Robertson-Wisely Rites Read in Evening Ceremony

Miss Theodora Joyce Robertson became the bride of David Gene Wisely in a ceremony held Saturday, June 29, at eight o'clock in the evening at the Ashland Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. R. W. Hohn officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 120 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rangwald Robertson, Little Valley, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wisely, 724 West Jackson street, Medford.

Pink and white gladiolus decorated the church for the ceremony. Mrs. C. M. Litwiller played the traditional organ wedding music and M. Lee Mansveld was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace and tulle over satin fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a flowered lace crown and she carried a bouquet of pink roses encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Gordon Gwinn was honor attendant for her sister, Miss Janet Speirs and Miss Jean Kerns were bridesmaids. They wore pink lace frocks over pink satin and carried cascade bouquets of pink gladiolus.

Steven Wisely, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man while William Newland and Louis Bittle, both of Medford, acted as groomsmen.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church.

Mrs. Robert Lilly, Mrs. Charles McCumiskey, both of Riddle, and Mrs. Gordon Gwinn, Ashland, all sisters of the bride, assisted with the serving. Mrs. Richard Long played the piano during the reception.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Robertson wore a white and blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Wisely chose a pink dress with white accessories. They both wore pink rose corsages.

The newlywed couple are making their home at 917 Grant street, Medford, following a wedding trip to Oregon and California coasts.

The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school and is employed as a cashier for California Oregon Power company. She has been making her home at 767 Oak street, Ashland. The bridegroom attended Medford High school, Southern Oregon college, and Oregon State college. He is a lumber grader for Timber Products company.

TUESDAY MEETING

The Oak Grove Neighborhood club will be entertained at the summer home of Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge on Rogue river Tuesday, July 16. Those attending are to meet at the Trowbridge home, 3237 Jacksonville highway, at 10 a.m. Those attending should take their own service and those bringing food will be contacted by the president Mrs. Alex Connell.

Methodist Women Return From School

Two Rogue Valley Methodist women have returned from Salt Lake City where they attended the School of Missions and Christian Service of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Oliver P. Taylor, Medford, and Mrs. A. S. Feller, Camp White, were sent as delegates from the Oregon Conference to receive the week of special training.

Theme of the school was "Till Christ Shall Dwell in Every Heart" and was held on the campus of Westminster college. There were about 100 delegates from the ten western states, Hawaii and Alaska. The purpose of the school was to give training to selected officers of the Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild, in order that there may be more effective leadership in Conference schools.

Mrs. A. S. Feller is the chairman of the Oregon school which will be held at Camp Magruder, near Rockaway, July 21 through 26. Mrs. Taylor will instruct a workshop on drama and audio-visuals in the church. Mrs. Feller will also teach the foreign mission course on Japan later in the year in Medford. She studied under Dr. Hamako Hirose, principal of Hiroshima Girls' School in Japan. Mrs. Taylor studied the book of Mark under the Rev. Roy Nichols of Downs Memorial Methodist church, Oakland, Calif. Mrs. Feller, secretary of missionary education and service for the Oregon Conference, and Mrs. Taylor, secretary of promotion for the conference, each received specialized training in her line of work and will conduct a clinic for local officers at Camp Magruder.

Mrs. Nina Miller, 1840 Barnett road, Medford, became the bride of Dale Eldred, 417 Union street, Medford, in a ceremony held Friday, July 5, in San Francisco at the home of the Rev. Lovey Murray. For her wedding the bride wore a blue frock with gardenia and pink rose corsage. The newlywed couple will make their home at 1840 Barnett road. Mr. Eldred is the operator of the Tri-City Window Cleaning service.
