

Try Luckies. You'll rate them the best-tasting cigarette
 you ever smoked!

*Light up a Lucky,
 it's light-up
 time!*

GOOD PRACTICE: this summer, take Luckies along. A Lucky is all enjoyment because it's all cigarette... nothing but fine, light, naturally good-tasting tobacco that's TOASTED to taste even better. As a matter of fact, you'll say Luckies are the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER

"IT'S TOASTED" TO TASTE BETTER...CLEANER, FRESHER, SMOOTHER!

A CHICAGO TRUCK DRIVER was halted for reckless driving on Washington's Birthday. "What's your name?" demanded the law. "General Washington," was the meek reply. "What are you trying to do, be a comedian?" asked the cop. The driver produced his driver's license issued to "General Washington."

After a fruitless day searching for arrowheads, a Payson, Ariz., man headed back to town—and had a blowout. He got out to have a look and, imbedded in the tire, found an arrowhead.

A thief broke into a hardware store in Winchester, Ky., and made off with $800 loot which included 14 Winchester rifles and ammunition. Left behind was a calling card which read: "Willard Winchester, Jr."

When a 35-year-old Nashville woman had her 12th child, people were amazed. Not so the mother. "It runs in my family," she explained. She was one of 12 children herself, and a sister also had an even dozen.

When a light bulb burned out in the newsroom of a radio station in Providence, R. I., on January 1, 1956, the news editor removed it. Inscribed on the bulb was: "Installed 1-1-55; guaranteed for one year."
