

Wrong Figuring, Second Guessing Mark All-Star Mix as American 6-5 Victor

By ED SAINSBURY

St. Louis — Wrong guessing and second guessing told the tale of the All-Star game, a 6-5 win for Casey Stengel's American league team to break a two-game, victory streak by Brooklyn Dodger manager Walt Alston and the National league.

Stengel didn't want to start rookie right hander Jim Bunning of Detroit Tuesday. And he wanted to keep Boston's Ted Williams in left field for offensive punch.

He wanted to open the game with Cleveland's veteran Early Wynn, and he would have, except that Wynn pitched seven innings Sunday and Stengel feared he would be tired.

So Bunning was the stand-out of the 12 hurlers who appeared. He retired nine men in order and got credit for the win when his mates got two runs in the second inning. Wynn gave up three hits and two runs later in 1-3 of an inning.

Stengel partially carried out his strategy with Williams. He let the Boston star step to the plate four times, and he walked once and went out three times. Then, nursing a 3-2 lead, he put Chicago's Minnie Minoso into left field for defensive purposes.

Minoso emerged star. Minoso started both on offense and defense. He rapped a double off the right center field wall in the ninth inning to drive home Al Kaline of Detroit with what proved to be the winning run.

Defensively, Minoso turned in two key plays. When the National league was threatening to tie in the ninth inning, Hank Folles was on second base after a single and a walk to Gus Bell.

Don Mossi struck out Eddie Mathews and Ernie Banks lined a single to left to score Folles easily. But Minoso played the ball expertly and when Bell tried to go to third base, Minoso threw perfectly to Frank Malzone for the second out as Banks took second.

Stengel brought in his own Yankee reliever, Bob Grim, when Gil Hodges pinch hit for the National league and Grim threw only two pitches. The first was outside. The second was lined to left field, where Minoso made a short run to catch the ball and end the game.

"If Williams had been there, some onlookers said, 'he would not have made that throw and he wouldn't have caught the ball.'"

Alston Second Guessed. Alston was the target for the second guessers. Why didn't he order Mathews to bunt with no outs, two runs in, the tying runs on first and second.

"How'd I know Banks would hit," the Dodger manager asked. "If I had, I would have."

National league starter Curt Simmons, appearing in the All-Star game for the third time, was the losing pitcher as he gave up a single to Mickey Mantle, a walk to Williams, a single to Vic Wertz and a walk to Yogi Berra in the second inning. Then with one run in, Lew Burdette came in. And though he got two men out, he walked Harvey Kuenn to force in another score.

Bill Skowron doubled in the sixth, advanced on Jack Sanford's wild pitch, and scored on Yogi Berra's single.

In the ninth, Billy Pierce began the winning surge with a single and he got to second when Red Schoendienst bobbled Gil McDougald's grounder for an error.

AL Leads Series 14-10. Nellie Fox sacrificed and both runners scored on Kaline's single. Mantle struck out, the only American leaguer to do so, but Minoso's double was the

Johnson Paces Way In State PGA Semis

The Dalles — Bill Johnson of Portland, defending Oregon PGA golf champ, led the way into semi-finals here today after two victories Tuesday.

He scored decisive victories over Ron Caperna of Astoria, 6 and 5 and earlier in the day beat Harvey Bunn of Tualatin, 7 and 6.

Eddie Hogan, one of the favorites and medalist, was ousted from the tournament by Bunny Mason, Salem, 3 and 1. Mason came back in the afternoon round to down Harold West of Eugene, 3 and 2.

Along with Johnson and Ma-finishing punch. The National leaguers netted two runs on singles by Willie Mays and Ed Bailey and Gus Bell's pinch double in the seventh off Wynn.

Then their rally fell short in the ninth. Stan Musial walked and Mays drove him home with a triple and scored himself on Pierce's wild pitch. That set the stage for Folles to bat for Bailey and keep the chase alive.

It was the second victory in the last eight games for the American league and the 14th overall against 10 National league victories.

Spar Mate Eyed By Rademacher

Columbus, Ga. — A slimmed-down Pete Rademacher weighing 210, went through a crisp workout at his Lake Huston training camp Tuesday with one eye cocked on his first sparring partner, Herman Harris.

Rademacher, now only slightly above his best fighting weight, has signed to fight heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson for the title in Seattle Aug. 22 — provided Patterson gets by Hurricane Jackson this month.

Rademacher will climb in for his first sparring session with Harris next Thursday. Harris, a Negro, has had 21 pro fights and was in the East until he was engaged for Rademacher's camp.

Trainer George Chermes also announced that Johnny Regan, a ring-wise youngster who has furnished sparring practice for Patterson, Archie Moore and Bobo Olson, may be brought to Lake Huston.

Ragan has worked more than 100 rounds with Patterson and is familiar with his style.

BOUT SET BACK
Boston — Promoter Sam Silverman said today that Thursday night's scheduled 10-round bout between Tony Veranis of Boston and Eddie Prince of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., has been set back to July 25 because Veranis broke out in a rash after eating strawberries.

Bluebirds Face YMCA Women
Butte Falls — The Bluebirds of the upper Rogue area will meet the Medford YMCA women's team in a twilight game scheduled for Thursday evening, July 11 at 6:30 p.m. on the Butte Falls baseball diamond.

Bluebirds receiving injuries during the season so far are Mrs. Bill Rodgers, Mrs. Gene Irwin, Mrs. Jerry McComb, Mrs. Lee Jolliffe and Miss Jaunita Sheppard.

SUE DeVOE NABS TIFF IN FIRST PNGA ROUND

Spokane — Jim Mallory of Spokane, a one-time basketball player at University of Washington, captured medal honors in the Pacific Northwest men's amateur golf tourney Tuesday.

Mallory had a 71 for a 36-hole total of 143. Match play opened today.

In the women's tourney at Hayden Lake, Idaho, Sue DeVoe of Medford, Ore., defeated Mrs. Al Gustafson of Portland 8 and 7 as match play got under way.

Mrs. George Decker of LaGrande defeated Mrs. Tom Marlowe of Portland, 3 and 2.

Another Oregonian, Carole Jo Kabler, Sutherlin, won her match from Mrs. Don Woodard of Walla Walla, 7 and 6.

Seals Nick Stars 6-5 In 12-Inning Scuffle

By JIM HEALY
United Press Sports Writer
Baseball pundits around the West Coast have been confidentially telling their friends that San Francisco's league leading Seals are bound to fall flat on their faces.

Maybe so, and Tuesday night would have been a grand time for them to start. But the clutch playing Bay Area team broke a 12th inning tie with Hollywood and gowned the Stars 6-5 on an error by loser Chuck Churn.

Leo Kiely collected his 12th successive relief win for a 13-2 record. His win-loss mark is now the best in the Pacific Coast league. For the information of the pundits, it was the 10th extra inning game the Seals have played — and won.

It also marked their eighth win in a row.

Hollywood, a tough customer anytime, chalked up the only homers of the game — two run clouts each by Paul Pettit and Bill Causon. The Seals made four runs in the third inning and went ahead on one in the fifth.

Pitcher's Error
The Stars tied it up in the ninth and there was nary a score until the bottom of the 12th when, with the bases loaded, Churn fielded a grounded hit by Seal Sal Taormina, and turned to throw to second instead of home.

He caught himself, but threw wild to catcher Bill Hall, and Albie Pearson sneaked home with the winning run.

In other loop games, San Diego and Portland battled neck and neck for 10 innings before the Padres finally copped it, 5-4. Second place Vancouver was dumped by league trailing Sacramento, which has stiffened surprisingly in the past week, 4-3, and Seattle cleaned Los Angeles, 6-2.

Vancouver, with a comfortable 3-0 lead, looked like a sure winner until a riotous seventh inning when Umpire Bill Sorenson possibly decided the game. With two on base and a 2-2 count on Sacramento's Artie Wilson, Sorenson ruled that Wilson did not take a swipe at a high, inside ball. Wilson then got on, loading the bases. Leo Righetti followed with a single and Jim Westlake doubled, to wrap up the ball game.

Mountie Manager Charlie Metro was heaved from the game for prolonging a feud between losing pitcher Don Ferrarese 3-4 and Sorenson.

Dave Pope was the hero of the day for San Diego. He clouted a round tripper in the 10th against the Beavers to hand Portland its 11th straight loss. Preston Ward collected a three run

Barlovento Tries To Maintain Lead In Yacht Race

Los Angeles — The scratch boat Barlovento today maintained a direct course for Hawaii in an attempt to ward off a challenge by the Constellation in the 2-255-mile Transpacific yacht race.

The Barlovento Tuesday was reported 1,197 miles from Diamond Head and continued to lead the 34-boat field. However, the Constellation was running a close second and set a course to the north in the hope of picking up more favorable winds.

Leaders among the entries passed the midway point in the race Tuesday. The Coast Guard cutter Gresham radioed that the yachts were picking up good winds during the morning hours but were slowed by diminishing breezes in the afternoon.

John P. Scripps' Nova del Mar, of La Jolla, Calif., was third in actual fleet position, followed by the Orient, Nam Sang and Queen Mab.

The 40-foot cutter Y Como, one of the smallest yachts in the fleet, led in handicap position and also in the class division.

Towel Retains British Mantle

London — Willie Towel, the British Empire lightweight champion, retained his title Tuesday night by scoring a 15-round decision over Dave Charnley of England. Towel scaled 133 1/4 pounds to Charnley's 133 1/2.
