

Baltimore Moves Into First Division of American League

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Typographical error, my eye! That's really the Baltimore Orioles right up there in the first division today, and it's the first time they have ever been that high this late in the season since they entered the American league.

The amazing Orioles reached the lofty region of fourth place Thursday night by sweeping a two-night double-header from the fading Indians by the scores of 5-4 and 5-4 (no typo, either), the first going 11 innings.

Pilot Paul Richards, who makes the type moves no other manager will dare, gave a Houdini-like exhibition in an all-out effort to crash the first division.

He yanked starter Ray Moore in the seventh inning of the first game, even though the score was tied and he had two strikes on Roger Maris. Ken Lehman completed the strikeout but he needed help from George Zuverink in the last of the 11th after the Orioles had scored two runs in the top of the frame on singles by Gus Triandos and Jim Busby.

Zuverink Appears Twice
Then, in the nightcap, Richards pulled out Bill Wright in the third inning even though Baltimore had built a 5-0 lead off Bob Lemon. He again led off in Zuverink, who gained his eighth victory, and when the hard-working Zuverink weakened in the eighth, Richards led with his ace, Billy Loes.

All that masterminding paid off in the Orioles' 14th victory in their last 20 games. They are now a half-game ahead of both Cleveland and Detroit, and only three games behind the third-place Red Sox, who defeated the Tigers Thursday, 9-7. The Yankees padded their league lead to 3½ games when Mickey Mantle's 23rd home run in the 11th inning produced a 3-2 triumph over Kansas City, and Washington rallied for two runs in the ninth to beat the second-place White Sox, 6-5.

The Phillies took over second place in the National league by capturing a two-night twin bill from the Cubs, winning the 11-inning opener, 1-0, and the finale, 3-1. The Giants defeated the Cardinals, 1-0, Brooklyn edged Cincinnati, 5-4, in a game marked by fist fights, and Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh, 7-2.

The Dodgers came from behind to defeat the Redlegs when Duke Snider hit his second home run of the game with one on in the seventh inning off Tom Aker.

Snider's second homer came shortly after a flare up between Cincy pitcher Raul Sanchez and Dodger infielder Junior Gilliam that precipitated an even livelier fist fight between Charley Neal and Don Hoak. The whole fuss started when Gilliam felt Sanchez had thrown a pitch too close to him.

Beavers Drop 13th; Pads Look at Second

By JIM HEALY

United Press Sports Writer

The Portland Beavers now have a 13 game streak—all losses. And San Diego, which handed the Beavers their last three, is looking with green eyes at the suddenly shaky number two spot held by Vancouver.

The Pads roughed up Portland, 10-4, Thursday night while Sacramento handed the Mountains a 5-3 loss. This combination put San Diego within a half a game of second place Vancouver.

The Pads got down to business early, banging out seven runs in the first three innings, one of which was a two run homer by Ed Gasque, the man who pitched and won.

San Diego added three more runs in the seventh frame for good measure on two singles and a double by Preston Ward, who incidentally homered in the third with none on.

Ed Mickelson and Frank Carswell kept Portland in the game in the first inning with two runs. In the seventh, with the game pretty well decided, Mickelson doubled in two runs in a last futile try.

Sacramento humbled Vancouver for the second straight time, behind the 10 hit left hand pitching of Marshall Bridges. Former Mountie Jim Westlake led the Solon attack with a double, two singles and a walk. It was steady going for the California squad with two runs in the first, two in the third and a one run clincher in the fourth.

In other games around the loop, Hollywood downed San Francisco — which claims the best batters in the league—4-1, in a day game, and Los Angeles whipped Seattle 6-3 in the final night contest.

No-Hitters In Pee Wee Loop Frays

Mike Barnes of the Medford Tigers and Louis Alvarez of Central Point pitched no hit victories yesterday as their teams chalked up identical 5 to 0 scores against their adversaries.

The Tigers defeated their fellow Medfordites, the Wildcats, and Central Point won from Eagle Point.

Barnes missed a perfect game by issuing a walk to the last man he would have faced had he retired that batter. Only the one player got on base against him. He struck out seven batters. Alvarez whiffed 11 and walked two.

Glimes, the Wildcat hurler, yielded just three hits, one a double by Bandy. He had three strikeouts and gave five bases on balls. CP had the benefit of five hits and six walks off Eagle tossers and of six EP miscues.

The Tigers kept their unbeaten leadership and Central Point retained hold on second place.

Avery Pans U.S. State Department

Santa Barbara, Calif. — W

Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic committee, declared today the United States "might as well retire from all Olympic affairs" if the U.S. State department keeps athletes or their representatives from visiting certain countries.

At the same time, he said he believed the committee would take the scheduled winter games away from Squaw Valley, Calif., unless all countries, including Bulgaria—and Red China, are permitted to send delegations to the Northern California meet.

Brundage made the statements when questioned concerning speculation on whether he might be forced to quit as the first American elected president of the International Olympic committee in event the State department travel ban regarding Iron Curtain countries prevents his attending the committee's annual meeting set for September in Bulgaria.

No Answer
He said he recently requested State department permission to attend the meeting but that it was too early to have received an answer.

He said if he was denied permission, "the committee might not want to have a president who couldn't operate and take care of his responsibilities and duties."

"I just got back from Europe and every newspaper there wanted to know whether I would be permitted to attend the Bulgaria meeting," he said.

"There have been many rumors that U.S. citizens would not be permitted to go since our passports are not valid in Bulgaria."

He was joined in the semis by John Lynch, Ernie Jonson and Billy Warner.

Hayden Lake, Id. — W

Carole Jo Kabler of Sutherlin, Ore., advanced to the semi-finals of the women's Northwest amateur golf tournament Thursday with a 2 and 1 decision over Mrs. Connie Oldershaw Jones of Spokane.

Miss Betty Hulteng of Eugene defeated Mrs. Richard Bigelow of Seattle 1-up to move into the semis, along with Mrs. Robert Young, Tacoma, and Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Coeur d'Alene.
