British Open golf championship.

Middlecoff didn't get in enough practice licks on the tough old seaside course known as the "cradle of golf."

Be-knickered Bobby, who could afford to be generous after pocketing $2,800 for his fourth British Open victory with a record-tieing 279, said he was surprised Middlecoff hadn't done better but pointed out "he simply didn't allow himself enough time to get acquainted with the course."

To that, Dr. Cary added, "Amen."

Seals Get 4th Straight Win Over Bevos, 9-2

San Francisco —(AP)— Every man in the San Francisco lineup collected at least one hit Saturday as the Seals battered Portland into submission 9-2, in a Pacific Coast League game.

It was San Francisco's fourth straight win over the Beavers.

Harry Malmberg, Tom Umphlett and Grady Matton came through with the heaviest bats in the contest, wiping out an early two-run lead posted by Portland.

Umphlett slammed out a bases empty homer in the fourth. Malmbert tied it up in the fifth with a single that brought home Haywood Sullivan. And lated in the same frame Hatton banged out a single on a 3-2 pitch that brought in three more runners.

Loser Dick Marlowe (1-4) who went the route, hit the only RBI racked by the Beavers. He batted in Bob Borkowski and Ed Winceniak on a single in the second that put Portland ahead.

But after the fifth it was all San Francisco with the Seals colecting two runs each in the sixth and seventh frames to ice the game.

Harry Dorish collected the win, his eighth in 14 starts.

Hollywood —(AP)— The Hollywood Stars collected 14 hits Saturday, including a grand slam homer by Leo Rodriguez, to dump the San Diego Padres, 12 to 3, in a Pacific Coast league game at Gilmore field.

Bennie Daniels went the distance for the Stars, allowing only six hits for his fifth mound victory in a row and his 11th this season against two losses. The 11 wins put him in a tie with Leo Kiely of San Francisco for the most pitching victories this year. The loss went against Ed Gasque (5-4), first of two San Diego pitchers.

The series is tied at two wins apiece.

Tennis Program Set at EP

Eagle Point — A tennis program for teenagers, young adults and adults will be started at 6:30 p.m. Monday, at the Eagle Point High school tennis courts, according to Vern Bonebrake, high school athletic coach.

Bonebrake said the program will be broken down into two competitive divisions, for those under 18 years of age and those over. The coach said anyone can participate in the program, whether or not they are beginners.

Duration of the tennis program will depend on how many turn out for it, Bonebrake said. Instruction will be provided for beginners.

Musial Fourth In Extra-Basers

Chicago — (AP) — Stan Musial has passed another milestone on the road to baseball's Hall of Fame—he now stands fourth in the all-time list of extra-base hits.

Only Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth and Louh Gehrig have more extra-base blows to their credit than the Cardinals' "Stan the Man." Musial passed Tris Speaker on the list Thursday when he hit a home run in the first game of a twin bill against the Cubs, the 1,133rd extra base hit of his career.

Musial Leads Card Attack, Yankees Win

By UNITED PRESS

Ken Boyer drove in four runs and Stan Musial knocked in three as he passed another milestone on the road to the Hall of Fame Saturday to spark the St. Louis Cardinals to a 13-3 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The loss dropped the Redlegs into third place, one and a half games behind the Cardinals and two percentage points behind the Milwaukee Braves who played the Chicago Cubs in a night game. Kansas City was at Detroit in an American League arc-lighter.

Both Boyer and Musial bashed a homer and a single as the latter raised his career hit total to 2,885—14th on the all-time list. Willard Schmidt, who struck out seven batters in 1-1/3 innings of relief work, received credit for his seventh victory while Johnny Klippstein suffered his eighth defeat compared with three wins.

Sanford Wins 10th

Rookie Jack Sanford scored his 10th victory as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 9-14 and Frank Thomas ninth homer of the year provided the Pittsburgh Pirates with a 13-inning, 3-2 win over the New York Giants in other National League games.

The New York Yankees maintained their three-game hold on first place in the American league when they topped the Washington Senators, 10-6. The Chicago White Sox downed the Cleveland Indians, 5-1, and the Boston Red Sox whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 11-2, in other A. L. games.

Sanford struck out eight batters for the Phillies while rookie first baseman Ed Bouchee hit the big blow of the game when he homered with two aboard in the fourth off Don Drysdale. Sanford also contributed a single to the Phillies' clinching two-run fifth-inning rally.

Howard Leads Yanks

Thomas' homer broke a tie that existed between the Pirates and Giants since the seventh inning when Daryl Spencer hit his second homer of the game. Bob Purkey, who relieved starter Vern Law after nine innings, was credited with his eighth victory while Stu Miller dropped his fifth decision.

Elston Howard walloped a homer and three singles to lead the Yankees' 12-hit attack that brought Johnny Kucks his sixth win. Roy Sievers hit his 19th homer for the Senators and Faye Thornberry hit a two-run round-tripper in the seventh.

Billy Pierce pitched an eight-hitter to win his 12th game behind a White Sox attack that included a two-run homer by Larry Doby in the first inning. Pierce held the Indians to four hits until the seventh when three straight singles produced their run. All the White Sox' runs were off Bob Lemon, who suffered his seventh defeat.

Frank Sullivan scored his fifth straight win and eighth of the year when Jackie Jensen and Billy Klaus hit homers in the midst of the Red Sox' 13-hit attack. Frank Malzone continued his torrid hitting with a two-run triple and Jimmy Piersall also knocked in two runs.

Harney Takes One Stroke Links Lead

Ste. Dorothee, Que. — (AP) — Slim Paul Harney, a long driving pro from Bolton, Mass., shot his 11th consecutive round of par or better golf Saturday to take a one-stroke lead in the $29,000 Labatt open after 54 holes.

The 27-year-old Harney, who won his first major tournament three weeks ago at Flint, Mich., followed up a pair of 69's with a two-under 70 Saturday for a three-round total of 208. But pressing him with seven-under-par 209's were three other par-busters — Dow Finsterwald, Tequestra, Fla.; Little Joe Conrad, San Antonio, Texas.; and George Bayer.

Masters champion Doug Ford, making a strong bid for his second straight tournament win, shot a four-under 68 over the wide-open Islesmere course to move into a three-way tie at 211 with Gene Littler, Singing Hills, Calif. and Bill Trombley, Dallas, Texas.

Bert Weaver, who suffered a two-stroke penalty in the first round, remained in contention at 212 with Ken Venturi, the slim San Franciscan who shared the 36-hole lead with Harney at 138. After birdieing the second hole, he ran up three bogeys and finished four strokes off the pace with 68-70-74.

Eight others, including defending champion Bill Casper, Jr., Bonita, Calif., were bunched at 214. Seven were one under par after three rounds, at 215, and three others even par with 216's.

Finsterwald, improving every day, has put together rounds of 72-69-68 to move within one shot of the pace. The slender second leading money winner on the tour was one under with a 35 on the out nine, but then counted three birdies and six pars to finish 35-33-68.

Tommy Jackson Invents Word

Columbia, N.J.— (AP) —Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, who has trouble with big words, invented one of his own Saturday to describe what he intends to do to Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson in their title fight at the Polo Grounds July 29.

Jackson, who lost a split decision to Patterson last year, was asked by Comedian Jackie Gleason if he expected to rectify that July 29.

"I don't know about that," said Hurricane after a long pause, "all I know is I'm gonna wreck-tify that Patterson."

Miss Gibson Shares Crown

Wimbledon, England —(AP)— Althea Gibson of New York Saturday night shared the doubles women's championship before a sun-baked gallery of 16,000, including Queen Elizabeth.

Miss Gibson and Miss Darlene Hard teamed to win the women's doubles from Mary Hawton and Thelma Long of Australia, 6-1, 6-2. Althea had shared this crown a year ago with England's Angela Buxton.

Later, Miss Hard combined with Mervyn Rose of Australia to win the mixed doubles 6-4, 7-5, over Althea and Neale Fraser.

Bob Feller Takes Blasts At Baseball

San Francisco—(AP)—Bob Feller, who fast-balled his way to fame with the Cleveland Indians, is still ignoring the "let-up" in his verbal pitches at what he thinks is wrong with the national game.

Feller's latest high, hard one may have had them ducking clear across the continent in New York and Brooklyn.

"I'm all in favor of any shifts which can help baseball," the former ace pitcher said here Friday, "but I think that the announcements and publicity made by loud mouth magnates in the middle of the season is a real bush way of doing business."

He accused these magnates of "hurting attendance at home and in the minors."

Only One Opinion

Feller, who recently told a Congressional committee investigating baseball that club owners are "arrogant," wound up on the same target in his news conference here.

"There's only one union in baseball now," Feler said. "and that consists of the 16 owners. You might compare them to the National Association of Manufacturers."

Feller, here for a baseball clinic, also fired at baseball's controversial reserve clause.

"Teams now can tie up kids for their lifetime and I don't think it is fair," he said. "They call baseball the great American pastime but what is more un-American than tying a player to a club against his will?"

He suggested that the reserve clause might be revised so that both the player and the owner would have an option to renew their contract.

Stars Sign George Vico

Hollywood — (AP) — The Hollywood Stars Saturday announced the signing of George Vico, 34-year-old first baseman-outfielder, to replace injured Emil Panko.

The six foot, four inch, 200-pound Vico, a public relations executive with the Dominguez water company, will play all home games and as many games as his work schedule will permit, according to Hollywood Manager Clyde Kind.

Vico has been batting practice pitcher for Hollywood for the last two years. He played with the Stars in the latter parts of 1954 and 1955 seasons.

A long-ball hitter, Vico hit eight homeruns for Hollywood in compiling a .283 average in 1955.

Panko was placed on the disabled list after it was discovered he had suffered a chipped ankle.

FANS FINED

Philadelphia —(AP)— A couple of eager Philadelphia baseball fans learned Friday it's a pretty expensive proposition when you jump the fence at Connie Mack stadium to retrieve a foul ball. Earl Litz of Lock Haven, Pa., and Willie Taylor of Coatesville, Pa., were fined $10 and costs for doing just that during Thursday's doubleheader between the Phillies and Giants.

Cornell Subdues Yale In English Regatta

Henley on Thames, England —(AP)— The United States won two championships in the Henley Royal regatta Saturday when Cornell beat Yale's Olympic champions in the Grand Challenge cup final and Princeton's 150-pound crew won the Thames Challenge cup.

Cornell edged Yale by one-half length in Henley's first All-American final for the Grand crew was timed in 6-minutes and 43-seconds for the classic Henley distance of one mile, 550 yards over the Thames River.

Second Revenge

This was the second time this year that Cornell avenged its setback by Yale in the Olympic trials held last year to determine which crew would represent the U.S. at Melbourne. Yale won the trip and subsequently brought back the Olympic eight-oared title to America.

However, Cornell defeated Yale in the Intercollegiate Rowing association regatta on Lake Onondaga in New York last month.

Princeton's lightweight oarsmen, who have not been defeated in two years, won the Thames Challenge Cup final by one length over the National Provincial Bank Rowing club of England. The Americans' wining time was 7:19.

Musial, Williams Stand Out in All-Star Line-Ups

By JERE COX

St. Louis — (AP) — Old-timers Stan Musial and Ted Williams stand out in veteran-studded lineups for both teams today as the National league was ruled a slim choice to continue its recent domination over the American league in the 24th annual All-Star classic here Tuesday.

Musial, the Cardinal first sacker, having one of his greatest years, will be performing in his 14th All-Star game and Williams, the Boston left fielder also in the thick of the batting and home run race, will play in his 13th.

Yogi Berra will be playing in his eighth game, George Kell his sixth and Nellie Fox his fifth. In fact, the only first-timer in the starting lineups is Cincinnati Third Baseman Don Hoak.

The National league starters will carry a .309 team batting average into the star tilt while the Americans have a .300 combined mark. The Nationals have a wider edge in the power department — 96 home runs as compared to 83 for the Americans in games up to Friday night.

American league manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees could call on left-handed giant killers Billy Pierce and Bobby Shantz, but is more likely to start with Cleveland's righthanded ace, Early Wynn (11-9) against the predominant righthanded Nationals. Musial and Ed Bailey are the only starters who bat left for the senior circuit starters.

National pilot Walt Alston of the Dodgers will most likely call on lefthanded Warren Spahn (8-6) to go against American power hitters like Vic Wertz, Berra and Williams in addition to spray-man Fox. They can shoot for the roof of the right-field pavilion 310 feet away.

Some 31,000 fans will be on hand at beautified Busch stadium for the 11:30 a.m. (PDT) game with millions more watching and listening over NBC television and radio.

The host St. Louis Cardinals had more than 100,000 ticket requests.

The Nationals will be seeking their seventh victory in the last eight games in the major league rivalry that dates back to 1933 with only the travel-restricted war year of 1945 left out. The American league holds the overall victory edge, 13-10.

Vinegar Bend Back in Stride

By UNITED PRESS

Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell provided strong evidence Friday that he's ready to throw his weight into the St. Louis Cardindals' pennant push.

The team's No. 1 disappointment since spring training, the hard-throwing southpaw pitched the Cardinals into first place in the National league scramble on Friday night when he beat the Cincinnati Redlegs, 4-3, in 11 innings. It was by far the best effort of the season for Mizell, who dropped six of his first seven decisions.

Mizell, who beat the Redlegs five times last season when he was the Cardinals' leading winner with 14 victories, yielded nine hits and struck out seven batters in gaining his second triumph.
