Miss Faye Elizabeth Zier Bride of William Culhane

A wedding of local residents was held Saturday, June 22 in Pensacola, Fla., when Miss Faye Elizabeth Zier became the bride of William Patterson Culhane.

The Rev. R. E. McChesney read the double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in the presence of classmates of the bridegroom from the U.S. Naval Pre-Flight school.

Attendants for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dennison.

The bride's dress was fashioned of pale yellow silk organza with a bouffant embroidered skirt, matching satin cummerbund and full three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a headband of yellow rosebuds and carried a crescent bouquet of the matching flowers.

Following the rites a wedding dinner was served at the San Carlos hotel.

Miss Zier is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Zier, 2217 Dellwood avenue, Medford. She is a graduate of Grants Pass High school and received her bachelor's degree in education from Southern Oregon college.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Culhane, 713 West 13th street, Medford. He is a graduate of Grants Pass High school and received his bachelor's degree in education from Southern Oregon college. He was employed at Barker's Men's store prior to his enlistment in the Naval Air Corps. He is now attending Air Officer's Candidate school in Pensacola, Fla. Upon receiving his commission in August, the couple plan a honeymoon on the East coast.

They are now making their home at 656 West Garden avenue, Pensacola.

Lamp Makes Rounds in Club During Years

Boonville, Ind. — Mrs. Herman Roth of the Boonville Literary club faces a year of fun thinking up sly methods to get rid of "the lamp."

Mrs. Roth recently became the "proud owner" of the "thing" which is going into its 10th year as a "white elephant" tradition at the club's sales.

All that is left of it is the base—a statuette of a disrobed girl. The remains may have acquired a new name to rank with "Oscar" and "Emmy" this year. It was dubbed "My Fair Lady."

Ten years ago when the lamp made its first appearance at the club's annual "white elephant" sale, it was complete with a small shade and broken wiring.

"She" has lost her former trappings during her tour of members' closets and frantic efforts to rid themselves of her.

A few years ago Mrs. Eske Leslie decided to pretty up the lamp. She gave it a coat of white paint, plus features for the girl's face and long black hair.

Mrs. Roth said the lamp was originally "vintage of the 1920s."

Mrs. William Kindermann was the first to buy it. She bid in the lamp in various disguises two other years to set a club record.

Once in a lamp's career it was thrust in a paper sack with two chicken feet sticking out the top. All of the sellers have been successful in their attempts to conceal the identity of the lamp.

Some have wrapped it in big boxes and some in small ones.

In later years members have become sneakier. Mrs. Roth became the second-highest bidder to be victimized by an extremely small package containing an "ode" to the new owner.

Every "buyer" has autographed the lamp. But the name of the original owner is shrouded in secrecy. It was rumored her name is known to a few members, but they aren't telling.

Mrs. Roth made it plain "My Fair Lady" is "cocealed" in her home. But she warned her fellow members to beware when the club holds its annual white elephant sale on the second Tuesday in March, 1958.
