

Wooden Shoe, Roseburg Men Claim 50 Pin Tourney Togas

Business Men's assurance, Roseburg, and Wooden Shoe, Medford, claimed the men's and women's team championships last night after all top scores of past weeks successfully withstood challenge on the final week end of the annual Southern Oregon Handicap tournament at Medford Bowling lanes.

The Roseburg men rolled 3039 four sessions back to beat out Del Norte Feed store, Crescent City, Calif., by six pins. Wooden Shoe's 2726 count held up for three sessions. Co-runners-up were Alley Kat Drive-in, Klamath Falls, and Mann's Department store, Medford, each with 2715.

Bruce Williams, Coos Bay, captured singles honors with 721. Marshall Brown and Harry Frye, Medford, were doubles winners with 1363 and Frye won all-events with 2052. Frye was second to Williams in singles with 715 and Bill Blunt, Phoenix, who accomplished the tourney's standout feat, a near perfect game 299, was No. 2 in all-events with 1978. Brown and Frye in doubles shaded Bill Biehn and Harold Martin, Grants Pass, by a single pin.

Box Wins Six-Game

Ann Price, Brookings, won women's singles with 634. Sally Moreno, Roseburg, was all-events victor with 1793, and she and Anita-Nichols, Roseburg, were doubles winners with 1215. Nichols was second in singles with 628. Vera Cummins and Maxine McCall, Medford, in doubles with 1201 and Helen Carter, Roseburg, in all-events with 1741.

For the second year in a row, Lee Bex, Medford, won the Western Six Game Singles mantle for 170 average and over

Studs, Talent Chalk Up Victories Sunday In Rogue Valley Loop

Medford Cheney Studs will play Dunsmuir, Calif., at the fairgrounds here Wednesday evening in a non league semi-pro baseball scrap. Dunsmuir is a member of the Northern California league.

ROGUE VALLEY LEAGUE:		L	Pct
Medford	7	0	1.000
Cave Junction	5	2	.714
Glendale	3	3	.500
Talent	3	4	.429
Butte Falls	2	4	.367
Camp White	2	4	.367
Grants Pass	1	6	.143

Winning baseball games with late inning rallies is almost a tradition with the Medford Studs. And they were consistent with that trait yesterday. The Cheney Lumber company club punched over a tying run in the seventh canto and tallied up three more in the ninth frame in a 4 to 1 victory over the cellar-dwelling but stubborn Grants Pass Merchants.

Medford's unblemished leadership of the Rogue Valley league was protected by the outcome at Grants Pass. Glendale nipped Cave Junction 5 to 4 as both clubs held to third and second spots. Ashland-Talent crunched Camp White 21 to 3 to bust the tie for fourth position.

The Studs poked out three hits in the ninth in establishing their margin of victory. Pitcher Jerry Bartow helped out his own cause by driving in what proved to be the winning run and Third Baseman Frank Reclor batted home the other two.

Mound Duel

Hurlers Larry Cochell of Grants Pass and Bartow of the Studs engaged in a stellar duel over most of the route. Bartow gave up only two hits over seven innings and Cochell held the Studs to a pair of safeties over six. With tight GP fielding it was three up and three down for the Studs in four of the six stanzas. The Medford tosser finally wound up with a four-hitter game while the Cheneys tagged Cochell for eight over eight panels.

First hit yielded by Bartow was a double by Outfielder Mel Friend in the first inning. It drove home Don Jacobson for the only Merchant run. The third sacker had drawn a base on balls.

That was all the scoring until Cochell weakened in the seventh for hits by Catcher Frank Roelandt and Outfielder Ed Reinking and for bases on balls to Shortstop Ron Owings and Outfielder Jerry Droscher. Reinking drove Owings in for the tally. A try at squeezing Roelandt in for another marker failed when Bartow popped out on the bunt attempt.

Grants Pass cut Studs' hopes in the eighth inning with a double play on Outfielder John Kovenz's liner to Jacobson at third after First Baseman Jack Cooney had singled.

Medford was charged with five errors during the afternoon but all had quite harmless results. The only miscue by a Merchant, however, was part of the key to the Grants Pass downfall. All of the runs in the ninth were unearned. Roelandt doubled with one out. Droscher smashed the ball to Shortstop Chuck Nevi who bobbled. Reinking fanned for the second out. Bartow singled scoring Roelandt and went to second base on the throw in as Droscher went to third. Reclor then smacked a liner over shortstop to bring home Droscher and Bartow.

Roelandt was the heavy hitter of the day with two doubles and single in four batting turns. Bartow had two for four and Monty Bates dittoed for Grants Pass.

Cochell walked three and struck out six and Bartow gave two bases on balls and fanned 11. Each hit a batter with a pitch.

Six of the Ashland-Talent players chalked up a least three safe blows in the win over the Veterans Administration domiciliary nine at Camp White. Big frame was the fourth when seven runs were run up on five singles, two bases on balls and two errors.

Jim McAbee swatted four for six with a double and a triple and Gordy Thoreson four for five with a double. Clyde Smith had a solo homer, a two-bagger and a single in five turns. Ron Weinhold slapped three for four and Gene Parent and Pete Cotton each three for six in the 22-hit attack.

Bill Seymour homered and tripled for Camp White in five times up and Barney Riggs singled and two-based in five efforts. John Eggink and Ray Thiess recorded two hits each.

Parents, throwing a 12-hitter for Talent, whiffed eight and walked two.

Camp White had defeated Talent 6 to 0 just last Wednesday.

PIPELINE PLANNED FOR NATURAL GAS

San Francisco — Pacific Gas and Electric company has announced plans to construct a 330 million dollar pipeline system to transport natural gas from Canada to California.

Norman R. Sutherland, president and general manager of the utility company, said the international project would connect California with the Canadian Province of Alberta, thus adding to supplies from other sources required to meet the mounting fuel and energy needs of California.

Authorization by the Federal Power commission, California Public Utilities commission and Canadian governmental agencies will be necessary before construction can begin, he said.

Sutherland said initial deliveries of 400 million cubic feet per day are planned for 1960.

PORTLANDER TO TAKE COMMAND OF PLANES

Portland — Maj. Gen. Chester E. McCarty of Portland is scheduled to take command later this summer of all tactical air command fighter and fighter bomber bases west of the Mississippi river, it was announced Sunday.

McCarty, a Portland attorney and former state senator, is head of the 18th Air Force which will lose its transport planes. Heavy transport wings have been transferred to the Military Air Transport Service.

Gen. McCarty will move from Donaldson AFB in South Carolina to Waco, Tex.

Beck, Young Grab Honors In Drag Races on Sunday

Charles Beck, riding his Triumph 40 motorcycle at a speed of 96.77 miles per hour, was top eliminator yesterday in Southern Oregon Timing association drag races at Camp White strip.

Floyd Young Jr., riding a BSA, had fast time with 99.83 mph.

Eighty contestants contended Sunday in one of SOTA's most closely matched drag races. All times turned in in each class were within one mph. of each other. There were several dead heat contests.

New Roadster

A new roadster appeared on the scene Sunday. The machine, powered by a full Oldsmobile engine turned in a best time of 95.81 mph. It was built by Jack

Gault and Bub Hewitt and driven by them. They were in such a hurry to participate they didn't have time to lock the rear end but did well indeed for the first time out.

There were several disappointments. Roger Welch's Chevrolet took leave of three rods by way of the block. Bill Steeve's blown DeSoto powered comp, equipped a valve stem in the starting line. It was forced out of the entire meet.

Pope Warns World Of Own Destruction In Pleasure Search

Vatican City — Pope Pius XII warned the world Saturday it is running "headlong towards its own destruction" in its "unrestrained" search for money, pleasure and comfort.

In an encyclical issued in connection with the forthcoming 100th anniversary of the Shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes in France, the Pontiff sternly denounced materialism which expresses itself in the "cult of the body, the exaggerated search for comfort" and the callous "disposal of human life." The encyclical was entitled "The Pilgrimage of Lourdes."

He said materialism was rampant both in the communist and non-communist nations.

The encyclical, written in French, was a 5,000-word Papal warning against a modern society which dares to challenge God himself and which "would want to gain the universe at the price of its soul."

"The World," he said, "is in the grip of a terrible temptation of materialism, frequently denounced by our predecessors and us."

The materialism is shown not only in that "condemned philosophy" of communism, he said.

"It also manifests itself in the greed for money whose ravages spread in ration to the size of modern undertakings."

Warning on Lives

He charged that money has become "the determining factor of so many deliberations weighing on the lives of people."

Materialism "expresses itself in the cult of the body, in the exaggerated search for comfort, and in the removing of all traces of austerity from daily life."

It "ends in the disposal of human life even to the point of destroying it before it sees the light."

The encyclical urged Roman Catholic Bishops and Priests to instill a zealous devotion to God and things spiritual among pilgrims making the trip to Lourdes for the Centennial Celebration from Feb. 11, 1958, to Feb. 11, 1959.

Tax Agent Shot; Revenge Hinted

Portland — Otis Hanstad, 40, remained in "very critical" condition in a local hospital today after he was shot twice in the back at Longview Saturday night in an apparent "revenge" shotgun shooting.

Hanstad is manager of the Washington state tax commission office in Longview. Hospital attendants said that Hanstad, a former Kelso policeman, probably will never walk again.

Held in the Cowlitz county, Wash., jail at Kelso on an open charge in connection with the shooting was Matt Hintsala, 47.

Hintsala was taken into custody at his home after sheriff's officers surrounded the place.

Hanstad was wounded as he stepped from a Finnish steam bath from a distance of about 15 feet.

The sheriff's office said it was told that Hintsala had berated Hanstad about an hour before the shootings for warnings about traffic violations which Hanstad had given Hintsala several years ago.

Ex-Woodburn Head Takes Job in East

Harrisburg, Pa. — The Pennsylvania State Welfare Department said Saturday it has hired James Lamb of Woodburn, Ore., to be superintendent of the Pennsylvania state training school for boys at Morgantown.

Lamb was for seven years superintendent of the MacLaren School for Boys at Woodburn. State Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro said Lamb was "one of the top training school administrators in the country" and lauded his "treatment-oriented philosophy."

Lamb will take over his new duties about Sept. at a salary believed to be in the $9,400 to $12,000 bracket. He resigned several weeks ago as head of the Oregon school.

Spanish Children To Entertain Skelton Boy

Madrid — One hundred thousand children will help entertain the allings on of comedian Red Skelton during their visit to Spain, a Catholic children's magazine said today.

The magazine "Tres Amigos" (Three Friends) said it will make sure together with its readers that Richard Skelton's stay in Spain is enjoyable.

The Skeltons are showing their nine-year-old son the major sights of the world. He is suffering from leukemia.

Northwest Win Hurdled By Moreci

Vince Moreci came in out of his regular centerfield post Sunday night and twirled his first baseball game. He was successful, and the Yakima Bears dumped Salem, 6-3, in the nightcap of a Northwest league doubleheader.

The win, coupled with a 4-0 shutout hurled by Don Orwiler in the opener, boosted the Bears out of the league cellar into a fourth place tie with Lewiston.

In the other Sunday NW action, Eugene and Lewiston split a pair. The Bronx took the opener, 4-1, on Jack McQuade's neat three hitter, and Eugene got the nightcap, 4-3, with Ollie Brantley getting his 17th win in a relief role. Brantley was charged with the first game loss. Tri-City and league-leading Wen-

Raventos Lost To Oregon Eleven

Eugene — John Raventos, standout tackle on the University of Oregon football team will be lost for the 1957 season because of a shoulder injury. Coach Len Casanova said today.

Raventos missed part of last season with the injury and doctors have decided he would risk permanent injury should he play again next fall. His loss leaves Oregon with Jim Linden and Jerry Kershner as the only two experienced tackles.
