Dowson-Van Beber Rites Read at First Presbyterian

The First Presbyterian church was the setting Sunday, June 30, for the three o'clock afternoon wedding of Miss Harriett Elizabeth Dowson and Lieutenant Fred Cutter Van Beber. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the ceremony attended by 150 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Wasem Dowson, 47 South Berkeley Way, Medford, and H. G. Dowson, Mountain View, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ralph Van Beber of Lawrence, Kan., and the late Mr. Van Beber.

The bride wore a white organdy with fitted bodice of eyelet embroidered organdy fashioned with square neck and short sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held by a headband trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis and a 65 year old rosepoint lace handkerchief owned by Mrs. Richard Milestone. She was the sixth bride to carry it. The frock was first worn by Mrs. Gary Boshears at her wedding a year ago.

John Hancock of San Francisco gave the bride in marriage.

Mrs. Charles Wagstaff, sister of the bridegroom from Emporia, Kan., was matron of honor. Miss Nancy Monroe of Sacramento, Calif., and Miss Florence Stacey, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. The attendants wore white nylon organdy frocks over pink taffeta with white accessories. They carried nosegay bouquets of pink rosebuds and carnations and had garlands of pink roses in their hair.

Charles Wagstaff served as best man for his brother-in-law, Lieutenant Jack Shears of Hutchinson, Kan., and Stanley Dowson, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Miss Priscilla West played the traditional organ wedding music. Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Stacey and Mrs. Ellis Bean, aunts of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake made by Mrs. Diamond Flynn. Miss Alice Alden was in charge of the guest book. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Harry Poston, Mrs. Jerry Tobin, Mrs. Carl Meador, Mrs. John Hancock, Mrs. Bernard Nutting, Mrs. Gordon MacKenzie, Mrs. Hugh Collins, Miss Ellen Sleeter, and Bruce MacKenzie.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dowson wore an imported cotton in tones of beige accented with bands of lace and embroidery. Her corsage was of green orchids. Mrs. Van Beber chose a pale pink imported linen frock trimmed with alencon lace. Her flowers were white orchids.

The newlyweds traveled to the Oregon coast on their wedding trip. For her traveling attire the bride chose a raw silk suit with black patent and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and the College of Pacific, Stockton, Calif. She has been employed as an elementary teacher. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan., and is a lieutenant in the United States Air Force.

The couple will make their home in Sacramento, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Ralph Van Beber, mother of the bridegroom, Lawrence, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagstaff, Emporia, Kan.; sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Miss Nancy Monroe, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. John Hancock, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meador, Patoka, Ill.,
