

George-Anderson Wedding Held in Cave Junction

Cave Junction — Miss Molly Ann George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben George of Cave Junction, became the bride of Larry Bruce Anderson of New Meadows, Idaho, Monday, June 24 at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. George Gray.

Mr. Gray read the wedding service. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lee of Medford, sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

A black and white afternoon dress with white accessories was worn by the bride for her wedding. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and pine and red rosebuds. Mrs. Lee wore a black and white frock and carried a bouquet of daisies and rosebuds.

A navy blue dress with white accessories and gardenia corsage was worn by the mother of the bride.

The living room where the ceremony was held was decorated with bouquets of daisies and roses.

A reception for relatives and friends was held following the wedding at the George home on the Caves highway.

After a short honeymoon to Crescent City, the young couple left for New Meadows, where Mr. Anderson is employed.

Vancouver Episcopal Church Rites Wed McCoy-Philips

Miss Molly Lou McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. McCoy, Vancouver, Wash., became the bride of Douglas Pearce Philips, son of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Philips, Big Boulder Orchard, Medford, in a ceremony held Saturday, June 29, at the St. Luke's Episcopal church, Vancouver.

The Rev. Edwin L. Bishop officiated at the eight o'clock evening double ring ceremony attended by 200 friends and relatives. White flowers and tapers decorated the altar for the ceremony while baskets of white flowers and a candelabra with white tapers decorated the church. Pew ends were decorated with single gardenia on a gold filigree background. Mrs. John H. Sloan was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sheath dress of ivory embossed taffeta fashioned with empire waistline and two back panels. The overbodice of ivory alencon lace was styled with long sleeves, and high neckline. Her white illusion fingertip length veil was held by a small cap of alencon lace with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds on a white prayer book with streamers of white satin ribbon and clusters of double bouvardia and rosebuds.

Miss Sally Ann McCoy was honor attendant for her sister, Miss Janice Lynn Hauff, Portland, sorority sister of the bride was bridesmaid and Miss Judy Adams was junior bridesmaid. They wore sheath dresses of champagne lace over taffeta fashioned with bateau neckline and short sleeves. The empire waistlines were accented with sashes of fathom blue chiffon that tied at the back. Their hats were white and blue flowers with small velvet bows and they carried cascade bouquets of off-white glamelias with blue ribbons.

Craig Philips of Medford served as best man for his brother, Scott Philips, another brother of the bridegroom, Allan George McCoy, brother of the bride, and Richard Cedergren, and Jim Andrews, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom from Longview, Wash., seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McCoy wore a navy blue sheath dress with powder blue accessories. Mrs. Philips wore a white floral print dress of polished cotton with a white hat. They both had white orchid corsages.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the parish hall of the church. White flowers and greenery decorated the rooms and white rosebuds decorated the table that held the tiered wedding cake.

Following a wedding trip to Victoria, British Columbia, the couple will make their home at 509 Jordan road, Pullman, Wash. For her traveling attire the bride chose a black and white wool and silk suit with black patent and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Washington State college and is employed as a home economics teacher at Colfax High school, Colfax, Wash. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and Washington State college and is a student in the School of Veterinary Medicine there. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta social fraternity.

Attending the wedding from Medford were Mrs. J. W. Barnard, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hearin and Joanie.

A reception will be given the newlywed couple in Medford, Wednesday, July 10, at the home of the bridegroom's parent at Big Boulder orchard.
