Dawkins to Promote Centennial Event

William Dawkins and Associates, Medford public relations firm, has been named to direct public relations and promotion for the Oregon Centennial Exposition and International Trade Fair.

The Exposition, climax of the Centennial celebration, begins in Portland June 1, 1959, and is tentatively scheduled to run for four months.

The appointment was one of two announced by the Centennial commission at a meeting in Portland Friday. At the same time, Floyd Maxwell, executive secretary for the commission for the past two years, was named executive director for the celebration.

Dawkins, who now maintains offices in Medford and Salem, said that an office would be opened in Portland immediately to service the new account. Additions to his staff will be announced in the near future, he said.

ILLINOIS VALLEY WSCS Picnic Scheduled

By HELEN BOTTEL

Cave Junction — Mrs. John Smith gave a program on "Brotherhood," at the Women's Society of Christian Service meeting Monday evening at Immanuel Methodist church. A film "Return by Sea," was also shown.

July 21 is the date set for the WSCS picnic at Grayback, to which all members, their families and friends, are invited. The club will furnish ice cream, coffee and cold drinks.

Plans for a rummage sale, to be held later in the summer, were made.

Among the guests at the Lee Phillips home this week are their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leland D. Phillips of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scott over the July 4th holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cooper, from Brookings, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scott, their son and family, from Sacramento, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haslock are back from a trip to Detroit, Mich., where they visited his brother, Cecil, and family.

Here for a two-week vacation are Mrs. Douglas Hanby's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. James King and sons John and Jim, of Seal Beach, Calif. The family arrived last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton returned Wednesday from the family's mountain cabin at Galice, where they had spent the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin of Cincinnati, Ohio, arrived by plane this week to attend the funeral of Martin's father, Mr. George P. Martin Sr., held Tuesday at Rogue River.

The Ohio couple will stay until Saturday, visiting Martin's brothers, George and Robert in the Illinois Valley. Harold at Grants Pass and Edward at Rogue River, and their families.

Mr. Martin Sr. was stricken with a heart attack at the home of Robert Martin where he was staying while his wife, Jessie, was in the hospital at Medford. He had been a resident of Rogue River for some 40 years, but in recent years had spent the winter months in Arizona.

Richard Buckendahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Buckendahl is at Ft. Ord, Calif., where he is taking his six months Reserve training.

Here for the funeral of Alfred (Buck) Campbell were his mother, Vergie Campbell, his sister, Vanita, another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Verle Osborn, a brother, Donald Campbell, and Mrs. Campbell's father. The family left for their homes in St. Louis, Mo., Monday.

Mrs. Campbell mother, Mrs. Ida Cunningham of St. Louis, is staying with her in Cave Junction. She accompanied Mrs. Campbell home after news of the fatal logging accident reached them in St. Louis. Campbell, 29, was instantly killed Tuesday, July 2, near Orick, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Boyd of the Westside road, and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Wilber, of Yamhill, and families, camped at Sailor's Gulch over the July 4 holidays.

Guests this week at the William Baskin home in Four Corners are Mr. and Mrs. William Baskin Jr. and three children of Whittier, Calif.

On a fishing trip to Crescent City this week were William Baskin and his son, William Jr., and L. W. Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Monroe of Four Corners spent July 4 with Monroe's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Monroe at Merlin. The two men spent a day fishing in the Rogue river near Galice.

Four churches took part in the Illinois Valley Singing held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Cave Junction Community church.

A special feature was the appearance of the Simpsonaires, a quartet from Simpson Bible college who had sung earlier in the day at the Community church service.

The next Singing is planned for Bridgeview church on Aug. 18 at 2 p.m.

Terri Lynn Brown, seven-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wells, is spending the summer at the Wells home near Cave Junction. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown of Vallejo. Mrs. Brown left last week after a 10-day visit with her parents.

The Ralph Messenger family camped at Humboldt and Harris Beach State parks over the July 4 week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millard and family were at Melba, Ida., over the Fourth, where they visited Millard's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Millard.

At the Messenger home Sunday were Ralph's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Trefthen of Eureka, who were returning from Shasta lake.

Cerebral Palsy Victim Found in Richmond

Richland — Sherry Lynn Woodward, 4½-year-old cerebral palsy victim in need of constant medical care, was found here the head of the Thursday noon parade.

District Commander of Veterans of World War I, Ralph Aylesworth of Roseburg paid his first official visit to the local Barracks No. 146 Tuesday night.

Other guests included Lee Turner, past district commander; Edgar Irwin, department inspector; Harry Lohn, C. E. Berg, and Elmer E. Curry, all of Grants Pass Barracks No. 27.

Wives of the visiting veterans attended the meeting of the newly instituted auxiliary held on the same night at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall near Cave Junction.

Plans to raise money for the purchase of Barracks flags were discussed before the men joined the ladies for refreshments.

Home from a California trip is Mrs. H. M. Simington, who spent a week with her mother, Mrs. Louise Bell, in San Fernando valley. While there she saw former Valley resident, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cooper and visited with her son, Pat, who is employed at Pacific Telephone company in Los Angeles.

Accompanying Mrs. Simington as far as Sacramento were her husband, who is employed in that city, their daughter, Merrill, and their daughter-in-law and baby, Mrs. Delores Simington and Lori. Simington stayed at Sacramento while the others returned late last week.

Found in Richmond

Friday at the home of an elderly couple where she had been left last Sunday by her father.

Harry Ernest Woodward, 23, father of the child, was arrested in Coos Bay Tuesday on a second degree kidnapping warrant from Olympia, Wash.

Woodward was accused of taking the child from her mother in Olympia July 2 but he refused until Saturday to reveal what he had done with his daughter. Police launched a statewide search before Woodward finally disclosed what he had done with her. He was turned over to Olympia authorities, who said they would take the child back to Olympia with them.

Parents of the girl were separated.
