

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Paul Wheeler

Couple Married in Methodist Candlelight Ceremony in Pierre

In a candlelight ceremony at the First Methodist church of Pierre, S.D., June 29, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, Miss Violet Merie Todd, daughter of Mrs. Anna Todd of Gettysburg, S.D., became the bride of Marion Paul Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wheeler of Cimarron, Kan.

The Rev. Virgil M. Coburn officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with white candles and baskets of pink and blue daisies. Traditional organ wedding music was played and the soloist was Leland Johnson.

The bride has been employed at the First National Bank of Portland, Medford Branch for the past several years and for the past three months has been employed in the office of the South Dakota Secretary of State, Pierre.

Mrs. Anna Todd, mother of the bride, wore a pink crepe dress with white accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

Out of town relatives and friends for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Sven Sandberg, Steve and Sage Jean of Medford.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Kansas State college with a master of science degree. He is affiliated with the Delta Sigma Phi social fraternity and for the past two years has been employed by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. He was recently transferred to Gordon, Neb., where the couple will make their home after a short wedding trip.

New York State Needs Woman in Office in '58

New York — Indications are that a fight will be waged in 1958 at least to nominate a woman for state-wide office in the nation's most populous state.

The Italian-American Democratic organizations of New York state contend the Democrats must do this in order to capture the women voters in the next gubernatorial election.

The progressive group also urged that at least four women be nominated for New York City's council in 1957.

Jack Ingegnieros, president of the foreign language unit, said the Democratic party in the state has never nominated a woman for a purely state administrative elective office and noted that it will have no feminine members in the 1957 legislature.

"There are many capable women in public life who would make admirable candidates to buttress" the state-wide slate expected to be headed again by Gov. Averell Harriman, Ingegnieros said. He named Rep. Edna B. Kelly of Brooklyn, Chairman Angela R. Parisi of the State Compensation Board, and Anna M. Rosenberg, former manpower commissioner, as among possible candidates.

Our Lady of the Mountain Church Scene of Wedding

Talent — Our Lady of the Mountain Catholic church in Ashland was the setting Saturday, June 15, for the double ring wedding ceremony of Miss Maxine June Johnson and Ronald Vernon Meyer. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Max Johnson, Route 1, Box 497, Talent. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Meyer, Route 1, Box 413, Talent.

The Rev. Ernest J. Jackson officiated at the noon ceremony attended by 100 relatives and friends.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length white lace over satin frock styled with fitted bodice and rolled collar. Her fingertip length veil was held by a lace and pearl headband and she carried a bouquet of baby pink rosebuds encircling a white orchid. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Miss Jacqueline Speegle was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Beverly Ann Johnson, sister of the bride, and Miss Dolores Ann Meyer, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Speegle wore a pink taffeta and nylon frock and carried blue carnations. The bridesmaids were in blue frocks and carried pink carnations.

Helen Landon, the 1957 Maid of Cotton, poses in one of the most distinguished gowns in her international cotton wardrobe. Famous French couturier Jean Patou of Paris created this ball gown for her in Everglaze cotton satin embroidered in gold. Cotton satin bands and bows trim the square cut bodice.

Richard Paup of Medford served as best man while David Ray Johnson, brother of the bride, and Larry Anderson of Medford, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and reception that followed Mrs. Johnson wore an orchid colored cotton and silk frock with matching bolero. Her accessories were white. Mrs. Meyer chose a turquoise linen sheath with matching bolero and white accessories. They both wore white orchid corsages.

Roses and carnations decorated the church for the wedding and large baskets of roses and Ester Reed daisies decorated the Tally Ho restaurant for the reception.

Mrs. Louise Squires, aunt of the bridegroom of DeLand, Fla., cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Henry Wobbe presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Rose Griffen poured the coffee. Mrs. Harold Meyer was in charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip to southern California the newlywed couple will make their home at Route 1, Box 467, Talent. For traveling attire the bride wore a copper colored frock with the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Talent High school and is employed as a bookkeeper at Newbury Orchards in Ashland. The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Mary's High school and is a vegetable grower.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Phillips, grandparents of the bride, from San Diego, Calif.; Miss Elsie Schmidt, DeLand, Fla.; Mrs. Glenn Speegle, Happy Camp, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weber, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom from Riverside, Calif.

A Tribute To The Toastmaster's Club

"For it's always fair weather when Toastmasters get together!" That's a new version of the old song that is highly apropos at any gathering of these exuberant Masters of Ceremony! Toastmasters are the spark plugs of banquets, luncheon meetings, club affairs and innumerable other parties where an orderly presentation of speakers or activities must be maintained. When the professional toastmasters have their own meeting, there is where Greek meets Greek and the standard of parliamentary procedure is perfection! We salute the gentlemen of the Toastmasters' Club . . . and wish them every success in all their activities.

International Touch In Sports Clothes

New York — American women this summer can pretend they're at the playgrounds of the world, thanks to the international touch in one line of sports clothes.

New styles by Phil Rose of California are inspired by fashions from four countries—Mexico, Scotland, Sweden and Norway.

His Norwegian collection includes a serapi—a sleeveless, poncho-type of over-shirt typical of those worn in the Scandinavian countries.

Other over-shirts are designed in bulky fleece with raglan sleeves or parkas.

The Swedish collection is from a line of fabrics designed by Count Sigvard Bernadette.

His fabrics feature Scandinavian colors, such as "Eric the red" and "fiord beige."

The Scottish collection features tops and pants in tiny red and green plaids, combined with black velveteen. Skinny pants in black or plaid are combined with plaid shirts trimmed with black velveteen, or black button knit shirts trimmed with plaid.

And plaid lines a belted, casual coat of white or cigar-colored corduroy.

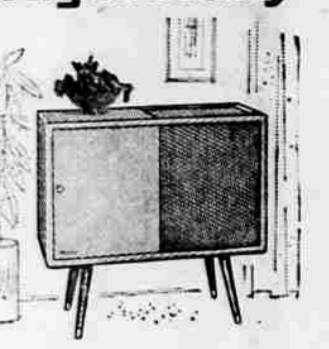

There even are soft plaid shoes.

For those whose fancy goes south of the border, the Mexican collection features black, white and red pants, shirts and brief jackets. One outfit includes flamenco-flared pants.

Finally, there's a group strictly for fun—such mock mink pants and matching booties—or a "chinnella" sweat shirt, made to look like chinchilla.
