

Studs Meet Klamath Crew Here Tonight

Medford Cheney Studs will carry a .306 team batting average to the plate this evening when they entertain the Klamath Falls Cubs this evening at the fairgrounds baseball field.

The non-league semi-pro game is set for 8 p.m. Klamath is a member of the Northern California league, ranking fourth at last report. Medford is unbeaten leader of the Rogue Valley circuit.

While carrying the healthy swatting mark into action, the Studs will be minus their top rafter this evening, Ron Owings who paces the Cheney combine with a 400 standing with 24 hits in 80 times up, is in Portland for an Army pre-induction physical exam.

Owings' shortstop slot likely will be filled by Eldon Francis, a capable all-around performer just out of Medford high where he concentrated on the javelin in track rather than on baseball. He has Legion and semi pro experience and has been playing in the outfield for the Studs.

Cooney Back
Absence of Owings spoils a chance for him to play against a club from his old hometown. He's an ex-Klamath high stand-out.

Jack Cooney has indicated that he's over his illness of last week and will be back at first base for the Studs this evening. Duane Sides is the probable Medford chucker with the Klamath mound choice among Dave O'Dillo, Jack Henkel and Kerm Kowalt.

Jerry Droscher is the second ranking hitter among Studs who have seen most duty over the 14-game slate. He's hitting .389. Don Vannice, however, has a .417 mark for 12 times at bat. Frank Roelandt and Jack Cooney each have 359 records and John Kovenz is the other 300 hitter for the full season. He has .302.

Kovenz leads in runs batted in with 21 and Owings is next with 19.

American Loop Win May Be Bad

St. Louis — A history repeats, manager Casey Stengel's New York Yankees will lose the 1937 American league pennant because he won the All-Star Game Tuesday.

The Yankees have failed to win the flag only once since Stengel began managing them. That was in 1934 when he scored his only previous All-Star victory over the National league in seven tries as manager of the American leaguers.

U. P. was the first to send news to liberated newspapers in France, Italy and the Philippines after World War II.

Tiger, Cat Clubs Chalk Up Verdicts

Medford Tigers wrote up third consecutive victory without a loss yesterday in the Pee Wee Baseball league southern division and the Medford Wildcats pulled into a second place deadlock with Central Point.

The Tigers, piling up eight runs in the fifth inning, blanked Eagle Point 10 to 0 in a fracas at Camp White. Wildcat players drubbed Ashland here 21 to 4 and also had a big inning. They tabulated 15 markers in the fourth stanza.

At Camp White the Tigers had 14 batting turns in fifth frame. Gary Neese socked a grand slam homerun and Mike Barnes a three-run home. Jim Bandy tripled, Jim Cahoun doubled and Dick Deffley singled. There were six walks in the inning.

Mike Barnes threw one-hit ball for the Tigers, fanned nine and walked three. Scrappy Pollock rapped Eagle Point's lone hit.

Eddie Bowman of the Wildcats and Dickers of Ashland clubbed triples. Pitcher Mike Glines held Ashland to five hits.

Willie Vaughn Fights Hernandez

Chicago — Willie Vaughn was "almost 100 per cent sure" that a store of ring savvy he has picked up in the past two years will carry him to his first victory in three clashes with Chebo Hernandez when the two middleweights fight tonight in a televised 10-round bout at the Chicago Stadium.

The Los Angeles boxer thus far hasn't been able to do any better than draw with Hernandez. That was in their first meeting in 1933. A year later, the Mexican slugger knocked out Vaughn in the second round at Hollywood, Calif.

Vaughn's best ring effort came last March 27 when he was awarded a decision over Joey Giardello at Kansas City, Mo., and then had to settle for a draw when it was discovered one of the officials was scoring the bout under an outmoded system.

The Hernandez-Vaughn affair is a substitute match for the originally scheduled Bob Baker-Eddie Machen heavyweight 10-round, which was put off until July 24 when Machen came down with oriental flu.

American Davis Cup Hopes Soar, Aussies Blast Hoop

New York — United States hopes of regaining the Davis cup have soared while Australian tennis officials blasted Lew Hoop for turning pro.

"The Davis cup competition is wide open now that Lew has turned pro," said Renville H. McCann, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis association. "His decision certainly has helped our chances and the chances of other countries, too. We have great hopes."

When Hoop accepted a record

$125,000 contract Monday from promoter Jack Kramer, he left the tennis-mad Australians without an experienced cup player to defend the amateur game's most coveted trophy next December.

The Lawn Tennis association of Australia reacted by accusing Hoop of breaking a written promise not to turn pro until Jan. 31, 1938, and moved to bar Kramer's troupe from its big stadiums.

MEDFORD, KLAMATH VIE IN LEGION CONFLICT HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Medford American Legion junior baseball club makes its second appearance before home fans Thursday evening. It will be host to Klamath Falls in a double bill at the fairgrounds diamond. First game is slated for 6:30 p.m.

Both scraps will count in sub-district standings. Medford previously took a counting doubleheader from Klamath Falls on the Klamath field. While the locals will try to sweep both encounters Thursday, it is felt that a split with KF will still put Medford in a good spot to gain the district play-offs.

Medford currently heads the loop standings with 4-0. Klamath is 2-2 and Lakeview 0-4. A later twinbill with Lakeview here will end the regular round of subdistrict games.

Need Financial Help
Whether the Medford club will be able to enter the play-offs, if it does win the subdistrict, is still up to question. Manager Jack Sides said that the team is short on funds and unless it gets some financial help shortly. He's appealing for a good turnout at the Klamath games here as well as help from businessmen of the community.

Coach John Kovenz is expected to call on a Crater high batter, Wayne Allen, pitcher, and Randy Campbell, catcher, for one game Thursday, and on a Medford high combination, Dennis Barr pitching to Bob Pond, for the other.

Klamath pitchers may be named from among Dunson, Bellin, Clark and Furley.

Herb Score Takes Bride

Boynton Beach, Fla. — Herb Score, Cleveland's "million-dollar" southpaw, was to take a wife today before starting workouts to determine how his injured eye will affect his pitching.

Father Thomas Kelley of Rosedale, N. Y., who launched Score on his baseball career, was to marry him in a High Mass ceremony at St. Mark's Catholic church here to pretty Nancy McNamara of Lantana, Fla., whom Score met in high school.

Score, 24, was struck in the right eye in a night game at Cleveland May 7 by a line drive off the bat of Yankee Gil McDougal. It was feared at first that the 1935 rookie of the year might lose his vision in the eye, but after two months of recuperating, mostly at the home of his mother, Mrs. Anna M. Score in Lake Worth, Fla., Score was confident he could resume his mound duties with the Indians.

Canada Golf Open Starts

Kitchener, Ont. — Doug Sanders was the defending champion in the Canadian Open golf championship but Paul Harney and Doug Ford were regarded as better bets for the title as almost 160 pros and amateurs began play today in the $25,000 event.

Harney, the Boston, Mass., golfer who won last week's Labatt Open, has shot par or better in his last 12 rounds. He was under par in 10 of them.

Ford, the Masters champion and leading money-winner on the PGA circuit this season, shot a two-under-par 69 in his final practice round on the 6,444-yard Westmount course Tuesday.

Arnold Palmer, Dow Finsterwald, Billy Casper Jr., Ed (Porky) Oliver, Jay Hebert and George Bayer are other highly-regarded entrants.

Strychnine Poisoning Seen Cause of Death

Pendleton — Umatilla County Coroner Pat Folsom said today that Mrs. Ada Bannister Lee, 65, died of strychnine poisoning at her ranch near Weston, Ore., early Tuesday.

Folsom said it wasn't determined whether the woman took it accidentally or intentionally. The poison had been kept at the home to kill moles.

The husband, Bob Lee, about 68, told sheriff's officers that he heard his wife in the bedroom, and upon investigating was told by her that she had taken strychnine. A physician was summoned but she died a few hours later.

The coroner said the woman had been in ill health for some time.

HOW TO TELL 'EM

The schools, we pray, are doing a pretty good job of teaching current events. It's just too tough a subject for the parents, especially if, as they should, they try to relate today's happenings to recent history.

How do you explain to the short pants set that we like the Japanese and are mad at the Chinese, but that in Daddy's war we liked the Chinese fine and were awfully mad at the Japs. And how can you explain that Daddy and a Russian soldier once had a high old time together? Aren't we made at the Russians?

It won't do much good to explain that Daddy and the Russians were friends that evening because both were mad at the Germans. Because as any schoolboy knows, the Germans are our allies, part of the Free World, key people in the dice we are erecting against the Communist wave.

Explanations will serve only to convince the younger generation that Daddy guessed wrong, many, many years ago, and that he might be a little bit subversive. —Eugene Register-Guard.

Whiters, Talent Collide Tonight; GP Billed at CW

Camp White — The Veterans Administration domiciliary baseball nine bills make-up action in the Rogue Valley league this evening and has a non-loop fray with an RVL member on Friday.

Camp White is host to Talent in today's hassle. Grants Pass comes to Ricker field on Friday. Both conflicts are booked for 8 p.m.

Manager Keith Johnson indicated that he will have Ned Landers, Southern Oregon collegian and ex-Medford high, on the hill tonight. Skipper Cliff McLean of Ashland-Talent is expected to counter with Mark Fitch, out of Ashland high. The fracas being played tonight was postponed from May. The Whiters and Talent have league contention again Sunday with the game set for Talent.

The Friday skirmish will be the third this season between
