Federal Aid Urged For Eastern Oregon

Washington — Oregon's two senators and Rep. Al Ullman (D-Ore.) Thursday urged Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson to make "immediate aid" available to freeze-stricken orchardists in eastern Oregon.

Sens. Wayne L. Morse and Richard Neuberger, both Democrats, joined with Ullman in the request.

They pointed out that the third supplemental appropriation act, recently signed by the President, includes an appropriation of $4 million for making payments to rehabilitate farmlands damaged by natural disasters.

Morse, Neuberger and Ullman reminded Benson that during the winter of 1935 "highly productive fruit orchards" in the Milton-Freewater area of Oregon were destroyed by an "unprecedented freeze."

Clues Fail To Lead To Missing Woman

Homedale, Idaho — Sheriff Jim Tucker and Police Chief Jim Hill today checked out more elusive leads in their investigation of the disappearance of City Clerk Bertha Ehrhart, 39, and said it still had not produced any solid information on the missing woman's whereabouts.

They revealed Thursday that Mrs. Ehrhart had received a threatening note before her disappearance Monday night. The note was made up of words clipped from newspapers and magazines pasted to note paper and read: "You have only a few days to live."

Last Minute Spurt Lifts Stock Higher

New York — Stocks rallied in a last minute spurt of activity today.

Chrysler, on expectations for big business for the company, ran up two points. General Motors rose to a new high. Ford gained nearly a point.

The better tone in the markets reflected higher estimates for output of automobiles this year. Steel companies expecting bigger orders for auto steel showed gains.

Chemicals strengthened in most instances, notably Schering.

1782-Model Chariot Due To Get New Look

Providence, R. I. — A 1782-model chariot has left Rhode Island temporarily to acquire a "new look."

When it returns to the Rhode Island Historical Society, it will sport a fresh coat of robin's egg blue and yellow paint, trimmed with gold.

Clifford P. Morahan, director of the society, described the chariot as "the most important vehicle in America today."

Recently the chariot was sent to Staten Island, N.Y., for a rejuvenation job by an expert restorer of antique vehicles.

In its day the chariot was drawn by horses.

Forests Turned Over For Sustained Yield

Salem — Some 104,493 acres of forest lands have been turned over to the State Forestry Department for administration on a sustained yield basis.

Board Secretary E. T. Pierce announced today.

The transfer took place in accordance with a resolution adopted by the 1937 Legislature at the request of State Treasurer Sig Unander.

Most of the land—some 71,850 acres—is located in the Elliott state forest reserve in Coos and Douglas counties.

May Safest Month In Oregon Driving

Salem — Five people died in each 100 million miles of travel in Oregon during May, making it the safest month mile-for-mile so far this year, the Traffic Safety Division reported today.

Despite this fact, the death rate was three-tenths of a point higher than that recorded for May a year ago.

The number of miles driven during the month declined more than 11 1/2 million miles when compared with May last year, figures compiled from gasoline sales showed.

Hospital Room of Tomorrow Readied Chicago — Furnishings of modern hospitals compare favorably with those of luxury hotels and resort motels, according to a manufacturer's representative. "A hospital patient of 25 years ago, miraculously transported to a hospital of today, wouldn't recognize his surroundings," said A. Stephen Clark, director of Royal Metal Manufacturing Company's hospital division.
